

Press Paragraphs

Roland Andre was a Walla Walla visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Zerba were in Walla Walla, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. LeGrow went to Portland Sunday.

Mrs. B. D. Tharpe was over from Walla Walla Tuesday, visiting Athena friends.

Mrs. Aikens of State Line, was a recent visitor at the Charles Williams home in Athena.

Clarence Ross came over from Thorn Hollow Wednesday, and spent the day in Athena.

C. E. Favor, a newspaperman residing at College Place, was an Athena visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. W. O. Read is again at Walla Walla, where she is taking medical treatment in a hospital.

Bert Anderson was in Athena last week from Pendleton, visiting at the home of Charles Henry.

The Etude club was entertained at the country home of Mrs. E. B. Foster Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. John Banister is a patient at College Place Sanitarium, where she is receiving medical treatment.

Leroy McCubbins will work for Sterling Parris on the ranch during the coming spring and summer.

Mrs. Glen Steen came over from Milton and visited at the home of her mother Mrs. Stella Keen in Athena.

Sanford Stone has the grateful thanks of J. E. Jones, mail carrier for doing some much needed work on a road north of Athena.

E. B. Layng, district manager for the Continental Oil company, was in Athena during the fore part of the week.

Attorney George Bishop was in Athena Monday, at the law office of Watts & Prestbye, on professional business.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mansfield came up from Pendleton Sunday and spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Logsdon.

Miss Lois McIntyre came up from Pendleton and spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McIntyre.

Charles Williams spent a couple of days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckner, near Wash-tucna, Washington.

Mrs. Albert O'Hara and Mrs. Vernon O'Hara of Weston, were recent visitors of Miss Emma Ringel at her home south of Athena.

The Leader reports that Athena's electric pipe thawer was brought over the hill Tuesday to thaw out service pipes crossing Weston streets.

Mrs. Forrest Zerba recently had as dinner guests, Miss Elizabeth Hol-wager of Walla Walla, Miss Sadie Pambrun and Miss Ruth Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McIntyre and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pinkerton were visitors in Walla Walla, Tuesday, the men folk attending the Caterpillar school.

Noah Buroker has been engaged this week in handling several head of young horses for Henry Barrett. The stock will be used in farm work this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ames and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Barnhart of Pendleton, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cresswell, in Athena.

Mrs. Armond deMerritt accompanied her husband on a commercial trip this week through Yakima valley. Last week-end they spent in Seattle.

The Wild Horse Mountain road through Saddle Hollow is now open for automobile travel. Ray Hansell and Eldon Northrup came into town over the road, Wednesday.

Mrs. S. D. Peterson, mention of whose serious illness has been made in the Press, was taken to her home at Milton from a Walla Walla hospital Monday, and is recovering.

C. T. Smith and John Tompkins were in Walla Walla Tuesday, and visited Dr. Sharp, who is a patient at St. Mary's hospital. The doctor was pleased to see his Athena friends.

Miss Thorson, third and fourth grade teacher in the Athena school, was confined to her room with illness this week, and Mrs. M. I. Miller substituted for her in the school room.

Rome Kemp has moved his family and farm machinery from Couse Creek, to the Frank Beale ranch on Pine Creek. Mr. Kemp has secured a long time lease on the Beale place.

Miss Pearl Ramsay, who recently sold her Beauty Shoppe in Athena to Miss Sadie Pambrun is in Seattle where she is completing a course in permanent waving at a beauty school.

F. B. Radtke, Herbert Parker and Fred Radtke were below Hermiston Sunday in quest of steelheads. However, flood waters from Butter Creek, prevented fishing in the channels where the wily steelhead is usually found.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman arrived in Athena Friday last from Dorris, California. Wayne at present is employed in removing a large quantity of soil from in front of the George Banister residence on Fifth street.

Mrs. Lloyd Michener was confined to her home for several days as the result of an accident. Mrs. Michener fell on the steps at the Christian church entrance and sustained injuries to one of her ankles and her knees.

The Endeavor girls of the Christian church netted nearly $10 from their cooked food sale held Saturday at the Quality Grocery store. By mistake it was stated last week that the sale was to be given by Wauna Camp Fire girls.

Mr. and Mrs. McFadden and children left Athena for their new home in Portland. They motored down, leaving here at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. McFadden took possession of his drug store at 33rd street, Monday morning.

