

Press Paragraphs

Mrs. H. A. Barrett and Miss Areta Barrett were business visitors in Pendleton Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Pinkerton visited at the Alva Blalock home in Pendleton Friday.

Robert Burroughs of Seattle has been a visitor at the M. W. Hansell home the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hill, visited with their son-in-law, C. O. Whitman, who is ill at his home in Walla Walla.

Mrs. Max Hopper and children and Mrs. James Lieuallen and son were camped last week at Bingham Springs.

Anna Sassenhagen of Spokane is a visitor this week with her nephew, Gordon Watkins and niece, Mildred Watkins.

J. A. Fulmer of the Inland Empire Milling company of St. John, Wash., was a guest Sunday at the Gordon Watkins home.

Reta Mae Hansell of Oregon City, who has been visiting at the home of her uncle, M. W. Hansell, returned to her home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles May and daughter, former residents of Athena and Weston, have been here several days from Ashland, visiting friends.

Guy Taitenger who has spent the summer in Athena left Friday for Cascade, Idaho.

Miss Ruth Williams returned home Saturday evening after several weeks spent with her sister Mrs. Fred Beckner, at Washtucna.

Miss Hilda Dickenson and Miss Arleta Willaby of Arlington visited friends and relatives in Athena Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Logsdon and daughter and Mrs. Forrest Zerba and children spent last week-end at Bingham Springs, returning home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Pinkerton and daughter, Jewel and Arleen Foster, Mrs. W. C. Garfield and children left Thursday for a ten days outing at Bingham Springs.

The condition of Mrs. Lew McNair, who was operated on last week in a Walla Walla hospital is improving favorably, according to reports received from the hospital.

Mrs. C. M. Eager and daughter, Virginia left Tuesday evening for Portland where they will consult Dr. Blair at a medical clinic, where Virginia will be fitted with a new foot brace.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Elder departed Friday morning for Cascade, Idaho, to remain the rest of the summer, after two weeks spent at the L. R. Pinkerton home. Mr. and Mrs. Elder will enjoy a few days fishing in the Salmon river, enroute.

Frick's Metal Weather Stripping is Best.

Leonard Geissel was a business visitor in Walla Walla, Monday.

Miss Francis DePuis of Adams was a guest of Miss Betty Eager, Tuesday.

Mrs. B. D. Taylor, son Dalberth and Mrs. Thomas were in the Umapine district Tuesday.

Mrs. J. D. Waghorn of Hermiston has been a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton, Joyce Pinkerton and Arleen Myrick spent Tuesday at Bingham Springs.

Mrs. Lloyd Michener left yesterday morning for Bingham for a ten day outing at the L. R. Pinkerton camp.

Mrs. O. O. Stephens and mother, Mrs. Kimball of Pendleton were guests at the B. B. Richards home, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stockstill left Monday of Boulder, Montana, where they will visit at the home of Mrs. Stockstill's mother.

Miss Edna Zerba, Mrs. Frank Rogers and daughter Merle, and Miss Nola Hill formed a party who were in Walla Walla Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. S. Ferguson arrived home Tuesday evening from Nampa, Idaho, where she spent a week visiting her daughter Mrs. Horace Belknap and family.

There was a good attendance at the union services in the Christian church Sunday night. The meeting will be in the Baptist church next Sunday evening, when Mr. Sias will speak.

Visitors last week at the Gholson home, were Mrs. Fanny Proudfoot and daughters, of Yakima. Mrs. Proudfoot was formerly Fanny Gholson, and is a niece of W. J. Gholson.

Mrs. M. L. Watts had as her house guests Tuesday, her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. F. Anderson and Mrs. Wagonblast of Portland and niece, Mrs. F. M. Anderson and children of Walla Walla.

Leo Geissel and Jack Miller are on the Arbogast-Geissel stock ranch in Grant county, where they will remain until school starts. The boys are having a fine time, with plenty of horseback riding.

Guests at the Sias home this week are Mr. and Mrs. Montague Aspenwall, of Salem, who are en route Saskatchewan. Mr. Sias and Mr. Aspenwall are cousins and have not met before in over thirty years.

Mrs. James Huggins of Athena and Mrs. Lela Vaughn and two daughters of Pendleton, spent last week at Toppenish, Washington, where they visited Win Burden, brother of Mrs. Huggins. They made the trip by automobile.

Miss Agnes Little, teacher in the Washgal, Wash., high school, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little, on Fifth street, for the remainder of the summer. Miss Little attended summer school at University of Oregon.

The B. Y. P. U. cordially invites the young people of Athena to attend its meetings, held every Sunday evening at the Baptist church. The service begins promptly at 7 o'clock, and all will find interesting and worthwhile programs are presented.

