

Case
Farm Implements
Full Line
In stock soon
HERMAN HOFFMAN

Bell & Gray
Phone 5552
Two Auto Truck Drays
Always At Your Service
City and Country
HAULING
and Horse Team Work

This Sign is Your Guarantee!
We Handle Genuine Goods—No Substitutes.
Try Our Kitch
D.R. SHAMPOO

Shaving and Baths
Up-to-the Minute Bobs Hair Cuts and Shingles
DUFFIELD'S BARBER SHOP
Athena, Ore.

Press Paragraphs
Miss Hilda Dickenson spent Sunday with friends in Walla Walla.
Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Eager visited relatives in Dayton, Washington, Sunday.
Mrs. Charles Downing was in Athena Monday, from her home near Freewater.
Mrs. Minnie DePeatt, who has been ill at her home on Adams street, is convalescing.
Mrs. John Phillips, whose illness was reported in The Press last week, is improving.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson came over from Helix Sunday evening and visited relatives in Athena.
Lloyd Michener has been laid up with a rather severe case of the flu this week, but is out again.
Mrs. Jennie Bullfinch and brother, Ralph Saling, were in Athena Tuesday attending the funeral of W. B. Worthington.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price and son, Clifford, who spent the winter in California, have returned to their home in Weston.
J. P. McCarroll, Walla Walla spray paint man was in Athena Wednesday. He has taken a contract to paint the Amiel Schubert barn.
The damage suit of Bruce vs. Hale resulting from an automobile accident in Helix last fall, has been thrown out of circuit court.
The Wauna Camp Fire girls will hold a cooked food sale tomorrow at the Quality Grocery store. The girls will appreciate your patronage.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom DeFreece were over from their home near Walla Walla, visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Sims Dickenson.
Mrs. Jake Booher motored up from Pendleton Wednesday and with Miss Jennie Walker and Mrs. Clifford Walker spent the day in Walla Walla.
Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Forrest were in Athena Tuesday from their home at Thorn Hollow. Mr. Forrest has entirely recovered from burns received recently, when molten rabbit metal spurted into his face.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lieuallen are at Bend this week, visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Fred Lieuallen. Presumably Paul will angle for a few big members of the finny tribe before returning home.
Weston Leader: Mrs. E. M. Smith of The Dalles, who spent several days last week as the guest of Mrs. Nelson H. Jones, was honor guest at a social gathering held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ella O'Hara.
Laurence McBride, Weston high school student, was in Athena Wednesday, advertising the vaudeville entertainment to be given by the school Thursday evening of next week, at the school auditorium at Weston.
Mrs. F. B. Boyd accompanied Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barnes of Weston, to Walla Walla Tuesday, where she visited her niece, Mrs. William Nicholas, of Wallace, Idaho, who is at the General Hospital, recovering from a major operation.
Miss Marjorie Douglas is being honored this evening by her mother, in a party given at their home on 5th street, where her young friends to the number of twenty-nine are being invited. Cards, games and refreshments will be features.
The Arvezhonta Campfire group of Helix, are working on rag rugs. They are also planning a flower garden in the city park. The flowers from the park will be used for the sick and others who do not have flowers in their own yard and garden.
Dr. Fleanor L. Douglas, brother of Arthur Douglas of Athena, has been given supervision of the Los Angeles Osteopathic hospital, the largest institution of its kind in the world. Dr. Douglas took a medical course at University of Oregon before taking up osteopathy.
For the first time in a number of years, Jasper Harden is in town. "Jap" resides at Salem, where he is employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad company. He was here to attend the funeral of his father, John Harden, which was held Wednesday.
Monte Blue and Raquel Torres will be seen at the Standard Theatre tomorrow night in Metropolitan's fine photoplay, "White Shadows in the South Seas." Sunday night Reginald Denny will appear in "Red Hot Speed," Universal's gleeful comedy-drama.
"Wings" the mightiest air picture ever filmed is coming to the Standard Theatre on Wednesday evening, May 8th for one night only, as a special production. The silent version of this great photoplay will be shown at its best on the splendid aluminum screen at the Standard.
Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Parris celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home near Walla Walla Tuesday. About 40 relatives and friends partook of a sumptuous dinner prepared by the hostess and her able assistants. Mr. and Mrs. Parris received many beautiful presents, their children presenting them with a large mantle clock.
Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn entertained the Athena Bridge club at her home on Jefferson street, Friday afternoon. Two tables were in play. Mrs. H. I. Watts won the club prize; Mrs. Ralph McEwen the consolation. Mrs. Kimball won high guest honors and Mrs. Dean Dudley the consolation. Guests of the club were Mrs. Glenn Dudley, Mrs. A. A. Kimball, Mrs. Dean Dudley and Mrs. Chase Garfield. The hostess served refreshments.
Mrs. Arthur Douglas was hostess to the 3 o'4 club last Thursday when three tables were in play. Mrs. M. I. Miller, Mrs. C. M. Eager, Mrs. Bryce Baker and Mrs. I. L. Michener were guests, other than the club members. Spring flowers centered small tables where a dainty one course lunch was served after the play. Mrs. James Lieuallen received honors for the club members, Mrs. Sheldon Taylor consolation, and Mrs. Eager guest prize.

