 On Sunday, September 1, the members of the Christian church will have a basket dinner in honor of Pastor C. A. Sias, when he will be welcomed on his return to the pastorate of the local church, after an absence of nearly thirty years.
 Herman and Leo Geissel and Glenn Arbogast came up from Ritter, Grant county, Saturday, and visited at the Geissel home. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Arbogast, Glenn's mother, who had been taking treatment at Walla Walla.
 Sam Pambrun, Fay LeGrow and Barney Foster fished this week in the Minam river in Wallowa county. In their boyhood LeGrow and Pambrun knew every ridge and Indian trail in the Minam country and spent a lot of time there fishing and hunting.
 Loye A. McGree, serving as instructor in swimming and first aid work for the Umatilla county Red Cross chapter, came to Athena Monday. Had the Legion natatorium at City Park been in operation, Mr. McGree would have spent several days here, giving instructions.
 Sims Clark, who was injured on the Jesse Gordon ranch last week, when he was kicked by a horse, has returned to the home of his uncle, Sims Dickenson, from the hospital at Pendleton. It will be some time before the young man will be able to return to work, but he is recovering from the injury.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Marvin of Oakland, California, were visitors at the R. B. McEwen home Monday. They were en route to Spokane to spend a few days. Before returning home they will visit Seattle, Victoria, B. C., Portland, Grants' Pass, taking the coast route over the Roosevelt highway on the return trip.
 Harry Keller has gone to bat again against the Rainbows over in the Bend country. He and George Banister who with his mother, Mrs. Bern Banister, is visiting there, went fishing in Clear lake last Saturday and Sunday. The boys must have batted around .500 from the size of the fish Harry sent back to Athena friends. A new variety of trout were in Harry's generous offering, Golden Rainbow, the first of the species to be seen here.
