

Press Paragraphs

Wilber Harden has purchased a new Ford roadster.

R. B. McEwen transacted business at Umapine and Lowden Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Singer spent Sunday with relatives in Waitsburg.

Mike Keating of Pendleton, transacted business in Athena Wednesday.

Dale Stephens is coming home from University of Oregon for the Easter vacation.

Lawrence Sharp returned Sunday from Portland, where he spent several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stater of Pendleton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dudley.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton and Mrs. Laurence Pinkerton were in Walla Walla Wednesday.

Bryce Baker drove a new International truck up from Portland Wednesday for Rogers & Goodman.

The O. D. O. club will meet at the home of Mrs. Laurence McIntyre in Athena next Friday afternoon, March 15.

Mrs. F. S. LeGrow, who has been a patient at a Walla Walla hospital was able to return to her home in Athena Wednesday.

Miss Lenore McNair who has been in ill health for several months is reported worse and is threatened with an operation.

John Banister and Ralph Saling, who spent a portion of the winter in Portland, have returned to their homes at Weston.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Willaby and children came over from Freewater Sunday and spent the day at the home of Mrs. Minnie Willaby.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman are here from Dorris, California, visiting relatives. Wayne has employment in a moulding factory in that city.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norris, at Medford, Oregon, March 6th, 1929, a son. Mrs. Norris was formerly Miss Sanders of Athena.

Mrs. M. L. Watts and Mrs. H. I. Watts motored to Walla Walla Thursday where they were luncheon guests of Mrs. Dr. Robinson at the Country Club.

Mrs. Vern Smith and children of Weston, returned to their home there Saturday, after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McFadden in Athena.

Oliver Dickenson was in Athena Monday from Freewater. Until recently Mr. Dickenson was a member of the Freewater police force, relinquishing his position on the election of a new mayor and councilmen.

Fred Pinkerton remains in a serious condition as the result of a gathering in his head, and has been in a hospital at Walla Walla for treatment. His son John has been looking after the janitor work in the school building, during Mr. Pinkerton's absence.

Lucile and Genevieve Barrett are quite ill with influenza at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barrett. Beverley who has also been ill has recovered and is able to attend school after an absence of two weeks.

The local W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Otho Reeder Wednesday, the first meeting for the winter. A splendid program and social hour were enjoyed by a goodly number of members. Mrs. Louis Stewart served a dainty lunch.

Mrs. Glenn Dudley entertained at luncheon at the Walla Walla Country Club Thursday, her guests being Mrs. Glenn Stater, Mrs. Gertrude Strand and Mrs. Dale Slusher of Pendleton. The guests played contract bridge following luncheon.

Tomorrow night Clive Brook and Mary Brian appear at the Standard Theatre in "Forgotten Faces," a splendid Paramount picture. Sunday night, Conrad Nagel comes back to the Standard in "The Michigan Kid," a Universal-Jewel production.

Baseball fans cannot figure where Athena has sufficient players to put a team in the field this season. Some are of the opinion that by hyphenating with Adams, the two towns could put a winning team in the field, and this proposition is being well received here.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson are here visiting relatives. They reside on a farm near Lebanon, Oregon, and are well satisfied with their location. Their son, who is attending Lebanon high school, will graduate this spring. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are at the home of Al Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Barnes are at Weston from Chelan, Washington, coming to attend the funeral of Mrs. Barnes' father, the late Glendore DeGraw. Mr. Barnes, in company with his brother, S. A. Barnes of Weston, was in Athena for a few hours Wednesday afternoon.

Donald McFayden, who has been in the poultry business in Athena for several years, is manufacturing and selling a chick brooder that is meeting with success. Simple in construction and economical in operation, the new brooder is adapted to both large and small flocks of birds.

Mrs. Sheldon Taylor and Mrs. Dean Dudley entertained the Three o' Four Bridge club and their husbands at the Dean Dudley home Wednesday night. Six tables were in play, additional guests being Mr. and Mrs. Bert Logsdon and Mrs. Marvel Joyce of Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Prestbye held high score, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Logsdon received the guest prize, Mr. and Mrs. Max Hopper receiving the consolation. The play was followed by a delicious supper.