CRESCENT BAKING POWDER
full pound 33¢
It never fails
ABSOLUTELY PURE

Mrs. Frank Sanders and Mrs. Wm. Bush visited Mrs. Ace Wagner who is recovering after a serious operation in a Walla Walla hospital, Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Worthington and son, Emery Worthington of Pendleton, were in Athena Tuesday, coming here to attend the funeral of W. B. Worthington.
Pauline Voelker a former Helix girl and graduate of Griswold high school, won first prize in the women's oratorical contest held at Pullman on Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Homer I. Watts motored to Portland, where they spent several days. Mrs. Ralph McEwen accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Watts on the trip.
On account of the track meet at Weston, there will be no high school baseball game this week. Athena Hi will play Griswold Hi at Helix next Tuesday afternoon.
Uncle George Corder, who has felt the weight of more than 80 years, but is yet able to do manual labor, has seeded a lot of potatoes which he hopes to market early in the season.
Herman Hoffman, who is handling the J. I. Case line of farm machinery and implements in Athena, this week assembled one of the Case combines on the lot opposite N. A. Miller's furniture store.
The construction crew of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, which has been working in this community for several days, left yesterday afternoon for Meacham, where work awaits them.
Noah Remillard, old time reservation farmer, has returned from California, where he spent the winter, and has been visiting at the home of his daughter. He will go shortly to Portland and Seattle.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lieuallen are at Bend this week, visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Fred Lieuallen. Presumably Paul will angle for a few big members of the finny tribe before returning home.
Weston Leader: Mrs. E. M. Smith of The Dalles, who spent several days last week as the guest of Mrs. Nelson H. Jones, was honor guest at a social gathering held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ella O'Hara.
Laurence McBride, Weston high school student, was in Athena Wednesday, advertising the vaudeville entertainment to be given by the school Thursday evening of next week, at the school auditorium at Weston.
Mrs. F. B. Boyd accompanied Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barnes of Weston, to Walla Walla Tuesday, where she visited her niece, Mrs. William Nicholas, of Wallace, Idaho, who is at the General Hospital, recovering from a major operation.
Miss Marjorie Douglas is being honored this evening by her mother, in a party given at their home on 5th street, where her young friends to the number of twenty-nine are being invited. Cards, games and refreshments will be features.
The Arvezhonta Campfire group of Helix, are working on rag rugs. They are also planning a flower garden in the city park. The flowers from the park will be used for the sick and others who do not have flowers in their own yard and garden.
Dr. Fleanor L. Douglas, brother of Arthur Douglas of Athena, has been given supervision of the Los Angeles Osteopathic hospital, the largest institution of its kind in the world. Dr. Douglas took a medical course at University of Oregon before taking up osteopathy.
For the first time in a number of years, Jasper Harden is in town. "Jap" resides at Salem, where he is employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad company. He was here to attend the funeral of his father, John Harden, which was held Wednesday.
Monte Blue and Raquel Torres will be seen at the Standard Theatre tomorrow night in Metropolitan's fine photoplay, "White Shadows in the South Seas." Sunday night Reginald Denny will appear in "Red Hot Speed," Universal's gleeful comedy-drama.
"Wings" the mightiest air picture ever filmed is coming to the Standard Theatre on Wednesday evening, May 8th for one night only, as a special production. The silent version of this great photoplay will be shown at its best on the splendid aluminum screen at the Standard.
Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Parris celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home near Walla Walla Tuesday. About 40 relatives and friends partook of a sumptuous dinner prepared by the hostess and her able assistants. Mr. and Mrs. Parris received many beautiful presents, their children presenting them with a large mantle clock.
Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn entertained the Athena Bridge club at her home on Jefferson street, Friday afternoon. Two tables were in play. Mrs. H. I. Watts won the club prize; Mrs. Ralph McEwen the consolation. Mrs. Kimball won high guest honors and Mrs. Dean Dudley the consolation. Guests of the club were Mrs. Glenn Dudley, Mrs. A. A. Kimball, Mrs. Dean Dudley and Mrs. Chase Garfield. The hostess served refreshments.
Mrs. Arthur Douglas was hostess to the 3 o'4 club last Thursday when three tables were in play. Mrs. M. I. Miller, Mrs. C. M. Eager, Mrs. Bryce Baker and Mrs. I. L. Michener were guests, other than the club members. Spring flowers centered small tables where a dainty one course lunch was served after the play. Mrs. James Lieuallen received honors for the club members, Mrs. Sheldon Taylor consolation, and Mrs. Eager guest prize.

