

Press Paragraphs

Walter Adams was in town Tuesday, from Walla Walla.
 Walter Price is slowly recovering from a serious illness.
 R. B. McEwen has returned from a business trip to Salem.
 George Ferguson was in Athena Tuesday, from Pendleton.
 Hardy Mansfield of Pendleton was an Athena visitor Wednesday.
 Mrs. Orel McPherrin and little son are visiting relatives at Heppner.
 Dale Stephens has entered upon his duties as salesman at Steve's Grocery.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cooley of lower Pine Creek were Athena visitors Wednesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Read and Mr. and Mrs. McPherson spent Sunday in Walla Walla.
 Born, at Walla Walla, March 27, 1929, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coppock of Athena, a daughter.
 Frank DeFreese and son Roy have exchanged the family Ford touring car for a Chevrolet sedan.
 Mrs. Louis Keen recently returned from an extended visit to her sister at Enumclaw, Washington.
 Mrs. Flock of Portland, is visiting her daughters, Mrs. Fred Blinn of Helix, and Mrs. Clarence Zerba.
 Mrs. Lorton of Walla Walla is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Koepke, south of Athena.
 A number of Athena people motored to Adams Wednesday evening to attend the High School vaudeville.
 Penn Harris has installed a couple of barber chairs at his shop on Main street to take place of the old ones.
 D. H. Mansfield was in Athena from Pendleton the first of the week, purchasing horses for the Portland market.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norris left Athena yesterday for Portland, where they contemplate residing in the future.
 Rev. Dow, pastor of the Baptist church, who was confined to his home last week with illness, is again able to be out.
 Mrs. R. B. McEwen, Mrs. M. L. Watts and Mrs. H. I. Watts were luncheon guests of Mrs. Glenn Dudley, Thursday at the Walla Walla Country Club.

 Mrs. Charlton of LaGrande and Mrs. Ward of Pendleton, have been visiting at the Star Charlton home, west of town.
 Mrs. James Cresswell and small son Jimmy are at Forest Grove for a three weeks visit with Mrs. Cresswell's parents.
 The Methodist Ladies' club will give a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Ethel Montague next Wednesday afternoon, April 10.
 Reverend Meredith of Richland, Wash., will hold services in the Christian church Sunday, preaching both morning and evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman have returned to Dorris, California, to reside, after spending some time in Athena, visiting relatives.
 Mrs. Stella Keen was in Walla Walla Monday evening, where she heard the Cornish Trio of Seattle, in the Whitman College chapel.
 "The High School Hero," a fine photoplay, junior class benefit, will be shown at the Standard Theatre, Wednesday evening next.
 The condition of Mrs. Leeper, who is at the home of Mrs. Nellie Taylor in Walla Walla, remains practically the same, so it is reported.
 Pat White was over from Walla Walla the fore part of the week. Owing to an injury, Mr. White was in the hospital at Walla Walla for several weeks.
 Ben Dupuis, who has been receiving medical treatment in Portland for several weeks, was in Athena recently with Mrs. Dupuis. He is reported as improving.
 Leon Miller is again in the mechanical department of the Athena Garage, after being employed as truck driver for a while in the state highway maintenance crew.
 "Anybody Here Seen Kelly?" with Bessie Love and Tom Moore, will be the feature of the program at the Standard Theatre for two nights—tomorrow and Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hamilton and son Leighton and Mrs. Dora Hamilton, of Joseph, Oregon, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Logsdon, the fore part of the week.
 Mention was made last week to the effect that the Athena Market was being painted on the interior. This week the front of the building has been given a new coat of paint.
 East Oregonian: Mrs. George Winship and little daughter Anna Mae have left for their home in Union after a visit with Mrs. Winship's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McConnell.
 Miss Lenore Jones who has been at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lew McNair for a week, since returning from the hospital at Walla Walla, is regaining her health satisfactorily.
 Ernest Bell, Dean Dudley, Athena; L. L. Lieuallen, Adams, and Newt O'Harra, Weston, have been drawn on the jury panel for service at the April term of the circuit court, which opens Monday.