Ramon Wilkins, two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilkins, died at Condon Saturday afternoon of spinal meningitis. The little fellow was the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Willaby of Arlington, and a great grandson of Mrs. Minnie Willaby of Athena.

Fay LeGrow and Herman Geissel spent Saturday night in Portland. They accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Baker to Portland Saturday afternoon and returned Sunday, driving Mr. LeGrow's LaSalle car which he left in Portland on his return from California, recently.

Jack Perry, who resigned his pastorate of the Christian church in Athena, left Wednesday for Myrtle Point, where he will conduct an evangelistic meeting which will close on Easter Sunday. Mrs. Perry and children will remain in Athena during Mr. Perry's visit to Myrtle Point.

Miss Esma Hiteman is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. DeMerritt at Walla Walla. Miss Hiteman, who has been attending high school at Walla Walla, has suffered a relapse from influenza. Little Dell DeMerritt is being cared for at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dell in Athena, while Miss Hiteman is receiving care at the DeMerritt home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Baker returned home Wednesday from Eugene, where they visited Mr. Baker's parents, who reside in the University town. For the first time in fourteen years, Mr. Baker met his sister, wife of Col. J. R. Pourie, of the U. S. Army. Col. Pourie has been stationed at Fort Sam Houston for the past two years, but has been transferred to Manila, to which station he and Mrs. Pourie will go in a few days.

Sweet peas in pastel shades accented a Spring note when Mrs. Fred Kershaw entertained the Athena Bridge club Friday afternoon. Additional guests included Mrs. Glenn Dudley, Mrs. Max Hopper, Mrs. James Cresswell and Mrs. C. L. McFadden. High score was made by Mrs. Lloyd Michener, and the guest prize was presented to Mrs. Max Hopper, the consolation falling to Mrs. W. S. Ferguson. A color scheme suggestive of St. Patrick's day was used by the hostess in the attractive salad and dainty cakes served at the tea hour.

Miss Lola Stockstill, who is returning to her home at Grant's Pass, and Herman Geissel, who is leaving Athena soon, were honor guests at a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Zerba on Third street, Tuesday evening. The evening was spent pleasantly at cards, five tables being in play. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stockstill, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Zerba, Misses Lois Smith, Francis Cannon, Areta Kirk, Thelma Schrimpf, Marjorie Wilson and Messrs. Ralph McEwen, Armond Bell, Edwin McEwen, Oral Michener, Wilford Miller, Walter Huffman Ray Johnston and the honor guests.

Jas. S. Bell has returned from Independence, Mo., where he went to attend the funeral of his uncle, William G. Smith, who died at the age of 76 years. Mr. Smith is remembered by people in Athena, as a result of his visits to the Bell family in the past. The funeral was in charge of Independence Lodge, No. 76, A. F. & A. M. of which the deceased was a member. Surviving Mr. Smith are two sisters, Mrs. Bell of Athena, and Mrs. John Conn of Vancouver, B. C., and a number of nieces and nephews. Mr. Smith was born in Canada and in early life was a railroad engineer. He was never married.

Monday Mrs. R. A. Duffield and son Curtis were entertained at lunch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Singer. Early in the afternoon a number of friends, knowing the occasion to be Mrs. Duffield's birthday, decided to help her celebrate the occasion. Accordingly, bringing their lunch and sewing they spent the afternoon with her at Mrs. Singer's home. The ladies are still guessing as to just what age to remember, as Mrs. Duffield forget to state. Those present were Mrs. John Tompkins, Mrs. Chas. McFarland, Mrs. W. McPherson, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Frank DeFreece Mrs. C. B. Moore, Mrs. R. A. Duffield, and Mrs. Ralph Singer.

Mrs. Paul Lieuallen entertained the 3 o' 4 Bridge club and guests sufficient for three extra tables last Thursday afternoon at her home in Adams. The house was attractive with cut flowers and bright candles. Mrs. Laurence Pinkerton won high club score and Mrs. C. L. McFadden won consolation. Mrs. M. L. Watts received the guest prize for high

Special In Turkish Towels

We made an exceptional good buy in Turkish towels, and are passing it on to you. These towels are 20x42 inches in size, good weight, with Pink, Blue and Yellow borders, regular 50c value.