Mrs. Orel McPherrin motored to Heppner, Tuesday evening.
Mrs. W. McPherson was hostess to the needle club Friday afternoon.
Mrs. C. T. Smith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lary Knox, at Heppner.
Tomorrow will be kid day on the Wild Horse; the youngsters are going after trout.
Buzz Fisk, prominent Weston farmer, transacted business in Athena Wednesday.
Angus Gillis was in Athena for a short while Monday, shaking hands with old time friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coppock spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tompkins.
W. E. Campbell was slightly under the weather at his home this week as a result of having a real tussel with the flu.
Mr. and Mrs. Chester McCollough are here from Tekoa, Washington, visiting at the home of Mrs. Jane Harden.
Camp Fire Girls will greatly appreciate your patronage at their cooked food sale tomorrow, at the Quality Grocery.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barrett were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ames of Pendleton, last Friday evening.
Mrs. Burchill, who was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Eager, returned to her home at Pendleton, yesterday.
Elmer Merritt has returned from Pilot Rock, where he was employed for several weeks by Fred Falconer, during the lambing season.
Two fine, big pictures are coming to the Standard Theatre soon: "The Trail of '98" Saturday, April 27, and "Wings," Wednesday, May 8th.
With warmer weather during the past week, growing grain is taking on a better color and showing evidences of renewed growth.
Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hansell are getting their new home in Athena, recently purchased from Mrs. Potts, ready for occupancy in the near future.
Ho, ho, fans! Weather permitting, there will be a ball game on the home grounds, Sunday afternoon, between the Athena town team and Thorn Hollow.
Word has been received by Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn that her daughter, Mrs. Clare Gurney and husband expect to return from Chicago in the near future to Oregon to reside.
Additional improvement is noted at the Penn Harris barber shop. Chairs and fixtures have been painted a light green, and the barbers are wearing jackets that match with the color scheme.
After plowing 420 acres "on the outside," Barney Foster has moved his tractor outfit to the home place, where it will tackle a section of land. Bill Russel, and Mose Banister are operating the rig.
Charles Williams has been engaged this week in burning stubble (when ever it was dry enough to burn) on his ranch south of Athena. Stubble-burning this year has been quite a chore on account of wet weather.
Leonard Geissel and sister, Mrs. Rose Miller have been making extensive improvements at the Geissel home in the north part of the city. Painting, papering and decorating have been under way for some time.
John Rothrock, after spending several months in Portland has returned to Athena. He spends a portion of his time at the ranch, which is managed by his son, Sam Rothrock. Sam has disposed of his mules and is now farming "the tractor way."
D. H. Sanders, who has been seriously ill at his home here, is reported to be some better. He suffered a slight stroke on the right side, the fore part of the week, the arm being noticeably affected. Claud Sanders a son, accompanied by his wife, are here from Portland.
Mrs. M. M. Johns has installed an electric range at her home on Adams street. Mrs. Johns purchased a "Hot Point" range from the Pacific Light & Power company. Other Athena residents are contemplating the installation of electric ranges and cooking appliances, since the lowering of service rates have gone into effect.
Paul Lieuallen, returning from a trip to Bend, exhibited the first catch of trout for the season to be seen in Athena. Paul, in company with Dr. Fred Lieuallen and others, went in over the snow to Twin Lakes, in the vicinity of East Lake, and landed a good catch through holes cut in the lake ice. Worms were used for bait, which the trout readily took.
Herman Geissel implores the Press man to send him the baseball dope. As he is a reader of the Press, here goes: Hack Wilson is a Pennsylvania Dutchman; the Cubs swamped the Pirates 13-2, while the Mackmen smeared Cleve Myers' Senators, 14-4. Fox smashed out a homer; ditto Hornsby, Stephenson and Grimm. Herman is also acquainted with the latter three.
Thursday of last week, the Adams Ladies Community club held their regular meeting. After a short business session the afternoon was spent socially. Besides the hostesses, Mrs. Ervin Mann and Mrs. Sam Rothrock, the following members enjoyed the afternoon: Mrs. L. L. Lieuallen, Mrs. Ella Bowling, Mrs. Harlie Rothrock, Mrs. Dora Wallan, Mrs. Agnes Baker, Mrs. Roy Patrick, Mrs. Grace McIntyre, Mrs. T. A. Lieuallen, Mrs. Chas. Dupuis, Mrs. F. M. Whitely, Mrs. Bob Murray, Mrs. Lois Rothrock, Mrs. Margaret Bunch, Mrs. Esther Bunch, Mrs. Lula Potter. Guests of the club were Mrs. Lois Tubbs, Mrs. Cecil Carl, Mrs. Mitchell, and Mrs. Lillian Caldwell.

