THE STATE FAIR NOTABLE SUCCESS

Attendance Larger Than Ever—Exhibits Large, Receipts Satisfactory.

Salem.—Receipts of the Oregon state fair, which closed here Saturday, probably will exceed those of the 1928 fair by several thousand dollars. The attendance showed a material increase over last year's fair.

Officials said that the outstanding success of this year's fair probably was due in a large measure to the perfect weather that prevailed during the entire week. At last year's fair rain fell on Monday and Tuesday, with the result that the racetrack was heavy and the grandstand was only partly filled. Numerous free attractions and a top-notch horse show also helped to swell the crowds at this year's fair.

The outstanding feature of this year's state fair probably was the boys' and girls' club departments. More than 500 children from all parts of Oregon were participants in the club contests. The boys and girls were housed in the club dormitory under the direction of H. C. Seymour, state club leader, and his assistants. As a result of the large number of entrants in the club activities, the judging was not completed until Saturday. In previous years the last of these awards were announced on Friday.

Another attraction was the new grandstand which was built during the past summer at a cost of about $150,000. This grandstand seats approximately 6500 persons, with the result that the receipts of this department were increased materially. Entries in the horse show were more numerous and of better quality than ever before. It was said that the cost of conducting the horse show probably would exceed that at previous state fairs. The additional expense was due to the material increase in entries, and added purses.

A new feature at this year's fair was the dollar dinner contest in the boys' and girls' club departments. Under the terms of this contest the participants were required to purchase the necessary food at a cost not to exceed $1, and serve four persons. Cooking and serving of the food also was taken into consideration by the judges. This contest was won by Viola Hansen of Moro, Sherman county.

Among those entertained at the club dormitory during the week were Kathryn and Ruth Price. These girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Price of Portland, who entertain at Crater lake annually the two boys and two girls winning high honors in the juvenile competition.

Although there were several robberies reported during the fair, none was serious. Traffic was handled by state officers. The Salem band, under the direction of Oscar Steelhoffer, provided music.

School District Number 2

(Community News)

Those who were in Pendleton this week were, Virgil Zerba and Roy Cannon.

Velma and Lorra Ross visited with Valerie and Roberta Cannon Monday evening, and Tuesday visited school.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cannon were in Walla Walla Saturday.

Jesse Smith put screens on the school house windows Tuesday. They are quite nifty.

Mrs. Louis Stewart went to Baker Monday for a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Smith and family of Moscow, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith and daughter Rachel, and Mrs. Emma Patterson were dinner guests Monday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harmon and daughter Lois of Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, Mrs. Bessie Tate of Portland and Mr. Fred Greatorex of Dixie were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and family have returned to their home in Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potter were in Walla Walla Wednesday on business.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Charles A. Sias, Minister

This Sunday will be the annual Rally Day in the Bible school, and Home-coming Day in the church. A basket dinner will be a special feature of the day. An effort is being made to let all friends and members know about it, and a large attendance is expected. The fellowships of the day will be fine. A general invitation is extended.

The services will open with the Bible school hour at 10:00 o'clock. This will be followed by the morning service with the communion. The fitting topic will be, "The Success of the Church."

The Basket Dinner will follow in the basement, with a program before adjournment from the tables. Reminiscences, and inspirational talks will be the order.

At 6:30 the Y. P. S. C. E. meet. The sermon topic at the 7:30 service will be, "The Power of God's Love." A glad welcome awaits you.

Miss Lizzie McKenzie and Mrs. Martha Nunamaker of Hood River, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKenzie, of Adams.

Mrs. Hutt and children are visiting with relatives near Roseburg, and will remain there for several weeks.

Geo. Gross returned Wednesday from Alberta, where he went to establish his son, Fred, and his son-in-law, Arthur Douglas, on land in that province.

O. A. Rhodes and family are now pleasantly situated in their new home on Fourth street, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. King who have moved to Weston.

Marion Hansell and Jerome Hill returned from a successful bear hunt Tuesday evening. The boys hunted in the Black Mountain district and killed a plump cub bear, and a generous number of grouse.

W. R. Taylor will go to Walla Walla tomorrow where he will take a band of 8 or 10 cavalry horses for inspection. The army board will have inspectors at the Fort on that day. Mr. Taylor will be accompanied by H. A. Barrett.

Mrs. A. A. Foss and Mrs. Otho Rueder each received first prize on embroidery at the Umatilla-Morrow county fair. Mrs. Foss' piece was an American beauty pillow, done in colors in Roman floss, and Mrs. Rueder's piece a strawberry tea cloth, done in floss.

Wm. Willaby, Sr., left yesterday for Spokane, where he will be joined by his daughter, Mrs. Frank Knowlton, where they will attend the Spokane exposition. Mr. Willaby will visit relatives in the northern metropolis, after which he may go to Newport, and to Behula, Wash.

Large quantities of timothy hay from mountain ranches is being delivered in Athena at present. The hay is being handled by David Taylor, at his Independent Warehouse. Most of the product finds sale in the Sound markets. The crop this year was short in quantity but the quality is of the usual excellent standard.

A number of Athena young men are becoming interested in the organization of a brass band, and the tooting of horns is heard in scale practice. The material is here for a good band and the boys should receive every encouragement possible. A first-class instructor, in the person of Prof. J. S. Henry, would insure a first-class musical organization.

The unusual spectacle of a grouse flying on Main street was witnessed by people on the way to take the train Tuesday evening. A grouse flew against the front of the Luna blacksmith shop, fell to the sidewalk and taking wing disappeared over the lumber yard. That deadly enemy of all birdkind, the hawk, was probably responsible for the grouse seeking the haunts of man.

The eighth grade work in the Athena public school has been put into the hands of Humphry H. Smith of Portland. That gentleman arrived Sunday and on Monday commenced his duties in the school. Numerous changes were made in the arrangement of the different rooms, and the congested condition of some of the lower grades was thus relieved. The school is now in fine working order and everything is auspicious for a prosperous year.

Time to get your winter's fuel.

Editorial

It seems that warship builders didn't realize they were paying money to wreck peace and disarmament treaties. Perhaps they thought the propagandist went to Geneva to shoot craps.

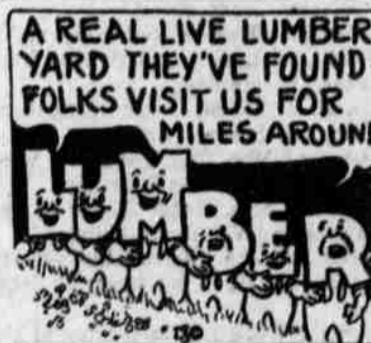

That roof needs repairing before winter, and we have the materials.

There once was a farmer named Wether Who didn't care very much whether His machinery and stock Were protected or not From the wind and the snow or the weather. His cows were so thin They were just bone and skin His machinery was rusty and worn, He couldn't make money But it wasn't funny And Weather was always forlorn. The moral: See our plan and get a price on barns and machine sheds to care for your stock and equipment this winter.
