

MONTAGUE GROCERY

(Successor to Steve's Grocery)

Extra Special

Virgin Wool Round-Up Shirts
Colors—Green or Red

4.98

Regular $6.75 Value

Grocery Specials

For Saturday and Monday

- 10 lbs. Fruit Sugar.....62c
- Montague's Special Coffee, per lb.....35c
- Kerr Mason Fruit Jars Ots. per doz.....85c
- Mother's Oats 3 lb. 7 oz. pkg.....39c
- Oranges 176 size, per doz.....60c
- Economy and Mason Jar Caps doz.....29c
- Small Kitchen Broom.....35c

Liberty Bell Cane and Maple Syrup per Gallon

$1.69

C. E. O. MONTAGUE

PHONE 171

School Supplies

Everything you need for School

Tablets—Pencils—Notebooks—Etc.

Parker Fountain Pens and Pencils

$2.50 to $7.50

McFADDEN'S PHARMACY

Continental Oil Company

Always at Your Service

Athena Service Station

Gas, Oils, Greasing

Automobile Assessories—Tires

BRYCE BAKER, Prop. . . Athena, . . Phone 761

Press Paragraphs

"Wolf of Wall Street"
Standard Theatre, tomorrow night.
Mrs. Bryce Baker and Mrs. Gross visited in Pendleton Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith spent Sunday with friends in Milton.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jenkins enjoyed a motor trip to Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Banister have been visiting relatives in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Martin and children visited relatives in Walla Walla, Saturday.

Miss Marvel McRae of Walla Walla, has been a guest of Mrs. C. L. McFadden this week.

Miss Pearl Ramsay's Beauty Shoppe will remain closed Friday and Saturday of next week.

Forest Zerba has been serving as a member of the grand jury at Pendleton, this week.

Miss Virgie Moore has engaged her services as extra operator in the local telephone exchange.

The Athena branch library will remain closed on Saturday of next week on account of the Round-Up.

Taylor & Son recently purchased a valuable cow at Umapine, which they have added to their dairy herd.

The Baptist young people entertained at a social party in the parlors of the church Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Pinkerton and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clyde spent Monday afternoon at Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crawford have moved into the cottage on Third street, owned by Mrs. W. K. Wall.

Ernest Koepke came down from Seattle this week to look after his farming interests in Umatilla county.

Miss Betty Eager was hostess to a few of her young friends Tuesday evening, at her home on Jefferson street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Brower are expected by Athena relatives to come from Kalispell, Montana, for a visit next week.

Wade Goodman, of the firm of Rogers & Goodman, was in Athena for the first time in several weeks, Wednesday.

M. L. Watts accompanied his son-in-law, Clason Adams to Palo Alto, California, leaving by motor, Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Kirk, Mrs. Lloyd Michener, Harold Kirk and Orel Michener were visitors at Spokane over last week-end.

Bert Logsdon returned to Wallawa county this week for the purpose of taking a fishing trip with a party of Joseph friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tate of Helix, were recent visitors at the Lee Wilson home in Athena.

Curtis Duffield was master of ceremonies in the Duffield barber shop, during the absence of his father, who was in Portland.

Miss Frederica Kershaw left Monday for Gooding, Idaho, where she will be instructor in music in the Gooding College.

Lois Johnson came over from Walla Walla and spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Johnson, in Athena.

Mrs. Zeltha McIntyre and son Neil, left Monday by motor for Sherman county, to look after Mrs. McIntyre's farming interests there.

Mrs. Anna Cartano of Pendleton, and Mrs. A. E. Shick of Walla Walla, visited their mother, Mrs. Jane Harden, who has been seriously ill.

The Athena Study club meets this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. C. Rogers. Election of officers will be held, and the year's study begun.

Miss Margaret Hereford has returned from her home at Steptoe, Washington, and entered on her second year of teaching in District No. 2.

N. A. Miller is leaving Athena, to close out his present stock of furniture, he will sell goods at practically your own price as long as they last.

Miss Dorothy Berlin is well pleased with her position in the high school at Roslyn, Washington. Miss Berlin went to Roslyn from Athena last week.

R. A. Duffield drove to Portland Sunday, accompanied by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Rhoda, who had been at Hot Lake and in Athena for several weeks.

Frank Beale, former Athena stockman, was in the city this week from the Grand Ronde valley, where he and his son Claude are engaged in ranching.

Miss Mildred Bateman has issued invitations to a bridge party at her home in Milton to a number of her Athena friends for tomorrow, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gross entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Keen, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Haines of Enumclaw, Wash., and Lester Towne.

Donald McFadyen and Ike Phillips have been engaged the past week in making improvements on the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Read, south of Athena.

Now is the time to secure unheard of bargains in furniture and household furnishings. Miller is sacrificing his stock so that he can leave Athena, October 1.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Haines, and little daughter, after a month's visit at the home of Mrs. Louis Keen, Mrs. Haines' sister, have returned to their home at Enumclaw, Washington.

The call of the Round-Up preliminary tryouts is being answered daily by numbers of Athenaites who go down to the park to witness the bucking of the broncs and the handling of stock.

Pythian Lodge, Knights of Pythias, is convening regularly on the regular weekly meeting nights—Thursday. Indications point to considerable activity in Pythian circles for the coming fall and winter months.

A pleasant home-coming dinner was served Sunday at the Christian church, when about fifty people sat at a sumptuous repast, prepared by the ladies of the congregation, in what is called a potluck meal.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Gerking, who spent last week at Spokane, have returned to their farm home west of Athena. They were accompanied on their return by their daughter, Mrs. Kenworthy and her three little sons.

