The Military Bird
 The wild geese and ducks are arriving on their annual migration from the great north.
 The goose, the noblest of all game birds, is the only bird who conducts his affairs in military order. He flies in perfect formation, wears a beautiful uniform and places sentinels when in camps. He is a wary fellow and it is the keen sportsman who can out-general him.
 For the accommodation of the particular and discriminating hunter, we carry a stock of U M C Ammunition. Our Remington long range loads will out shoot, shell for shell, any make or brand of heavy, long range loads on the market.

Editorial
 (Arleen Myrick)
 "Talkies" are much more advanced and sought by the public than the old silent pictures. In these a person gets the full benefit of seeing the pictures, which he did with the silent ones, plus the sound. Taking everything into consideration, "talkies" are much better than silent pictures. But are "talkies" in school any better than silent ones? These are not picture shows but pupils who, while they are supposed to be studying, talk so as to be heard. Maybe they think the rest of the students will enjoy it more, as they do "talkie" shows. But this is not right and these pupils are not sought, unless by the teachers to punish them. In our study-hall there are quite a few, of these so-called "school talkies." Maybe they got their idea from shows. If this is the case which, surely cannot be, then "talkies" are not better than silent ones. But as a rule the pupils just get the idea themselves to keep the rest from studying. Let us all go to "talkies" and enjoy them but not try to imitate them at school.

Honor Roll
 The following students had no grades below a two on their report cards for the first six weeks. A two is between eighty-six and ninety-three per cent.

Student Body
 The high school student body enjoyed a program Monday morning, given by the seventh and eighth grades, directed by their teacher, Mr. Miller. These programs are to be presented by the different grades every week. The program was as follows: Song—Oregon My Oregon, 7th and 8th grades; recitation, Genevieve Barrett; pantomime—"Three Wishes," Aaron Douglas, Arleen Foster, Jack Miller, Bud Weber, Barbara Lee and Doris Jenkins.

Society News
 Girls' League met Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. in the auditorium. Marjorie Douglas, chairman of the social committee, reported that she and her committee had planned the Hallowe'en party for the League, to be Saturday, October 25, and they had decided to invite the student body. The chairman of the finance committee, Velma

Ross, stated that the committee had some plans in mind but they have not yet perfected them. After this a short program, consisting of the following numbers, was given: piano solo, "Mattinetta," Esther Berlin; reading, "Mia Carlotta," Helen Barrett; piano solo, "Pierrot and Pierrette," Marjorie Montague.

A unique Hallowe'en party was given by the Girls' League Saturday, October 25. It was given for the League and the high school student body. The party was planned and carried out exclusively by the social committee. Many good games, that were very different, were played in the party room and later in the gymnasium. Later in the evening refreshments of doughnuts and cider were served.

Athletics
 Athena went to Kennewick last Friday, and after a very rough game came out loser by a score of 12 to 0. Kennewick made a touchdown in the first quarter but failed to make the try-for-point. The Athena boys seemed to be getting more than their share of injuries. Lowell Jenkins received a severe blow on the back which caused him to leave the game. Several more were hurt temporarily, but none of the injuries were serious enough to force the boys out of the game.

Grade News
 First and Second Grades
 Donald Mayberry has returned after a recent illness.

Lorraine Peterson is absent from school. He is bothered with ear trouble and is unable to attend.

Third and Fourth Grades
 Geraldine Garrett and Robert Mayberry have returned after recent illness.

The third and fourth grades will put on the program in assembly next Friday.

Fifth and Sixth Grades
 Betty Geiss was absent from school last Thursday.

The fifth and sixth grades have a new design on their sand table. It now is a miniature Indian village.

The fifth and sixth grades received a letter from a Grenola, Kansas, school where a friend of Miss Lee teaches. They sent a cotton plant as a symbol of their state. The sixth grade is going to send something to them as a symbol of the state of Oregon. They are going to exchange bits of news that will help in their geography classes.

Seventh and Eighth Grades
 Daniel Reeder is back to his studies after an absence of three days.

Mrs. Milton Miller taught the seventh and eighth grades while Mr. Miller attended the Athena-Kennewick football game.