Miss Hanna and Miss Lois Johnson of the Malen Burnett School of Music, and Mr. and Mrs. Casper Woodward of Walla Walla, motored to Portland for the purpose of attending the concert given by Josef Hoffmann, famous pianist.

Adams people who participated in a special musical program in the Sunday evening services at the First Methodist church in Pendleton, were Mrs. E. E. Bloom, Mrs. Charles Bunch, Miss Alberta Kirby, Floyd Bower and L. L. Lieualen.

Homer Watts' big "sixty" caterpillar tractor was brought to town from the ranch to receive a thorough overhauling and any repairs needed, preparatory to spring work. The tractor is equipped with powerful headlights to facilitate the work of a night shift, when needed.

Ed. Sebaskey, in company with his mother, Mrs. Burden, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Russell and Art Jensen, motored to Portland last week where they spent several days visiting friends and enjoying city life, returning Monday. Ed contemplates returning to his home in Montana next week.

Sam Pambrun and Fay Pambrun have returned from a second trip to Bonners Ferry, Idaho, near which place they are considering purchasing farming land. The land they may purchase is understood to be a parcel owned by the company in which Byron Hawks formerly of Athena, is interested.

Bryce Baker went to Eugene Sunday in response to a message which stated that his mother, Mrs. D. C. Baker, had been afflicted with a slight stroke of paralysis. He was accompanied by Henry Miller, Wilford Miller and Dr. Blatchford. The former two stopped at Portland and Dr. Blatchford, in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickey drove over from their home at John Day yesterday, and spent the day transacting business. Mr. Dickey is well pleased with his business venture at John Day. He is conducting a confectionery which has a lunch department, soda fountain, etc. Lodging rooms are also under his management.

Mrs. Don Wilks of the Thorn Hollow district entertained a number of little girls at her home Saturday in honor of the 7th birthday anniversary of her daughter Marjorie. Refreshments were served after a series of games had been played by the children. Little ladies present were Theresa Shippentower, Calista Williams, Norma Jean Farrow, Helen French, Blanche Brown, Neoma Thomas, Ruth and Florence St. Dennis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Campbell entertained the members of the Pinochle Club, a social organization of the Thorn Hollow neighborhood, at their home Wednesday evening of last week, with a pot luck dinner. Four tables were in play after the dinner hour, high scores going to Mrs. Ed Montague and Leonell Remillard, with Phillip Remillard, Jr., and Ed. Montague taking low score. A very enjoyable evening was spent and it was announced that the next meeting of the club would be held at the home of John Pierce.

For Sale—Bundle spring wheat hay. J. A. Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cannon and little daughters were over from Walla Walla Sunday visiting relatives here.

Mrs. A. A. Kimball of Pendleton spent several days this week as the house guest of Mrs. B. B. Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence McIntyre have been confined to their home on Jefferson street, on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Schultz are here visiting at the home of Mrs. Schultz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth McCulley are in Tekoa, Wash., where they were called by the serious illness of Mrs. McCulley's father.

Mrs. C. A. Sias is giving a party to the young people Saturday evening at her home. She will be assisted by her daughter, Miss Glee Sias and several other ladies.

A number of Athena farmers attended the caterpillar school conducted by the Page tractor company in Walla Walla, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Miss Mildred Stanton, who last week was a nurse graduate from St. Anthony's hospital, spent several days at the home of her parents in Athena, returned to the hospital, Tuesday.

The county has taken out the steel bridge structure on Wild Horse creek at the Logsdon slaughter house. Mr. Logsdon will construct a bridge on the site from which the steel bridge was removed.

Ralph and Edwin McEwen have completed the first semester work at Whitman college, making satisfactory grades in their courses. They will assist their father with the ranch work, returning to college in the Fall.

An event that will be looked forward to with much interest is a recital which will be given sometime this Spring by the Etude club, under the tuition of Mrs. Lester of Walla Walla. A group of songs will be given by the club, with other talent participating in the program.

The Etude club met Tuesday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. Barney Foster south of Athena. About thirteen members were present and Miss Arlene Foster, daughter of the hostess favored the group with a piano solo. Further program was dispensed with, the time being given over to chorus practice directed by Mrs. Lester. The club plans to give a concert early in May. The program will consist of three parts, first including chorus numbers, second, violin numbers by a visiting artist and third, concluding with additional chorus numbers. Mrs. Foster was assisted Tuesday by Mrs. Bryce Baker and at the tea hour dainty refreshments were served.