Mrs. Orel McPherrin motored to Heppner, Tuesday evening.
Mrs. W. McPherson was hostess to the needle club Friday afternoon.
Mrs. C. T. Smith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lary Knox, at Heppner.
Tomorrow will be kid day on the Wild Horse; the youngsters are going after trout.
Buzz Fisk, prominent Weston farmer, transacted business in Athena Wednesday.
Angus Gillis was in Athena for a short while Monday, shaking hands with old time friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coppock spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tompkins.
W. E. Campbell was slightly under the weather at his home this week as a result of having a real tussel with the flu.
Mr. and Mrs. Chester McCollough are here from Tekoa, Washington, visiting at the home of Mrs. Jane Harden.
Camp Fire Girls will greatly appreciate your patronage at their cooked food sale tomorrow, at the Quality Grocery.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barrett were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ames of Pendleton, last Friday evening.
Mrs. Burchill, who was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Eager, returned to her home at Pendleton, yesterday.
Elmer Merritt has returned from Pilot Rock, where he was employed for several weeks by Fred Falconer, during the lambing season.
Two fine, big pictures are coming to the Standard Theatre soon: "The Trail of '98" Saturday, April 27, and "Wings," Wednesday, May 8th.
With warmer weather during the past week, growing grain is taking on a better color and showing evidences of renewed growth.
Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hansell are getting their new home in Athena, recently purchased from Mrs. Potts, ready for occupancy in the near future.
Ho, ho, fans! Weather permitting, there will be a ball game on the home grounds, Sunday afternoon, between the Athena town team and Thorn Hollow.
Word has been received by Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn that her daughter, Mrs. Clare Gurney and husband expect to return from Chicago in the near future to Oregon to reside.
Additional improvement is noted at the Penn Harris barber shop. Chairs and fixtures have been painted a light green, and the barbers are wearing jackets that match with the color scheme.
After plowing 420 acres "on the outside," Barney Foster has moved his tractor outfit to the home place, where it will tackle a section of land. Bill Russel, and Mose Banister are operating the rig.
Charles Williams has been engaged this week in burning stubble (when ever it was dry enough to burn) on his ranch south of Athena. Stubble-burning this year has been quite a chore on account of wet weather.
Leonard Geissel and sister, Mrs. Rose Miller have been making extensive improvements at the Geissel home in the north part of the city. Painting, papering and decorating have been under way for some time.
John Rothrock, after spending several months in Portland has returned to Athena. He spends a portion of his time at the ranch, which is managed by his son, Sam Rothrock. Sam has disposed of his mules and is now farming "the tractor way."
D. H. Sanders, who has been seriously ill at his home here, is reported to be some better. He suffered a slight stroke on the right side, the fore part of the week, the arm being noticeably affected. Claud Sanders a son, accompanied by his wife, are here from Portland.
Mrs. M. M. Johns has installed an electric range at her home on Adams street. Mrs. Johns purchased a "Hot Point" range from the Pacific Light & Power company. Other Athena residents are contemplating the installation of electric ranges and cooking appliances, since the lowering of service rates have gone into effect.
Paul Lieuallen, returning from a trip to Bend, exhibited the first catch of trout for the season to be seen in Athena. Paul, in company with Dr. Fred Lieuallen and others, went in over the snow to Twin Lakes, in the vicinity of East Lake, and landed a good catch through holes cut in the lake ice. Worms were used for bait, which the trout readily took.
Herman Geissel implores the Press man to send him the baseball dope. As he is a reader of the Press, here goes: Hack Wilson is a Pennsylvania Dutchman; the Cubs swamped the Pirates 13-2, while the Mackmen smeared Cleve Myers' Senators, 14-4. Fox smashed out a homer; ditto Hornsby, Stephenson and Grimm. Herman is also acquainted with the latter three.
Thursday of last week, the Adams Ladies Community club held their regular meeting. After a short business session the afternoon was spent socially. Besides the hostesses, Mrs. Ervin Mann and Mrs. Sam Rothrock, the following members enjoyed the afternoon: Mrs. L. L. Lieuallen, Mrs. Ella Bowling, Mrs. Harlie Rothrock, Mrs. Dora Wallan, Mrs. Agnes Baker, Mrs. Roy Patrick, Mrs. Grace McIntyre, Mrs. T. A. Lieuallen, Mrs. Chas. Dupuis, Mrs. F. M. Whitely, Mrs. Bob Murray, Mrs. Lois Rothrock, Mrs. Margaret Bunch, Mrs. Esther Bunch, Mrs. Lula Potter. Guests of the club were Mrs. Lois Tubbs, Mrs. Cecil Carl, Mrs. Mitchell, and Mrs. Lillian Caldwell.

Mrs. Orel McPherrin motored to Heppner, Tuesday evening.
Mrs. W. McPherson was hostess to the needle club Friday afternoon.
Mrs. C. T. Smith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lary Knox, at Heppner.
Tomorrow will be kid day on the Wild Horse; the youngsters are going after trout.
Buzz Fisk, prominent Weston farmer, transacted business in Athena Wednesday.
Angus Gillis was in Athena for a short while Monday, shaking hands with old time friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coppock spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tompkins.
W. E. Campbell was slightly under the weather at his home this week as a result of having a real tussel with the flu.
Mr. and Mrs. Chester McCollough are here from Tekoa, Washington, visiting at the home of Mrs. Jane Harden.
Camp Fire Girls will greatly appreciate your patronage at their cooked food sale tomorrow, at the Quality Grocery.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barrett were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ames of Pendleton, last Friday evening.
Mrs. Burchill, who was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Eager, returned to her home at Pendleton, yesterday.
Elmer Merritt has returned from Pilot Rock, where he was employed for several weeks by Fred Falconer, during the lambing season.
Two fine, big pictures are coming to the Standard Theatre soon: "The Trail of '98" Saturday, April 27, and "Wings," Wednesday, May 8th.
With warmer weather during the past week, growing grain is taking on a better color and showing evidences of renewed growth.
Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hansell are getting their new home in Athena, recently purchased from Mrs. Potts, ready for occupancy in the near future.
Ho, ho, fans! Weather permitting, there will be a ball game on the home grounds, Sunday afternoon, between the Athena town team and Thorn Hollow.
Word has been received by Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn that her daughter, Mrs. Clare Gurney and husband expect to return from Chicago in the near future to Oregon to reside.
Additional improvement is noted at the Penn Harris barber shop. Chairs and fixtures have been painted a light green, and the barbers are wearing jackets that match with the color scheme.
After plowing 420 acres "on the outside," Barney Foster has moved his tractor outfit to the home place, where it will tackle a section of land. Bill Russel, and Mose Banister are operating the rig.
Charles Williams has been engaged this week in burning stubble (when ever it was dry enough to burn) on his ranch south of Athena. Stubble-burning this year has been quite a chore on account of wet weather.
Leonard Geissel and sister, Mrs. Rose Miller have been making extensive improvements at the Geissel home in the north part of the city. Painting, papering and decorating have been under way for some time.
John Rothrock, after spending several months in Portland has returned to Athena. He spends a portion of his time at the ranch, which is managed by his son, Sam Rothrock. Sam has disposed of his mules and is now farming "the tractor way."
D. H. Sanders, who has been seriously ill at his home here, is reported to be some better. He suffered a slight stroke on the right side, the fore part of the week, the arm being noticeably affected. Claud Sanders a son, accompanied by his wife, are here from Portland.
Mrs. M. M. Johns has installed an electric range at her home on Adams street. Mrs. Johns purchased a "Hot Point" range from the Pacific Light & Power company. Other Athena residents are contemplating the installation of electric ranges and cooking appliances, since the lowering of service rates have gone into effect.
Paul Lieuallen, returning from a trip to Bend, exhibited the first catch of trout for the season to be seen in Athena. Paul, in company with Dr. Fred Lieuallen and others, went in over the snow to Twin Lakes, in the vicinity of East Lake, and landed a good catch through holes cut in the lake ice. Worms were used for bait, which the trout readily took.
Herman Geissel implores the Press man to send him the baseball dope. As he is a reader of the Press, here goes: Hack Wilson is a Pennsylvania Dutchman; the Cubs swamped the Pirates 13-2, while the Mackmen smeared Cleve Myers' Senators, 14-4. Fox smashed out a homer; ditto Hornsby, Stephenson and Grimm. Herman is also acquainted with the latter three.
Thursday of last week, the Adams Ladies Community club held their regular meeting. After a short business session the afternoon was spent socially. Besides the hostesses, Mrs. Ervin Mann and Mrs. Sam Rothrock, the following members enjoyed the afternoon: Mrs. L. L. Lieuallen, Mrs. Ella Bowling, Mrs. Harlie Rothrock, Mrs. Dora Wallan, Mrs. Agnes Baker, Mrs. Roy Patrick, Mrs. Grace McIntyre, Mrs. T. A. Lieuallen, Mrs. Chas. Dupuis, Mrs. F. M. Whitely, Mrs. Bob Murray, Mrs. Lois Rothrock, Mrs. Margaret Bunch, Mrs. Esther Bunch, Mrs. Lula Potter. Guests of the club were Mrs. Lois Tubbs, Mrs. Cecil Carl, Mrs. Mitchell, and Mrs. Lillian Caldwell.

