

At Your Service

The Pantorium Dye Works of Walla Walla will send a wagon over to Athena and Weston twice every week, Tuesdays and Fridays. Send your work to a

Master Cleaner and Dyer

All work guaranteed
Phone orders to Athena Hotel

DR. J. L. GEYER

Dentist
Post Building, Athena, Phone 582

Dr. W. Boyd Whyte

CHIROPRACTOR
Stangier Building, Phone 706
Pendleton, Oregon. 957 J

Press Paragraphs

"The River Pirate" Standard Theatre, tomorrow night. Ernest Duncan visited friends in Milton, Friday.

Edwin McEwen and Clifford Wood were in Walla Walla yesterday.

Frank Bolin, who is blacksmithing in Milton, was in Athena, Monday.

Lost—Set of amber beads. Return to Press office and receive reward.

For Sale—Alfalfa hay, $10 per ton in shock. Chase Garfield, phone 681.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mosgrove of Milton, June 5th, 1929, a son.

Harold Kirk is nursing an infected finger, the result of a scratch from a pin.

Mrs. H. A. Barrett and daughter Helen, visited friends in Walla Walla Tuesday.

The shower of rain which fell at Athena Wednesday afternoon, assumed almost cloudburst proportions in the vicinity of Otho Reeder's farm, west of town.

"The Cohens and Kellys" at Atlantic City," Standard Theatre, Sunday night.

Milton strawberries are retailing in the Athena market at two boxes for 25 cents.

Frank Curl, farmer and republican politician, came up from Pendleton Wednesday.

A number of Athena young people remained at Weston for the picnic dance Saturday.

Yesterday's rain laid off the bean cultivating crews and the boys spent the day in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Stephens were the guests of Pendleton friends, Wednesday evening.

E. A. Dudley and son Glen went on a fishing trip to Crooked river the fore part of the week.

A number of Athena people attended the Al. G. Barnes circus at Walla Walla Tuesday.

Penn Harris, Leonard Geissel and Herbert Parker spent Decoration Day fishing on Meacham creek.

C. E. Miller has been employed as helper at the Jensen blacksmith shop for the past few weeks.

Roy Russell has been employed by the city this week to cut weeds and grass with a team and mower.

W. C. Atterbery is here from Portland visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Myrick.

Roy DeFrees, George Pambrun and Arthur Taylor motored to Pasco Sunday, going just for the trip.

Miss Belle Anderson came over from Walla Walla and spent Sunday at the home of her parents in Athena.

Clifford Wood until recently has been employed at the Standard Oil company plant in the north part of town.

Merle Anderson of Milton has been appointed a member of the state traffic force with headquarters at Milton.

Janet McFeron is here from Portland, visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Crabbill.

A. E. Schick, who is engaged in the furniture business at Walla Walla, was a business visitor in Athena Tuesday.

Delwin Ramsay returned to his home at Ketchum, Idaho, after visiting his father, Bert Ramsay for several days.

Rev. and Mrs. G. Sichel and family of Olcott, Texas, visited their daughter, Mrs. George Bannister, Jr., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Akers of Pendleton, were in Athena Sunday, enroute to Walla Walla, where they spent the day.

Thelma Schrimpf is employed at the Kilgore Cafe for the summer, and will resume her studies at Athena high school this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip DePhillip of Sacramento are in the city, visiting at the home of Mrs. DePhillip's mother, Mrs. Minnie DePeatt.

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Gornall, former Athena and Pendleton residents, are living in Lansdowne, Pennsylvania, at 183 East Essex Avenue.

Alex McIntyre was in town Tuesday from the ranch north of Athena. He reports crops looking well in his neighborhood, and plenty of moisture.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gross, who were down to attend the Pioneer picnic at Weston, visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Dudley Rogers in Athena.

Tables and counters at the Kilgore Cafe are shining in newly painted colors of orange and black. The color contrast lends a pleasing effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Davis of La Crosse, Washington, visited over the weekend at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gerking, west of Athena.

Henry Schroeder Weston carpenter is employed in remodeling the Dell cottage on High street, which will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. DeMerritt.

Weldon Bell since graduating from Athena high school has found employment in the ranks of the highway maintenance crew, working out of Athena.

