Frick's Metal Weather Stripping is Best.

Mrs. James Cresswell has been entertaining Mrs. Geraldine Craig and daughter Miss Bernice Craig, her aunt and cousin, of Bellingham, Washington, this week. Miss Craig will teach in the public schools at Walla Walla this year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Campbell were recent visitors at the Thorn Hollow home of Mr. and Mrs. George Brace. Alterations and interior decoration of the M. I. Miller home is under way. Henry Schroeder and Mr. Miller are doing the work.

The home of Miss Lenore McNair was the scene of a most pleasant function last Friday night, when with the assistance of Miss Frederica Kershaw, she entertained a group of friends, honoring Miss Blanche Johnson, who is soon to become a bride. The cozy rooms were tastefully decorated in old-fashioned flowers of various hues, giving a festive tone to the occasion. Soon after the arrival of the guests, a small maid, Donna Jean Logsdon, pushing a well-laden wheelbarrow, advanced into the room, presenting the contents, consisting of a bridal shower to the bride to be. Numerous and beautiful gifts were unloaded from the primitive carrier by Miss Johnson. During the evening three tables were in play at bridge and at a late hour, an elaborate luncheon was served. The guests were: Mrs. Donald Johnson, Mrs. W. A. Ball, Mrs. Armond deMerritt, Misses Blanche Johnson, Lois Johnson, Jessideane Dudley, Kathleen Radtke, Helen Hansell, Lois McIntyre, Edna DeFreece, Phyllis Dickenson, and Frederica Kershaw and Lenore McNair, the hostesses.