Rev. Dow and family entertained Dr. and Mrs. Kempton and Rev. and Mrs. McArthur of Pasadena, California, Monday night. Dr. Kempton was formerly pastor of the White Temple at Walla Walla. The party left Tuesday morning for Edmonton, Alberta.

Pattie Cunningham, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cunningham of Pendleton was run over by a car in the streets of Pendleton last Thursday. It was necessary to take the little one to the hospital where she was attended and is now convalescing at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Eager and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Garfield and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Michener were guests at the L. R. Pinkerton home Sunday where a pot luck picnic lunch was spread on the lawn. The afternoon was spent in games and social chat.

Bryce Baker met up with an aggravating accident Monday, when the front axle on his oil truck broke. Bryce was forced to make delivery of gas to harvest outfits out of drums carted behind his automobile in a trailer. Taking no chance of having his gas tank tapped by thieves, he employed George Pittman to guard it Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Litsinger and two children are here from their home in Los Angeles, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Baker. Mrs. Litsinger is a sister of Mr. Baker. Mr. Litsinger is employed in the Southern Pacific offices in Los Angeles and is on his summer vacation. They will visit relatives at Eugene and Olympia, Wash., before returning home.

Clair, Loie and Monta Montgomery left Tuesday morning for California by automobile. Loie is to enter San Francisco State Teachers college and Clair and Monta will return to Cloverdale, Oregon, after a short visit with relatives in California. Mr. and Mrs. Hiteman, Beatrice and Esma Hiteman contemplate leaving for Cloverdale next Tuesday, where Mr. Hiteman will be principal in the schools of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Duffield have as their house guests this week Mrs. F. A. Rohde and daughter Mrs. Earl Massa, mother and sister respectively, of Mrs. Duffield, and Mrs. Geo. Massa of Amity, Oregon, also another sister Mrs. C. A. Kahle of Opeheim, Montana, and Miss Evalyn Duffield of Portland, arrived Wednesday evening to remain ten days with her uncle and family. The Massas spent Tuesday and Wednesday at Lewiston, Idaho, returning to the Duffield home Thursday to spend the remainder of the week.

For Sale—A good cream separator for sale, or will trade for wood.

Jerome Hill was in Athena yesterday from his home near Freewater. Glen Shankland came down from Meacham and spent Sunday with friends in Athena.

Mrs. Jesse Smith returned home Sunday from a visit with relatives at Lexington, Morrow county.

Mrs. Ralph McEwen and son Ralph, Jr., attended the Passion Play at Walla Walla, Monday evening. D. H. Mansfield, buyer of horses, was in Athena Wednesday from Pendleton, transacting business.

A son was born August 5 to Mr. and Mrs. Verlen Haverland of Milton. The youngster tipped the scales at 9 pounds.

Miss Emma Thoeny, who has been attending summer school, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Everett Rothrock.

Mrs. Zeltha McIntyre has returned from her farm in Sherman county, where she spent several weeks, looking after her interests there.

Tom DeFreece is here from his home near Walla Walla, and will spend some time at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sims Dickenson.

Mrs. Alice Johnson has returned from the hospital at Walla Walla, to her farm home northeast of Athena, and is recovering from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. George Banister are in Portland, where Mr. Banister will receive treatment for stomachic trouble, with which he has been afflicted for some time.

Chester Cartwright and nephew of Seattle, were visitors Tuesday at the C. M. Eager home. Mr. Cartwright and Mr. Eager were school mates in Dayton, Wash.

Lightning put one of the motors in the Preston-Shaffer flour mill out of commission and the plant was forced to close down until repairs could be made.

Miss Lenore McNair spent Monday night with her mother, who is in a hospital at Walla Walla. Mrs. McNair is recovering from her illness nicely, so it is reported.

Kilgore's Cafe is installing Shellac, a gas product of the Shell Oil company. Mr. Kilgore will do all his cooking hereafter on a gas range instead of the coal range.

Charles Williams and daughter Ruth have returned home from the Beckner ranch near Washtucna. They have had as guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Williams of Tacoma.

Mr. Gerald Clay of Prosser, Wash., was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kershaw. Mr. Clay will be coach at the Snoqualmie high school for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hennley and small child have moved here and are residing in the Methodist parsonage. Mr. Hennley is employed by the Preston-Shaffer Milling company.

Gordon Mercer, manager for the Shell Oil company at the Athena plant, is a new Athena Press subscriber. Mr. Mercer and family reside in the Taylor cottage at Main and Fifth streets.

Robert Lee, who has been employed in the bean cultivating crew is taking a short vacation, since finishing work. He is at the home of his sister, Mrs. Edgar Spencer, at Palouse, Washington.

Frances and Granville Cannon will go to Lexington, Morrow county, on a visit. Their mother, who was called to Lexington on account of illness of her brother, Mr. Koontz, will return home with them.