Mrs. Orel McPherrin motored to Heppner, Tuesday evening.
Mrs. W. McPherson was hostess to the needle club Friday afternoon.
Mrs. C. T. Smith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lary Knox, at Heppner.
Tomorrow will be kid day on the Wild Horse; the youngsters are going after trout.
Buzz Fisk, prominent Weston farmer, transacted business in Athena Wednesday.
Angus Gillis was in Athena for a short while Monday, shaking hands with old time friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coppock spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tompkins.
W. E. Campbell was slightly under the weather at his home this week as a result of having a real tussel with the flu.
Mr. and Mrs. Chester McCollough are here from Tekoa, Washington, visiting at the home of Mrs. Jane Harden.
Camp Fire Girls will greatly appreciate your patronage at their cooked food sale tomorrow, at the Quality Grocery.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barrett were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ames of Pendleton, last Friday evening.
Mrs. Burchill, who was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Eager, returned to her home at Pendleton, yesterday.
Elmer Merritt has returned from Pilot Rock, where he was employed for several weeks by Fred Falconer, during the lambing season.
Two fine, big pictures are coming to the Standard Theatre soon: "The Trail of '98" Saturday, April 27, and "Wings," Wednesday, May 8th.
With warmer weather during the past week, growing grain is taking on a better color and showing evidences of renewed growth.
Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hansell are getting their new home in Athena, recently purchased from Mrs. Potts, ready for occupancy in the near future.
Ho, ho, fans! Weather permitting, there will be a ball game on the home grounds, Sunday afternoon, between the Athena town team and Thorn Hollow.
Word has been received by Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn that her daughter, Mrs. Clare Gurney and husband expect to return from Chicago in the near future to Oregon to reside.
Additional improvement is noted at the Penn Harris barber shop. Chairs and fixtures have been painted a light green, and the barbers are wearing jackets that match with the color scheme.
After plowing 420 acres "on the outside," Barney Foster has moved his tractor outfit to the home place, where it will tackle a section of land. Bill Russel, and Mose Banister are operating the rig.
Charles Williams has been engaged this week in burning stubble (when ever it was dry enough to burn) on his ranch south of Athena. Stubble-burning this year has been quite a chore on account of wet weather.
Leonard Geissel and sister, Mrs. Rose Miller have been making extensive improvements at the Geissel home in the north part of the city. Painting, papering and decorating have been under way for some time.
John Rothrock, after spending several months in Portland has returned to Athena. He spends a portion of his time at the ranch, which is managed by his son, Sam Rothrock. Sam has disposed of his mules and is now farming "the tractor way."
D. H. Sanders, who has been seriously ill at his home here, is reported to be some better. He suffered a slight stroke on the right side, the fore part of the week, the arm being noticeably affected. Claud Sanders a son, accompanied by his wife, are here from Portland.
Mrs. M. M. Johns has installed an electric range at her home on Adams street. Mrs. Johns purchased a "Hot Point" range from the Pacific Light & Power company. Other Athena residents are contemplating the installation of electric ranges and cooking appliances, since the lowering of service rates have gone into effect.
Paul Lieuallen, returning from a trip to Bend, exhibited the first catch of trout for the season to be seen in Athena. Paul, in company with Dr. Fred Lieuallen and others, went in over the snow to Twin Lakes, in the vicinity of East Lake, and landed a good catch through holes cut in the lake ice. Worms were used for bait, which the trout readily took.
Herman Geissel implores the Press man to send him the baseball dope. As he is a reader of the Press, here goes: Hack Wilson is a Pennsylvania Dutchman; the Cubs swamped the Pirates 13-2, while the Mackmen smeared Cleve Myers' Senators, 14-4. Fox smashed out a homer; ditto Hornsby, Stephenson and Grimm. Herman is also acquainted with the latter three.
Thursday of last week, the Adams Ladies Community club held their regular meeting. After a short business session the afternoon was spent socially. Besides the hostesses, Mrs. Ervin Mann and Mrs. Sam Rothrock, the following members enjoyed the afternoon: Mrs. L. L. Lieuallen, Mrs. Ella Bowling, Mrs. Harlie Rothrock, Mrs. Dora Wallan, Mrs. Agnes Baker, Mrs. Roy Patrick, Mrs. Grace McIntyre, Mrs. T. A. Lieuallen, Mrs. Chas. Dupuis, Mrs. F. M. Whitely, Mrs. Bob Murray, Mrs. Lois Rothrock, Mrs. Margaret Bunch, Mrs. Esther Bunch, Mrs. Lula Potter. Guests of the club were Mrs. Lois Tubbs, Mrs. Cecil Carl, Mrs. Mitchell, and Mrs. Lillian Caldwell.