Bridge Luncheon
A trio of Athena matrons, Mrs. H. I. Watts, Mrs. J. F. Kershaw, and Mrs. Lew McNair entertained a group of friends Wednesday at the Grande Hotel in Walla Walla. Guests were invited for luncheon at one o'clock and were seated at a table centered with a great basket of red carnations. A valentine motif added to the attractiveness of the decorations, and places were marked by heart shaped satin boxes filled with delicious confections. Tall red tapers and heart shaped doilies in the same color were used. The diversion of the afternoon was bridge, ten tables being in play. Mrs. Ravella Lieualen held high score and was presented with a beautiful potted red cyclamen. Mrs. E. C. Prestbye who was second high and Mrs. Francis Lieualen, consolation received red carnations. Those present were Mrs. C. M. Eager, Mrs. Ralph McEwen, Mrs. Lloyd Michener, Mrs. E. C. Prestbye, Mrs. Marion Hansell, Mrs. M. L. Watts, Mrs. B. B. Richards, Mrs. W. S. Ferguson, Mrs. Henry Dell, Mrs. W. P. Littlejohn, Mrs. H. A. Barrett, Mrs. Theresa Berlin, Mrs. John Walter, Mrs. Bryce Baker, Mrs. Justin Harwood, Mrs. Archie McIntyre, Mrs. Alec McIntyre, Mrs. Fred Pinkerton, Mrs. Blatchford, Mrs. Lawrence Pinkerton, Mrs. James Lieualen, Mrs. Francis Lieualen, Mrs. Bert Logsdon, Mrs. Paul Lieualen, Mrs. Henry Koepke, Mrs. Ravella Lieualen, Mrs. Forrest Zerba, Mrs. Dean Dudley, Mrs. David Stone, Mrs. Flint Johns, Mrs. Chase Garfield, Mrs. James Cresswell, Mrs. Lee Hiteaman, Mrs. Arthur Douglas, and Mrs. Omar Stephens and Mrs. A. A. Kimball of Pendleton, and Mrs. Alva Blalock of Spokane.

School District Number 2
Ray Blalock entered school Monday. He is in the second grade.

Valerie and Roberta Cannon missed school this week on account of being exposed to the measles.

Tuesday the second and third grades made interesting spelling booklets.

The seventh grade grammar class wrote letters to the seventh graders in Moundsville, West Virginia.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
There was a noticeable increase in attendance at the Bible school, and the morning service last Sunday, as also at the evening Bible study. This should be expected, since the peak of the winter is passed, and people are glad to get out again to the fellowships of the Lord's house. In the school there is a keen interest in the study of the New Testament church from the divine record. The pulpit theme Sunday morning will be "An Application of the Lord's Muzzle." Come who love the Lord; and a glad welcome for all.

Editorial
(Arthur Crowley)
Can you get your work by yourself or do you have to get somebody else to do it? The students should give this question a thought because this is something that every student should be interested in. The students when getting their work look it over and if it appears hard they say, I can't do this. I'll see Harry; he can do it."

The result is that the student goes to Harry and he does it for him. The student hands in his work and gets a good grade. The whole year passes in this way with somebody else being so kind as to get the lazy student's work. When the end of the year comes the grades are issued and the student leaves school well pleased with himself. The student goes to college and he comes home at the end of the term because he failed and when asked the reason, he says, "I don't know why. I just couldn't make the grade." While if the student would have told the truth, no doubt the answer would have been "lack of self reliance" while in high school.

Girls Basketball
The Pilot Rock girls defeated the Athena girls on the local floor 23 to 22, Friday night. During the first half the score was 13 to 6 in favor of Athena but during the second half the Pilot Rock girls raised the score 17 points to Athena's 9 points. The game was thrilling from start to finish and the local girls made a good fight throughout the entire game.

Athena's lineup was as follows: Campbell and Myrick, forwards; Miller and Douglas (Capt.) centers; Monta and Lois Montgomery guards. Substitutions were: Barrett for Douglas, Tompkins for Miller, with Myrick out and Miller to forward.

Umapine's first girls' team defeated the second girls' team of Athena on the Umapine floor 15 to 24, Saturday night.

Entertainment
An assembly was held in the auditorium last Friday at 2:45 p. m. Popular songs were sung. The assembly was closed by a vigorous yell practice.