Mrs. Charles Norris was the inspiration for an evening of social pleasure Tuesday night at K. of P. hall, when the Neighbors of Woodcraft entertained in her honor. After installation of officers, the members of the Circle repaired to Kilgore's Cafe, where a banquet was served.
 Miss Esma Hiteman has so far recovered from her recent illness that she was able to return to Athena where she will remain until able to resume her studies at Walla Walla high school.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Stanton, Mrs. S. C. Stanton and Cleve Stanton will motor to Colfax Sunday. Mrs. S. C. Stanton will remain there for some time while the rest of the party will return to Athena.
 Dan McIntyre has become an automobile salesman, representing the Willys-Knight and Whippet lines, with headquarters at Pendleton. Mr. McIntyre was formerly engaged in farming near Helix.
 Mrs. W. K. Wall has received news of the death of a relative, the wife of her nephew, Henry Muir, the funeral occurring Wednesday at La Grande. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dudley attended from their home at Goldendale.
 Mrs. Allie Mays of Waitsburg, made a short call on her nephew, H. A. Barrett, Monday. Mrs. Mays was on her way motoring to Portland and Bremerton, Wash., she was accompanied by her son, Ray Mays and wife.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gross came down from their ranch home near Washouk, Wash., and spent the week-end at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Dudley Rogers. Mrs. Rogers accompanied her parents home for a brief visit.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Moore and two little sons have left for their new home at Opportunity, Washington. Before coming to Athena to operate the Athena Service Station, Mr. and Mrs. Moore resided at Pomeroy, Washington.
 After a critical illness, during which time he was confined to his room for 18 weeks, Byron Hawks is able to be up at his home in Bonner's Ferry, Idaho. Byron's Athena friends are gratified to learn of his recovery, and hope sincerely that he will regain his health.
 Friends to the number of 28 gathered at the home of Leon Miller Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. Miller's 41st birthday anniversary. A most pleasant evening was spent at the Miller home. A large birthday cake was cut and ice cream was served.
 R. A. Duffield, who underwent a minor operation for removal of his tonsils at Portland, some weeks ago is not convalescing as rapidly as expected. He may decide to spend several days at Bingham Springs in the hope that the mineral water there may prove of benefit to him. Mr. Duffield's brother is here from Portland, visiting at the Duffield home.
 Mrs. F. B. Radtke is hostess to the Study club this afternoon at her home on 4th street. The subject for study is Old Trails and Landmarks, and Oregon Geographical names. Two more meetings will see the close of the Oregon study, when a subject will be chosen for next year. Mrs. E. C. Rogers and Mrs. M. W. Hansell will be the hostesses for April 19 and May 3.
 The 3 o' 4 Bridge club was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Forrest Zerba. Four tables were in play, Mrs. C. L. McFadden won the club prize, Mrs. H. I. Watts, guest prize and Mrs. James Lieuallen the consolation. In addition to club members Mrs. M. L. Watts, Mrs. Bert Logsdon, Mrs. H. I. Watts, Mrs. Fred Kershaw and Mrs. Alva Blalock were guests. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess at the tea hour.
 A small group of friends enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. R. B. McEwen at luncheon Monday afternoon. Covers were laid for seven at a table centered with daffodils and the guests found their places by means of cards and baskets which further accented the yellow color scheme. Original limericks extolling the sterling qualities of those present afforded amusement. The afternoon was spent with needlework. The guests were Mrs. Charles Betts, Mrs. Omar Stephens, Mrs. A. A. Kimball, Mrs. Bert Richards, Mrs. F. B. Boyd and Mrs. Fred Kershaw.
 Mrs. M. L. Watts entertained the Athena Bridge Club at luncheon Friday afternoon. Pussy willows and daffodils were used about the rooms. Covers were laid for twelve at a beautifully appointed table centered with daffodils, the places being marked by cards guarded by rabbits and chicks emphasizing the Easter idea. The afternoon was spent playing bridge, Mrs. R. B. McEwen making high club score, Mrs. E. C. Prestbye receiving the guest prize and Mrs. C. M. Eager the consolation. Additional guests were Mrs. M. M. Johns and Mrs. A. A. Kimball.
 Mrs. Ralph McEwen was a pleasing hostess Monday when she entertained six ladies at a one o'clock luncheon. Decorations were charmingly carried out in Easter yellow, a large bouquet of daffodils centering the table where