While loading out wheat from the Farmers Elevator company Wednesday evening, John Burke fell from a ladder, 8 feet to the ground. He struck the ground on his right shoulder, causing a severe strain.

Orville Reeves, well known in Athena as an expert mechanic and combine harvester operator, is here from Portland, visiting at the M. W. Hansell home. Mr. Reeves is now connected with one of Portland's leading photo studios.

John Pfankuck, a mechanic who operated the combine for the Read-Barrett outfit, was called to Kansas City by the critical illness of his mother. He left Athena yesterday, giving up a position in Montana during the harvest season there.

The Weston Leader reports that thefts continue from the wheat fields in the Dry creek region. Ramsey and Jess L. York neglected to guard their wheat in the Bade field last Thursday night, and unknown marauders with a truck drove off with between 25 and 30 sacks.

One of the coaches of the Union Pacific stages was delayed for a short time in Athena, Monday, when fire was started by a short circuit in the electrical equipment. The fire was put out without damage to the coach when Forrest Zerba crashed the contents of a bomb fire extinguisher into the flames. Passengers lost no time in leaving the coach when the fire took place.

The missionary meeting of the Christian church was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. Sherman, with 17 members and guests present. Mrs. Louis Keen presided, and Miss Juanita Crawford had charge of a very interesting program, which treated of Missions in South Africa. Papers were read by Mrs. Garner, Mrs. Gerking and Mrs. L. L. Lieuallen, and a playlet was presented by Misses Mildred Hansell, Betty Eager, Mary Berlin and Marjorie Douglas; a solo by Miss Dena Lieuallen, and a short story by Mrs. Keen. Refreshments were served by the hostess and Miss Maud Sherman assisted by Mrs. Garner. The September meeting will be with Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. DePatt.

PRICES for SATURDAY and MONDAY

SUGAR

Pure Cane, 100 lbs. 5.75

CATSUP

2 Large Bottles 37c

SOAP

Crystal White 10 for 37c

Royal Club Jell Powder

All Flavors 2 for 15c

BEANS

Small White 4 lbs. for 39c

SHAKER SALT

Plain or Iodized 2 for 15c

JAR CAPS

Economy or Self Sealing 2 doz. 57c

CERTO

2 Bottles 59c

Phone 152

The Coolest Place in Town to Trade

Athena Department Store

Symphony Stationery

A Writing Paper that reflects
Quality and Distinctiveness

Available in White and Tints in all the popular sizes and styles

Sold only at the Rexall Store

WATKINS' PHARMACY

Main Street

Athena

Phone 332

CHAIN RED & WHITE STORES

The proprietors of Red & White Stores are home-town merchants, who belong to a co-operative buying association in order that they may sell the best of foods at the most reasonable prices. Patronize them! It will pay you well.

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY AND MONDAY

Canada Dry Ginger Ale

3 for 73c

1 Dozen for 2.85

Van Camps Pork and Beans, Medium

4 for 39c

Red & White Mayonnaise and Relish Spread, Pts.

39c

Salad Dressing, Green & White, Pint

25c

Red and White, Sandwich Spread 1/4s

2 for 25c

Red and White Chipped Beef, Medium glass

25c

Deviled Meats, 1/4s

3 for 14c

Red and White, Vienna Sausage, 1/2s

2 for 25c

Snowdrift, 3 lbs.

79c

Crystal White Soap

7 for 29c

Peas, Sifted, No. 3 Sieve, No. 2 Tins

2 for 43c

Peas, Green & White, Ungraded 2s

3 for 38c

Cake, Angel Food

49c

Blue and White, Cocoa, 2 lbs.

29c

Rice, Fancy, Blue Rose

4 lbs. for 33c

MONTAGUE & CORNELL

PHONE 171

HARRIS' BARBER SHOP

Dirt and Dandruff can not remain in the same scalp with Fitch D. R. Shampoo. Give yourself a treat and try one. Also retail size bottle.

ALL LINES OF BARBER WORK

Phone 492

Quality Grocery

Athena, Oregon

Where Quality and Prices Rule
Seven Days of Each Week

We Solicit Your Phone Orders

Call 561

Frank Little, Prop.

Script Butter Wraps

Walla Walla General Hospital

A modern non sectarian fifty bed hospital, with all up to date modern hospital facilities for the care of patients.

X-Ray and bacteriological laboratories, washed air ventilation.

Only graduate nurses are employed and their services are included at the regular rates which are

$3.50 to $6.00

Special nurses extra. Your interest and patronage is solicited. Phone 480.

Bruno Weber

Blacksmithing

AND

Repair Work

Prices Reasonable

Successor To
JENS JENSEN

Contouration

TREATMENTS

PERFECT

THE CONTOUR

—A—

FULL STOCK OF

CONTOURE

PREPARATIONS

JUST RECEIVED

Athena Beauty Shop

Sadie Pambrun, Operator
Phone 32