Mrs. Orel McPherrin motored to Heppner, Tuesday evening.
Mrs. W. McPherson was hostess to the needle club Friday afternoon.
Mrs. C. T. Smith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lary Knox, at Heppner.
Tomorrow will be kid day on the Wild Horse; the youngsters are going after trout.
Buzz Fisk, prominent Weston farmer, transacted business in Athena Wednesday.
Angus Gillis was in Athena for a short while Monday, shaking hands with old time friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coppock spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tompkins.
W. E. Campbell was slightly under the weather at his home this week as a result of having a real tussel with the flu.
Mr. and Mrs. Chester McCollough are here from Tekoa, Washington, visiting at the home of Mrs. Jane Harden.
Camp Fire Girls will greatly appreciate your patronage at their cooked food sale tomorrow, at the Quality Grocery.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barrett were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ames of Pendleton, last Friday evening.
Mrs. Burchill, who was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Eager, returned to her home at Pendleton, yesterday.
Elmer Merritt has returned from Pilot Rock, where he was employed for several weeks by Fred Falconer, during the lambing season.
Two fine, big pictures are coming to the Standard Theatre soon: "The Trail of '98" Saturday, April 27, and "Wings," Wednesday, May 8th.
With warmer weather during the past week, growing grain is taking on a better color and showing evidences of renewed growth.
Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hansell are getting their new home in Athena, recently purchased from Mrs. Potts, ready for occupancy in the near future.
Ho, ho, fans! Weather permitting, there will be a ball game on the home grounds, Sunday afternoon, between the Athena town team and Thorn Hollow.
Word has been received by Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn that her daughter, Mrs. Clare Gurney and husband expect to return from Chicago in the near future to Oregon to reside.
Additional improvement is noted at the Penn Harris barber shop. Chairs and fixtures have been painted a light green, and the barbers are wearing jackets that match with the color scheme.
After plowing 420 acres "on the outside," Barney Foster has moved his tractor outfit to the home place, where it will tackle a section of land. Bill Russel, and Mose Banister are operating the rig.
Charles Williams has been engaged this week in burning stubble (when ever it was dry enough to burn) on his ranch south of Athena. Stubble-burning this year has been quite a chore on account of wet weather.
Leonard Geissel and sister, Mrs. Rose Miller have been making extensive improvements at the Geissel home in the north part of the city. Painting, papering and decorating have been under way for some time.
John Rothrock, after spending several months in Portland has returned to Athena. He spends a portion of his time at the ranch, which is managed by his son, Sam Rothrock. Sam has disposed of his mules and is now farming "the tractor way."
D. H. Sanders, who has been seriously ill at his home here, is reported to be some better. He suffered a slight stroke on the right side, the fore part of the week, the arm being noticeably affected. Claud Sanders a son, accompanied by his wife, are here from Portland.
Mrs. M. M. Johns has installed an electric range at her home on Adams street. Mrs. Johns purchased a "Hot Point" range from the Pacific Light & Power company. Other Athena residents are contemplating the installation of electric ranges and cooking appliances, since the lowering of service rates have gone into effect.
Paul Lieuallen, returning from a trip to Bend, exhibited the first catch of trout for the season to be seen in Athena. Paul, in company with Dr. Fred Lieuallen and others, went in over the snow to Twin Lakes, in the vicinity of East Lake, and landed a good catch through holes cut in the lake ice. Worms were used for bait, which the trout readily took.
Herman Geissel implores the Press man to send him the baseball dope. As he is a reader of the Press, here goes: Hack Wilson is a Pennsylvania Dutchman; the Cubs swamped the Pirates 13-2, while the Mackmen smeared Cleve Myers' Senators, 14-4. Fox smashed out a homer; ditto Hornsby, Stephenson and Grimm. Herman is also acquainted with the latter three.
Thursday of last week, the Adams Ladies Community club held their regular meeting. After a short business session the afternoon was spent socially. Besides the hostesses, Mrs. Ervin Mann and Mrs. Sam Rothrock, the following members enjoyed the afternoon: Mrs. L. L. Lieuallen, Mrs. Ella Bowling, Mrs. Harlie Rothrock, Mrs. Dora Wallan, Mrs. Agnes Baker, Mrs. Roy Patrick, Mrs. Grace McIntyre, Mrs. T. A. Lieuallen, Mrs. Chas. Dupuis, Mrs. F. M. Whitely, Mrs. Bob Murray, Mrs. Lois Rothrock, Mrs. Margaret Bunch, Mrs. Esther Bunch, Mrs. Lula Potter. Guests of the club were Mrs. Lois Tubbs, Mrs. Cecil Carl, Mrs. Mitchell, and Mrs. Lillian Caldwell.