New Spring Underwear

Just received a shipment of 2 piece underwear consisting of shirts and shorts, Rayons in colors, white, pink, blue and lavender. A high grade Cotton in a wonderful selection of colors and patterns.

Priced at 50c to $1.25

New Spring Hats

A shipment for Men, Latest Shapes and Colors

Priced at 3.50 to 5.50

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

each guest found her place indicated with an original rhyme in Limerick style, setting forth some real or assumed characteristic, most cleverly done by the hostess. The afternoon was spent with needlework. The guests were: Mrs. A. A. Kimball, Mrs. Charles Betts, Mrs. B. B. Richards, Mrs. Fred Kershaw, Mrs. Omar Stephens and Mrs. F. B. Boyd.
 One of the prettiest parties of the season occurred Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. E. C. Prestbye, Mrs. C.

L. McFadden and Mrs. Max Hopper entertained at luncheon at the McFadden home. The attractive rooms were gay with spring flowers in pastel shades, which were repeated in the nosegays centering the tables and the dainty baskets of confections which marked the guests places at the tables. Following luncheon the guests enjoyed bridge, seven tables being in play. Mrs. H. I. Watts held high score and Mrs. W. S. Ferguson received the consolation. Those present were, Mesdames F. L. Zerba, Paul Lieuallen, J. T. Lieuallen, Laurence Pinkerton, Revella Lieuallen, A. L. Douglas, Glenn Dudley, Dean Dudley, S. D. Taylor, M. W. Hansell, Mrs. Kimball, M. L. Watts, H. I. Watts, Wm. Ferguson, H. Dell, R. B. McEwen, H. Barrett, F. Kershaw, W. F. Littlejohn, B. B. Richards, L. Michener, C. M. Eager, C. Garfield, A. H. McIntyre, C. Tubbs, Roy Duff, Archie McIntyre, and Miss Blanche Johnson.

"Ready to Eat"

Suggestions

Pork and Beans, Salmon, Sardines Luncheon Meats
 Soups, Canned Spaghetti and Tamales

The Quality Grocery
 Alice Eager, Prop.

BUILD

Drive Home
 the Spikes That Mean

STABILITY

A firm rocklike structure, built on a concrete foundation, of Lumber, the Lasting Material. That is an investment that will LAST thru the years.

LET US HELP YOU BUILD IT

What ever form of structure you have in mind, let us help you. Over many years we have had the practical experience that will help YOU.

TUM-A-LUM LUMBER CO.
 Free plan service

Standard Theatre

Saturday and Sunday

2 Days

Bessie Love-Tom Moore

Kate Price and Tom O'Brien

In

"Anybody Here Seen KELLY?"

Sports Reel Comedy and News Reel

Admission 10-25-35c

Wednesday, April 10th

Junior Class Benefit

The High School Hero

A Photoplay Starring Sally Phipps, Nick Stewart and Charles Paddock

in connection with program numbers by the school

Admission 10-35c

CLASSIFIED

For Sale—Bassanette, practically new, cost $17 will sell for $5. Phone 31F5.

Eggs For Hatching—Mrs. David Stone, phone 24F15, Athena, is selling eggs for hatching from pure bred Leghorns, at $1 per setting of 15; special rate for incubator hatching.