Student Body
A student body meeting was called to order Tuesday, February 5th by President John Kirk for the purpose

Our First Shipment of Spring Goods Has Arrived

A New Assortment of House Dresses made of fast color prints in Snappy Styles

1.95

Scout prints, per yard	25
English prints, per 3 yards	1.00
Soicette prints, per yard	45
Peter Pan prints, per yard	50
Victoria prints, per yard	35
Token prints, per yard	50
Waffle Cloth prints, per yard	50

5 per cent discount for Cash and 30 day Accounts

Phone 152

Athena Department Store

Warm weather was put to rout Saturday night, when the temperature dropped below the freezing mark, ice and a white frost showing up Sunday morning. There was quite a rainfall Monday.

The program of the Study club Friday afternoon when the club met at the home of Mrs. Stella Keen, was replete with subjects of absorbing interest. A paper read by Mrs. Blatchford gave a comprehensive view of the life and works of George Eliot, English author; Mrs. Glenn

Steen read a brief paper on Rossetti, Mrs. F. B. Radtke reviewed F. Hopkinson Smith's "In Dickens' London," and Mrs. C. A. Sias gave an illuminating insight into the wonders and beauties of Hampton Court Castle, with a description of a few of its art treasures. Mrs. Keen was assisted by her daughter Mrs. Glenn Steen of Milton, in serving dainty refreshments. The next meeting, February 21st, will be at the home of Mrs. H. H. Hill, when the subject will be the Environs of London. In honor of Washington's birthday, roll call will be answered with something relative to his life. Friday it was answered with quotations from Dickens.

Miss Myrtle Campbell entertained the Wauna Camp Fire group of girls and their boy friends, and Mr. and Mrs. Blatchford at dinner, Monday evening. Mrs. Blatchford is the Camp Fire group guardian. This is the first Camp Fire function to be held for some time and the occasion was a most enjoyable one.

Athena High School Notes

JUNIOR NEWS STAFF

Editor ..... Emery Rogers
Asst. Editor ..... Arthur Crowley
Alumni ..... Walter Huffman
Student Body ..... Georgia Green
Boys' Athletics ..... Roland Wilson
Classes ..... Elizabeth Walters
Entertainment ..... Myrtle Campbell
Personals ..... Jack Moore
Faculty ..... Herbert Reeder
8-10th Grades ..... Stafford Hansell
Girls' Athletics and Subject Classes
Advisor ..... Miss Beulah Smith

Editorial
(Arthur Crowley)
Can you get your work by yourself or do you have to get somebody else to do it? The students should give this question a thought because this is something that every student should be interested in. The students when getting their work look it over and if it appears hard they say, I can't do this. I'll see Harry; he can do it."

The result is that the student goes to Harry and he does it for him. The student hands in his work and gets a good grade. The whole year passes in this way with somebody else being so kind as to get the lazy student's work. When the end of the year comes the grades are issued and the student leaves school well pleased with himself. The student goes to college and he comes home at the end of the term because he failed and when asked the reason, he says, "I don't know why. I just couldn't make the grade." While if the student would have told the truth, no doubt the answer would have been "lack of self reliance" while in high school.

Girls Basketball
The Pilot Rock girls defeated the Athena girls on the local floor 23 to 22, Friday night. During the first half the score was 13 to 6 in favor of Athena but during the second half the Pilot Rock girls raised the score 17 points to Athena's 9 points. The game was thrilling from start to finish and the local girls made a good fight throughout the entire game.

Athena's lineup was as follows: Campbell and Myrick, forwards; Miller and Douglas (Capt.) centers; Monta and Lois Montgomery guards. Substitutions were: Barrett for Douglas, Tompkins for Miller, with Myrick out and Miller to forward.

Umapine's first girls' team defeated the second girls' team of Athena on the Umapine floor 15 to 24, Saturday night.

Entertainment
An assembly was held in the auditorium last Friday at 2:45 p. m. Popular songs were sung. The assembly was closed by a vigorous yell practice.

Student Body
A student body meeting was called to order Tuesday, February 5th by President John Kirk for the purpose of deciding whether the school should have a school annual this year or not. It was unanimously voted that they should. The cost of the annual will be met by the money received from the high school play and by each student paying one dollar for his annual. It is this will not cover the expense there was some discussion on having a cooked food sale.

Athletics
Pilot Rock received a drubbing Friday night at the hands of the local high school team. The score was 36-10 favoring Athena.

The game was fast throughout and inclined to be a trifle rough but it was a game worth seeing. The Pilot Rock team was fast but was unable to break Athena's defense or stop her offense.

The Athena boys had some trouble in hitting the basket at first but finally hit her stride and dropped them in from all angles.