Mrs. S. P. Sharp visited her husband, Dr. Sharp, who is a patient in a Walla Walla hospital, Tuesday, and found that he was no better. Dr. Sharp has been confined to the hospital with a serious illness for several weeks.

J. E. Jones and son Ray have been engaged this week in bailing their crop of timothy hay on the Jones mountain ranch. Their crop was disposed of at $15 per ton to contractors having construction of the McDougal-Tollgate road in charge.

Ralph Haynie came over from Burns last week-end, and accompanied by his wife and little daughter went to Bend, Sunday. Mrs. Haynie and daughter went on to Portland for a short visit, and Mr. Haynie returned to Burns from Bend.

The Weston Leader reports that W. L. Rayborn & Sons have been having a fairly successful run this season with their International combine outfit. Up to last Saturday they had cut and threshed upwards of 800 acres and had 270 acres yet to harvest.

Mrs. Blatchford has been chosen guardian of the Wauna Camp Fire Girls, in place of Miss Hilda Dickenson, who recently transferred her residence to Arlington. A scribe will be selected soon so that activities of the group will be recounted in the columns of the Press.

The members of the Christian church Sunday school will feast at a lamb barbecue this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gerking west of town. This is an annual event at the Gerking home, and is looked forward to with lively anticipation by the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurensen, son and daughter of Seattle, have been guests this week at the Barney Foster country home, south of Athena, this week. Mr. Laurensen is president of the Seattle Tent and Awning company, and his firm numbers Athena merchants among their patrons.

George Bancroft, one of the leading character actors on the screen today, will be seen tomorrow and Sunday nights at Standard Theatre in "The Wolf of Wall Street," a fine, big Paramount picture. Baclanova, Nancy Carroll and Paul Lukas are cast with Bancroft in the leading roles.

Mrs. Sherman and daughter, Miss Maude Sherman, have taken up their residence at Estacada, Oregon, for the school year. Miss Sherman has long been employed in the primary department of the Estacada schools. Mrs. Sherman and Miss Sherman spent a portion of the past summer in Athena.

Mrs. O. M. Castleman and daughter Barbara, Mrs. Barbara Willaby and Mrs. Golda Bacon are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kershaw, from Ontario, Oregon. Miss Castleman is on her way to University of Washington, where she will enter college, and Mrs. Bacon will go to her home at Vancouver, Wash.

Miss Mary Henderson, of Ireland, who has been visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. James Duncan, south of Athena, left last week for Montreal, Canada. Miss Henderson, who is a skilled nurse in her native land, came to America several months ago to attend the national convention of nurses. She visited relatives in Canada, before coming to Athena.

Mrs. J. W. Pinkerton was hostess to the Christian Missionary society Wednesday afternoon, with twelve ladies present. Mrs. Sias became a new member, and led the devotionals,

Whoopee Coats

Our first Consignment of Whoopee Coats has arrived, they come in beautiful red and green Colors

Just the thing for

Swagger Wear

(Both Sexes)

Phone Your Order To 152

Athena Department Store

Mrs. Louis Keen leading the program Refreshments were served by Mrs. Pinkerton. The next meeting, October 2, will be at the home of Mrs. Stella Keen.

Through an error, an item in last week's Press stated the Eastern Star affair in honor of Mrs. O. O. Stephens was arranged by Mrs. B. B. Richards, Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn and Mrs. W. S. Ferguson. Mrs. Chance Rogers should have been mentioned instead of Mrs. Ferguson as she took an active part in making the party a success.

Weston Leader: J. F. Kilgore, pioneer farmer of the Weston district and now a resident of Washington county, came up last Friday to look after his interests here. Mr. Kilgore was accompanied by his daughter Mrs. James Ritchey and by Harry Shick and his son James. The visitors were last week-end guests of Mrs. Ella O'Harra.

Mrs. J. F. Templeton of Seattle and Mrs. Lillian Lyne of Los Angeles, who have been visiting at the home of their brother, Chase Garfield, left Wednesday for Portland, where they will visit Mrs. Retta Potts and daughter, Myrtle, before proceeding to their respective homes. Mrs. Potts is regaining her health since undergoing a surgical operation in Portland, some weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. O. Montague and children are domiciled in the residence formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Omer Stephens, on Jefferson street. Mr. and Mrs. Montague have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zerba, on the Woodward place west of Athena, the families being old time friends. Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and son Dale are now residents of Pendleton, having moved there this week.

THE STANDARD THEATRE

SATURDAY and SUNDAY

George BANCROFT

In

THE WOLF OF WALL STREET

With

Baclanova -- Nancy Carroll Paul Lukas

Behind the frenzy of Wall Street looms "The Wolf!" The Stock Market giant! The ruthless fighter! Roaring into battle and loving it! While, at home, waits the enticing beauty on whom he lavishes his wealth. "The Wolf's" wife. Is she alone?

News Real, Sports Real and Comedy

Admission 10-25-35c

Coming:

WALLACE BEERY

In

STAIRS of SAND

ROUND-UP

Pendleton, Ore.

Low Round Trip Fares

Day of the Finals

Saturday, September 21, 1929

From Walla Walla $1.25

From Milton $1.00 • From Weston $1.00

SPECIAL TRAIN SERVICE

Going		Returning
Saturday Only, September 21		Saturday Only, September 21, 1929
Lr Walla Walla	8:15 am	Lr Pendleton	10:20 pm
Milton	8:33	Adams	10:50
Weston	9:03	Athena	11:00
Athena	9:10	Weston	11:08
Adams	9:18	Milton	11:40
Ar Pendleton	9:50 am	Ar Walla Walla	12:00 am

For Motor Coach service every day of the Round-Up, Sept. 19 to 21 incl. see schedule and fares of Union Pacific Stages

Good going and returning only on special trains. Get your tickets from Local Agent.