Mrs. Orel McPherrin motored to Heppner, Tuesday evening.
Mrs. W. McPherson was hostess to the needle club Friday afternoon.
Mrs. C. T. Smith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lary Knox, at Heppner.
Tomorrow will be kid day on the Wild Horse; the youngsters are going after trout.
Buzz Fisk, prominent Weston farmer, transacted business in Athena Wednesday.
Angus Gillis was in Athena for a short while Monday, shaking hands with old time friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coppock spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tompkins.
W. E. Campbell was slightly under the weather at his home this week as a result of having a real tussel with the flu.
Mr. and Mrs. Chester McCollough are here from Tekoa, Washington, visiting at the home of Mrs. Jane Harden.
Camp Fire Girls will greatly appreciate your patronage at their cooked food sale tomorrow, at the Quality Grocery.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barrett were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ames of Pendleton, last Friday evening.
Mrs. Burchill, who was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Eager, returned to her home at Pendleton, yesterday.
Elmer Merritt has returned from Pilot Rock, where he was employed for several weeks by Fred Falconer, during the lambing season.
Two fine, big pictures are coming to the Standard Theatre soon: "The Trail of '98" Saturday, April 27, and "Wings," Wednesday, May 8th.
With warmer weather during the past week, growing grain is taking on a better color and showing evidences of renewed growth.
Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hansell are getting their new home in Athena, recently purchased from Mrs. Potts, ready for occupancy in the near future.
Ho, ho, fans! Weather permitting, there will be a ball game on the home grounds, Sunday afternoon, between the Athena town team and Thorn Hollow.
Word has been received by Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn that her daughter, Mrs. Clare Gurney and husband expect to return from Chicago in the near future to Oregon to reside.
Additional improvement is noted at the Penn Harris barber shop. Chairs and fixtures have been painted a light green, and the barbers are wearing jackets that match with the color scheme.
After plowing 420 acres "on the outside," Barney Foster has moved his tractor outfit to the home place, where it will tackle a section of land. Bill Russel, and Mose Banister are operating the rig.
Charles Williams has been engaged this week in burning stubble (when ever it was dry enough to burn) on his ranch south of Athena. Stubble-burning this year has been quite a chore on account of wet weather.
Leonard Geissel and sister, Mrs. Rose Miller have been making extensive improvements at the Geissel home in the north part of the city. Painting, papering and decorating have been under way for some time.
John Rothrock, after spending several months in Portland has returned to Athena. He spends a portion of his time at the ranch, which is managed by his son, Sam Rothrock. Sam has disposed of his mules and is now farming "the tractor way."
D. H. Sanders, who has been seriously ill at his home here, is reported to be some better. He suffered a slight stroke on the right side, the fore part of the week, the arm being noticeably affected. Claud Sanders a son, accompanied by his wife, are here from Portland.
Mrs. M. M. Johns has installed an electric range at her home on Adams street. Mrs. Johns purchased a "Hot Point" range from the Pacific Light & Power company. Other Athena residents are contemplating the installation of electric ranges and cooking appliances, since the lowering of service rates have gone into effect.
Paul Lieuallen, returning from a trip to Bend, exhibited the first catch of trout for the season to be seen in Athena. Paul, in company with Dr. Fred Lieuallen and others, went in over the snow to Twin Lakes, in the vicinity of East Lake, and landed a good catch through holes cut in the lake ice. Worms were used for bait, which the trout readily took.
Herman Geissel implores the Press man to send him the baseball dope. As he is a reader of the Press, here goes: Hack Wilson is a Pennsylvania Dutchman; the Cubs swamped the Pirates 13-2, while the Mackmen smeared Cleve Myers' Senators, 14-4. Fox smashed out a homer; ditto Hornsby, Stephenson and Grimm. Herman is also acquainted with the latter three.
Thursday of last week, the Adams Ladies Community club held their regular meeting. After a short business session the afternoon was spent socially. Besides the hostesses, Mrs. Ervin Mann and Mrs. Sam Rothrock, the following members enjoyed the afternoon: Mrs. L. L. Lieuallen, Mrs. Ella Bowling, Mrs. Harlie Rothrock, Mrs. Dora Wallan, Mrs. Agnes Baker, Mrs. Roy Patrick, Mrs. Grace McIntyre, Mrs. T. A. Lieuallen, Mrs. Chas. Dupuis, Mrs. F. M. Whitely, Mrs. Bob Murray, Mrs. Lois Rothrock, Mrs. Margaret Bunch, Mrs. Esther Bunch, Mrs. Lula Potter. Guests of the club were Mrs. Lois Tubbs, Mrs. Cecil Carl, Mrs. Mitchell, and Mrs. Lillian Caldwell.