The boys who started were: Rogers, center; Myrick and Jenkins, forwards; Crowley and Huffman, guards.

The substitutions were: Reeder for Huffman, Hansell for Rogers, Wilson for Crowley.

The second team defeated Umapine at Umapine Saturday night by a score of 17-6.

Faculty
Mr. Milton I. Miller spent Saturday in Pendleton.

Miss Dorothy Brodie spent Saturday in Pendleton.

Miss Beulah Smith spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Smith of Island City, Oregon.

Classes
Six dollars and fifty cents was the net total made by the Juniors for their candy sale Friday evening when Pilot Rock met Athena on the home floor.

Grades
Mrs. M. I. Miller is teaching the third-fourth grade room during the absence of Miss Thorson, who is confined to her home due to illness.

In the fifth-sixth grade room those that got 100 in spelling for the past month were Walter Banister, Ira Al-kire, Gayle McLain, Bryan Kibby, Dayle McLain, Virginia Eager, Ruth Street, Gale Moore, Tillman Taylor, Doris Jenkins, Tillman Stone, Alberta Ball, and Maurine Edgar.

The fifth-sixth grade soon won the baseball spelling match with the seventh-eighth grade room.

Danny Reeder and Ralph Bruce are out of the seventh grade with influenza.

Arleen Foster was the victim of poison Thursday and was out of school as a result, Friday.

Personals
Marjorie Douglas, Betty Eager, Frances Cannon, Marjorie Montague and Garth Pinkerton were in Walla Walla Saturday.

Roland Richards was in Pendleton Saturday.

Mary Tompkins was in Walla Walla Thursday afternoon.

Arleen Myrick and Esther Berlin were Pendleton visitors Saturday.

Fred Singer and his parents visited relatives in Echo Sunday.

U. O. Man Accepts Post

Dr. Ralph D. Casey, professor of journalism at the University of Oregon, has accepted a position as chairman of the department of journalism at the University of Minnesota. The Oregon man will take over his new duties in the fall of 1930.

Governor's Son Initiated.
A degree team made up of University of Oregon faculty members in the Eugene lodge of the Masonic order initiated Walt Norblad, of Astoria, and son of Oregon's new governor, into the first degree recently with Carlton Spencer, of the law school faculty, officiating. Norblad is a senior in law at the university, and his initiation was witnessed by his father.

NATIONS MIX AT U. OF O.
University of Oregon, Eugene—Students of 11 distinct nationalities live in the University of Oregon "International House," the third of its kind in the United States, formed to break down racial prejudices and animosities through actual contact. Russian, Albanian, Filipino, Korean, Danish, Japanese, American, Chinese, Hawaiian, East Indian, and French students are included in the group.

Dr. Ralph D. Casey, professor of journalism at the University of Oregon, has accepted a position as chairman of the department of journalism at the University of Minnesota. The Oregon man will take over his new duties in the fall of 1930.

Governor's Son Initiated.
A degree team made up of University of Oregon faculty members in the Eugene lodge of the Masonic order initiated Walt Norblad, of Astoria, and son of Oregon's new governor, into the first degree recently with Carlton Spencer, of the law school faculty, officiating. Norblad is a senior in law at the university, and his initiation was witnessed by his father.

NATIONS MIX AT U. OF O.
University of Oregon, Eugene—Students of 11 distinct nationalities live in the University of Oregon "International House," the third of its kind in the United States, formed to break down racial prejudices and animosities through actual contact. Russian, Albanian, Filipino, Korean, Danish, Japanese, American, Chinese, Hawaiian, East Indian, and French students are included in the group.

SPECIAL

Alber's Minit Oats

29c

Silver Shield Peas

2 Cans

39c

The Quality Grocery

Alice Eager, Prop.

Continental Oil Company

Always at Your Service

Athena Service Station

Gas, Oils, Greasing

Automobile Accessories—Tires

BRYCE BAKER, Prop. . . Athena. . . Phone 761

CORNELL'S GARAGE

For

Weed Chains

Willard Batteries

Spark Plugs

Prestone

Goodrich Tubes

Goodrich Tubes

Veedol Oils

L. A. CORNELL, - - Phone 471, - - Athena

THE ATHENA MARKET

We carry the best

Meat

That Money Buys

Kipperd Salmon, all Kinds of Salt Fish. Fresh Fish, Oysters, Crabs, Clams, Kraut in Season.

A. W. LOGSDON

Main Street

Athena, Oregon.