D. C. Kirk, formerly a farmer on the reservation, southwest of Athena, was in the city Saturday from his home at Richland, Washington. Leaving Athena several years ago, Mr. Kirk went to Saskatchewan, where he engaged in wheat farming.

Mrs. Jesse Smith attended the fourth annual reunion of the pioneers of Moro county Saturday. Dinner and supper were served and no formal program was presented, thus giving old friends an opportunity to visit and reminisce. Mrs. Smith returned home Sunday and was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Emma Patterson who will visit her for a time.

Mrs. George Myrick received word of the death of her father, W. C. Attebery, Monday at Weiser, Idaho. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Attebery has visited at the home of his daughter in Athena in the past and was well known by a number of Athena people. He was 72 years old and death was caused by cancer. He is survived by eight daughters and three sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Metz were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kershaw Sunday. The couple were recently married in Spokane and will live in Weston where Mr. Metz has a home. The bride, who was Mrs. Eva Long, is well known in Athena, having lived here in former years. With her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knowlton, she visited here a few weeks ago, from their home in Spokane.

Mrs. Ralph McEwen is in receipt of an interesting letter from her cousin, Lieutenant O. R. Goss who is an eye, ear and throat specialist in the navy. Dr. Goss had charge of equipping the new 10,000 ton cruiser Chester recently completed at the shipyards Camden, New Jersey. It is now on what is known as a "shake down" trip to try out the engines. They touched at Naples, Constantinople, Athens, ports in the Black Sea and Gibraltar, returning to Chester, Pennsylvania, this week.

At a meeting of the Loyal Gleaners Christian church Sunday school class Friday evening, the following officers were elected: Mrs. C. M. Eager, president; Mrs. O. E. Venable, vice-president; Miss May Lockwood, secretary-treasurer. A committee comprising Mrs. Ed Montague, Mrs. Flint Johns and Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton will solicit food for a dinner to be served delegates, attending the O. E. S. convention on the evening of October 29. After an evening of pleasure and a no-hostess lunch, it was decided to hold similar meetings each month.