Mrs. Orel McPherrin motored to Heppner, Tuesday evening.
Mrs. W. McPherson was hostess to the needle club Friday afternoon.
Mrs. C. T. Smith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lary Knox, at Heppner.
Tomorrow will be kid day on the Wild Horse; the youngsters are going after trout.
Buzz Fisk, prominent Weston farmer, transacted business in Athena Wednesday.
Angus Gillis was in Athena for a short while Monday, shaking hands with old time friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coppock spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tompkins.
W. E. Campbell was slightly under the weather at his home this week as a result of having a real tussel with the flu.
Mr. and Mrs. Chester McCollough are here from Tekoa, Washington, visiting at the home of Mrs. Jane Harden.
Camp Fire Girls will greatly appreciate your patronage at their cooked food sale tomorrow, at the Quality Grocery.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barrett were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ames of Pendleton, last Friday evening.
Mrs. Burchill, who was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Eager, returned to her home at Pendleton, yesterday.
Elmer Merritt has returned from Pilot Rock, where he was employed for several weeks by Fred Falconer, during the lambing season.
Two fine, big pictures are coming to the Standard Theatre soon: "The Trail of '98" Saturday, April 27, and "Wings," Wednesday, May 8th.
With warmer weather during the past week, growing grain is taking on a better color and showing evidences of renewed growth.
Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hansell are getting their new home in Athena, recently purchased from Mrs. Potts, ready for occupancy in the near future.
Ho, ho, fans! Weather permitting, there will be a ball game on the home grounds, Sunday afternoon, between the Athena town team and Thorn Hollow.
Word has been received by Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn that her daughter, Mrs. Clare Gurney and husband expect to return from Chicago in the near future to Oregon to reside.
Additional improvement is noted at the Penn Harris barber shop. Chairs and fixtures have been painted a light green, and the barbers are wearing jackets that match with the color scheme.
After plowing 420 acres "on the outside," Barney Foster has moved his tractor outfit to the home place, where it will tackle a section of land. Bill Russel, and Mose Banister are operating the rig.
Charles Williams has been engaged this week in burning stubble (when ever it was dry enough to burn) on his ranch south of Athena. Stubble-burning this year has been quite a chore on account of wet weather.
Leonard Geissel and sister, Mrs. Rose Miller have been making extensive improvements at the Geissel home in the north part of the city. Painting, papering and decorating have been under way for some time.
John Rothrock, after spending several months in Portland has returned to Athena. He spends a portion of his time at the ranch, which is managed by his son, Sam Rothrock. Sam has disposed of his mules and is now farming "the tractor way."
D. H. Sanders, who has been seriously ill at his home here, is reported to be some better. He suffered a slight stroke on the right side, the fore part of the week, the arm being noticeably affected. Claud Sanders a son, accompanied by his wife, are here from Portland.
Mrs. M. M. Johns has installed an electric range at her home on Adams street. Mrs. Johns purchased a "Hot Point" range from the Pacific Light & Power company. Other Athena residents are contemplating the installation of electric ranges and cooking appliances, since the lowering of service rates have gone into effect.
Paul Lieuallen, returning from a trip to Bend, exhibited the first catch of trout for the season to be seen in Athena. Paul, in company with Dr. Fred Lieuallen and others, went in over the snow to Twin Lakes, in the vicinity of East Lake, and landed a good catch through holes cut in the lake ice. Worms were used for bait, which the trout readily took.
Herman Geissel implores the Press man to send him the baseball dope. As he is a reader of the Press, here goes: Hack Wilson is a Pennsylvania Dutchman; the Cubs swamped the Pirates 13-2, while the Mackmen smeared Cleve Myers' Senators, 14-4. Fox smashed out a homer; ditto Hornsby, Stephenson and Grimm. Herman is also acquainted with the latter three.
Thursday of last week, the Adams Ladies Community club held their regular meeting. After a short business session the afternoon was spent socially. Besides the hostesses, Mrs. Ervin Mann and Mrs. Sam Rothrock, the following members enjoyed the afternoon: Mrs. L. L. Lieuallen, Mrs. Ella Bowling, Mrs. Harlie Rothrock, Mrs. Dora Wallan, Mrs. Agnes Baker, Mrs. Roy Patrick, Mrs. Grace McIntyre, Mrs. T. A. Lieuallen, Mrs. Chas. Dupuis, Mrs. F. M. Whitely, Mrs. Bob Murray, Mrs. Lois Rothrock, Mrs. Margaret Bunch, Mrs. Esther Bunch, Mrs. Lula Potter. Guests of the club were Mrs. Lois Tubbs, Mrs. Cecil Carl, Mrs. Mitchell, and Mrs. Lillian Caldwell.

Mrs. Orel McPherrin motored to Heppner, Tuesday evening.
Mrs. W. McPherson was hostess to the needle club Friday afternoon.
Mrs. C. T. Smith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lary Knox, at Heppner.
Tomorrow will be kid day on the Wild Horse; the youngsters are going after trout.
Buzz Fisk, prominent Weston farmer, transacted business in Athena Wednesday.
Angus Gillis was in Athena for a short while Monday, shaking hands with old time friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coppock spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tompkins.
W. E. Campbell was slightly under the weather at his home this week as a result of having a real tussel with the flu.
Mr. and Mrs. Chester McCollough are here from Tekoa, Washington, visiting at the home of Mrs. Jane Harden.
Camp Fire Girls will greatly appreciate your patronage at their cooked food sale tomorrow, at the Quality Grocery.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barrett were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ames of Pendleton, last Friday evening.
Mrs. Burchill, who was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Eager, returned to her home at Pendleton, yesterday.
Elmer Merritt has returned from Pilot Rock, where he was employed for several weeks by Fred Falconer, during the lambing season.
Two fine, big pictures are coming to the Standard Theatre soon: "The Trail of '98" Saturday, April 27, and "Wings," Wednesday, May 8th.
With warmer weather during the past week, growing grain is taking on a better color and showing evidences of renewed growth.
Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hansell are getting their new home in Athena, recently purchased from Mrs. Potts, ready for occupancy in