Will Piper, who sometime ago was operated on for relief from appendicitis, was in Athena Saturday. He has almost fully recovered from the operation.

The Women of Woodcraft held initiatory work at their meeting Tuesday evening after which they repaired to the Kilgore Cafe, where refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, and son Frank, spent Sunday in Athena at the home of Omer Stephens, brother of Mrs. Robinson. The formerly resided at Yakima.

Until their new home in town is ready for occupancy, Mr. and Mrs. George Bannister, will occupy a house in the country, located on the Charles Betts farm.

C. O. Henry has been welding calsonine and paint brushes at the post office building this week, with the result that Uncle Sam's Athena headquarters looks all dolled up.

Mrs. F. B. Boyd returned home from Portland last evening, after visiting relatives in Seattle, Portland and Albany. Her sister, Mrs. Graham of Albany, is improving in health.

Three cows visited C. E. Miller's garden at his home on Fourth street Sunday night. When he drove them away, he noticed that his lettuce patch was considerably smaller in size.

Bern Bannister and his foreman, Bobby Stackley, managed to keep ahead with their farm work this spring in fine shape, and took time off to attend the Pioneer picnic at Weston.

Oliver Mosley, son of Thomas Mosley, has been here this week visiting boyhood friends of his Athena school days. His father resides in California, and Oliver runs a wheat ranch in Alberta.

Rev. Marion S. Horn of Eugene, accompanied by Mrs. Horn and son, Floyd, spent Sunday in Athena. Rev. Horn delivered the morning and evening sermons from the pulpit of the Christian church.

Mrs. E. C. Prestbye and brother, Solista Pickett, have returned from their visit to relatives in South Dakota and Montana. Mr. Prestbye met them in Spokane and they motored from there to Athena.

M. L. Watts and E. H. Leonard of the Preston-Shaffer Milling company, which has farming interests in Morrow county, made a business trip by automobile to that section, Tuesday of this week.

Little Miss Gloria Garfield was a passenger on the stage for Walla Walla Wednesday morning, where she will be the guest of relatives, and Saturday will appear in a dance recital given by the pupils of Miss Ransom.

Henry Koepke is somewhat of an angler himself. His best catch so far this season is a 17-inch Rainbow trout from the waters of the classic Wild Horse, which stream peacefully meanders through Henry's doorway.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade LeRoy and children have gone to Burns, Oregon, to reside. The family left Athena Sunday for Burns, by automobile. Mr. LeRoy will engage in the real estate and insurance business in the Harney county city.

Mr. and Mrs. William McBride came up from Portland over last week-end and visited relatives and friends in the Athena-Weston neighborhoods. They attended the Pioneer's Reunion at Weston Friday and Saturday.

The silver tea given by the Missionary society at the Christian church Tuesday afternoon was well patronized. The program as published in the Press of last week was rendered and greatly appreciated by those in attendance.

Miss Ethel Geissel is here from Portland and will spend her two weeks' vacation at the home of her mother, Mrs. Dora Sanchez. Miss Geissel is Linotype operator for the St. Johns Review. She is recovering from a recent illness.

Mrs. Burden who left Athena several days ago for the East, is visiting relatives in Minnesota. Her son Martin resides in that state. Returning homeward, Mrs. Burden will stop over in Phillipsburg, Montana, to visit her son Edward.

Rev. John A. Howard, who has spent thirteen years in missionary work in India, delivered an interesting lecture before an appreciative audience at the Baptist church Thursday night of last week. Rev. Howard was formerly pastor of the Baptist church at Helix.

Athena homes present an unusually attractive appearance this season as the result of favorable growing weather which has been ideal for flower, shrubbery and garden. Gardens especially show a marked advance over growth at this period of the season last year.

Clarence Ross, range rider for the Weston Livestock Association, with headquarters at the Tucker cabin on the Umatilla river, came to town Saturday for a haircut and shave. Herb Parker, hiyu tillacum of Mr. Ross performed the tonorial task with pleasure and eclat.