Selling Special at 39 cents
2 for 75 cents
1-2 dozen for 2.10

See our window and phone 152

Athena Department Store

2 1-2 pounds of Macaroni, curve cut for
35 cents
This week only

The Quality Grocery
Alice Eager, Prop.

Goodyear Tires
The Greatest Name in Rubber
All Sizes
Carried in Stock
They Stand Up and are Priced Right
Athena, Garage, Main Street, Phone 352

Let us help you remodel your home

Often the question comes up, "what shall I do with my old home?" To sell means to sacrifice. The answer is remodel. Thousands are doing it because it is simple, practical, and often well worth while.

Another room—a new roof—a new entrance or a new front—whatever the problem, we will be glad to have you consult us.

We will estimate the cost of materials for you and recommend the most practical for your particular purpose.

Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. Main Street, Athena

score. The guest list included Mrs. H. I. Watts, Mrs. W. S. Ferguson, Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn, Mrs. M. L. Watts, Mrs. Fred Pinkerton, Mrs. Bryce Baker, Mrs. James Cresswell, Mrs. Francis Lieuallen, Miss Pearl Ramsay, Miss Hilda Dickenson, Mrs. Joseph Joyce of Seattle and Mrs. Fred Beckner of Pilot Rock.

Oral Michener and Edwin McEwen were hosts last evening, when they honored Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman who are here from Dorris, California, visiting relatives. Games diverted the guests during the evening, following which a buffet supper was enjoyed. Those present were Misses Carolyn Kidder, Marjorie Douglas, Areta Kirk, Marjorie Wilson, Frances Cannon, Thelma Schrimpf, Armond Bell, Walt Huffman, Harold Kirk, Ralph McEwen, Wilford Miller, the honor guests and the hosts.

The Baptist and Christian churches will unite in Sunrise Easter morning services. The program will appear in the Press, probably next week.

Yard raking has been in order this week among Athena home owners, and as a result many a huge pile of leaves has been burned.

Mrs. Clark Mace and daughter Dorothy of Richland, Wash., spent last week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Logsdon.

Orel McPherrin, city deliveryman, has been ill this week and Dalberth Taylor has been taking care of the deliveries.

The next meeting of the 3 o' 4 club will be held at the home of Mrs. C. L. McFadden, Thursday, March 14. "Forgotten Faces," Saturday. "Michigan Kid," Sunday. Standard Theatre.

Bulbs are beginning to shoot their sprouts above ground in Athena flower gardens.

The Jolly Twenty club will meet at the home of Mrs. Forrest Zerba today.

Mrs. Zeltha McIntyre was a Pendleton visitor Wednesday.

CLASSIFIED

For Sale—A baby bed and mattress for $5. Phone 781, Athena.

Good Potatoes—Till Beckner is selling good potatoes at $1 per sack, delivered in Athena.

Brooder Stove—If you need a brooder stove this season see Donald McFayden. He is making some he will guarantee to give perfect satisfaction. No smoke, no fumes, but plenty of heat and absolute safety from fire. He will also have chicks for sale. The brooder stove can be seen in operation any time at his place.

STANDARD THEATRE
Saturday, March 9

Paramount Presents
"Forgotten Faces"

With
Clive Brook and Mary Brian
William Powell and Baclanova

Menacing faces out of the past. Faces that recall old sins. Faces that spell retribution. A woman finds Forgotten Faces foil her fearful plots. Old Faces for new Thrills.

Admission, 10-25-35 cents

Sunday, March 10

Conrad Nagel

In
"The Michigan Kid"

Straight through the roaring river of fire! and into the valley of death! They were trapped in a frail canoe between narrow walls of fire from which only a miracle could save them yet—but you must see this tremendous drama of the North Country to get the big thrill of your life!

Admission, 10-25-35 cents

Attention Bridge Players

We carry a complete line of Bridge cards, tally cards, score cards, Bridge prizes and the new Bridge candy. Just out, Congress Bridge sets with two decks cards, tally and score cards, complete @ 2.25. New Bicycle Bridge sets containing two decks cards with fancy back @ 1.50. St. Patrick's tally and score cards in stock.

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

Notice!

Our Wagon Will Be in Athena
on Monday, March 11th 1929

MODEL CLEANERS
Pendleton, Oregon