Mrs. Bert Ramsay was removed to a hospital at Walla Walla Thursday of last week, by Dr. Cowan, where she underwent a very serious surgical operation. The Athena friends of Mrs. Ramsay will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from the effects of the operation as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hale and little daughters returned Wednesday from a visit to Brownsville, where they attended the graduation exercises of the Brownsville high school,

It Pays to Look Well!
To look well you should keep your hair properly cut—your face shaved and massaged—In fact everything in the Barber line. Come in and see Herb Parker and me.
Penn Harris Barber Shop
Agency for Troy Laundry and Twin City Sanitary Cleaners.
Phone 583.

Fancy Staples
and Groceries
Fresh Fruits in Season
The Quality Grocery
Phone 561
Alice Eager, Prop.

LOW FARES EAST
EFFECTIVE MAY 22 TO SEPT. 30
RETURN LIMIT OCT. 31, 1929
Reduced fares all parts of east; liberal stopovers. Fine trains; modern equipment; splendid service; scenic route. Short side trips enables you to visit—
ZION NATIONAL PARK
GRAND CANYON NATIONAL PARK
BRUCE CANYON NATIONAL PARK
YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK
ROCKY MOUNTAIN NAT'L PARK
Information and Booklets on request
UNION PACIFIC
C. M. EAGER, Agent
Athena, Oregon

June Toilet Goods Sale!
During the Month of June we offer many favorite nationally advertised preparations at remarkably low prices. Listed below are a few of these wonderful values:—
A $1.50 Bottle Shari Perfume given away with each purchase of Shari Face Powder at $2.50
A 25c Tin of Duska Talcum given away with each purchase of
Duska Face Powder at $1
Cara Nome Creams—Three for the price of two
50c.....Jonteel Cold Cream.....39c
25c.....Jonteel Talcum.....19c
75c.....One Pound Theatrical Cold Cream.....59c
Gentlemens Talcum given away with 1/2 Pint Bottle Bay Rum at 49c
McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

The Standard Theatre
Saturday
The River Pirate
Sunday
Cohen and Kellys
At
Atlantic City

FREE
One package of Fiesta Sugar Wafers with every package of Honey Maid Graham Crackers
A Snow Flake Bakers Product
Phone Your Order To 152
Athena Department Store

where Leighton Boyles, brother of Mrs. Hale, graduated. Mr. and Mrs. Hale went by way of Madras, where they visited relatives.
Harry Keller, master trout fisherman, brought the finest lot of speckled beauties into Bend on opening day of the season. He and a friend skied in over snow several miles to Snow Creek and made their catch. Enclosed with a letter to the Press editor, Harry sends a picture of a Dolly Varden trout caught by a Bend friend in Crescent Lake, which measured 39 inches in length and weighed 22 pounds. Some trout!

NOTICE FOR BIDS
Notice is hereby given, that bids will be received by School District 17, Athena, Oregon, for transportation, approximately of 10 children to Athena for the following school year. Bids will be received up to and including the 10th day of June, 1929. The District reserves the right to reject any and all bids.
JOHN C. WALTER, District Clerk.
Adams, Oregon, R2 Box 5.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING
Notice is hereby given to the legal voters of School District No. 29, of Umatilla County, State of Oregon, that the annual school meeting of said District will be held at school house; to begin at the hour of 2 o'clock in the afternoon on the third Monday of June, being the 17th day of June, A. D. 1929.

This meeting is called for the purpose of electing one Director for three year term and one Clerk for one year term and the transaction of business usual at such meeting.
Dated this 1st day of June, 1929.
ATTEST:
J. F. KERSHAW,
District Clerk.
B. B. RICHARDS,
Chairman of Board of Directors.

J. C. PENNEY CO.
JUNE COAT EVENT
For weeks our buyers in New York have been busy searching the markets for the newest styles and unusual values. Their efforts have resulted in the finest selection of summer dresses that we have ever assembled. This is not a sale and is no effort to clear our stocks of old merchandise. You may come here expecting to see new models and you will be agreeably surprised at the variety and moderate prices.
Clever Frocks
Charming Styles for Many Needs
New Prints and Plain Colors
in delightful hot weather modes
The kind of lovely summer silk frocks that you need plenty of . . . cool pastel colors, delightfully different and refreshing prints, dark and staple shades for the street and traveling . . . in material and workmanship, they are frocks to please the most particular . . . and the prices are thrifty, as usual!
For Women . . . for Misses . . . for Juniors
$4.98 $6.90 and $9.90