

Fame of Sargon Sweeping Nation

Millions of bottles sold yearly, proof that Sargon is one of the great, outstanding, health-giving remedies of the age.

Now:

The Sargon Laboratories have placed on the market

Mentho-Mulsion

a new and effective compound recommended for the relief of coughs due to colds, and minor throat irritations

Price, 6 oz. 75c
 Sargon 1.35
 Sargon Pills 60c

WATKINS' PHARMACY

Exclusive Sargon Agents
 Main Street Phone 332 Athena

Press Paragraphs

F. B. Wood is in Tacoma where he is visiting.

Ernest Zerba of Waitsburg visited Athena friends Sunday.

Oral Michener is unable to work due to neuritis in his shoulder.

Harve and Elmer Booher were in town this week from Condon.

Mrs. H. M. Hale of Helix called on Athena friends Wednesday.

Mary Lou Hansell is recovering from a painfully sprained ankle.

Tom Gurdane, Umatilla County sheriff was in Athena Wednesday.

Lynn Ferguson of Portland visited his father W. S. Ferguson last week.

W. S. Ferguson returned Tuesday after several days spent at Payette, Idaho.

Dell, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Armond De Merritt has been quite ill this week.

The 3 o' 4 Bridge club met at the home of Mrs. Bert Logsdon Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Rider of Yakima were visitors at the B. B. Richards home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Beale of La Grande, spent Sunday at the Boylan home near Helix.

A. M. Johnson, who suffered a severe attack of biliousness earlier in the week, is recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dudley spent last week in Portland where they attended the horse show.

Mrs. Wm. Piper, Sr., was in Athena for a short time Tuesday, en route to her home in Walla Walla.

Miss Glea Sias came up from Hermiton and spent Sunday at the home of her parents in Athena.

Jack Cunningham of the Smythe-Barthel Co. of Pendleton transacted business here Wednesday.

Mrs. Bowles will entertain a group of friends at luncheon tomorrow at her home in Walla Walla.

Mrs. Kilgore of Portland, returned home Monday, after visiting her sister, Mrs. W. E. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Kohler Betts were week-end guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Blatchford.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin Harwood spent Sunday at Freewater where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCoy.

L. A. McClintock, Pendleton merchant and extensive farmer, transacted business in Athena Wednesday.

The ladies of the Baptist church served dinner to the election board at the school house Tuesday evening.

Vic Harris well known resident of Athena will leave shortly for Portland where he will spend the winter months.

George Brace, Thorn Hollow merchant and Dolph Thompson proprietor of the Gibbon store were Athena visitors Monday.

Miss Virginia Eager was a house guest of Betty Geiss at her country home south of Athena several days last week.

Weston residents who were Athena visitors this week included Mrs. Alex Johnson, Mrs. May English Parks and John Banister.

Mrs. C. M. Eager, Mrs. Laurence Pinkerton, Jewell Pinkerton and Mrs. Ralph McEwen were Walla Walla visitors Monday.

Miss Lizzie McKenzie, who formerly resided in the Adams neighborhood, was here last week from Portland, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Mitchell who spent the past summer at Kennebec will spend the winter months on the Beale place at Pine Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Hodgen of The Dalles, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Johnson, parents of Mrs. Hodgen.

Patty, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Mann of Adams, was seriously burned while playing with a jack-o-lantern on Halloween night.

Mrs. Grant Prestbye arrived yesterday morning from her home near Whitefish, Montana. She will make an extended visit here with friends and relatives.

Mr. Dan Tilley was a Walla Walla visitor Wednesday.

The high school play is in nightly rehearsal and a ceremony of this week will be the burning of manuscripts, so we are assured of its presentation within a few weeks. A feature of the evening's entertainment will be the initial appearance of the glee clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shaw, of Grangeville, Idaho, were guests Saturday night at the home of Mrs. M. M. Johns, Mr. Shaw is a brother of Mrs. Johns, and had been with his wife to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. Devine, 88 years old, at Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. Dean Dudley entertained the J. T. Club Friday afternoon. Eight members were present and the guests included Miss Lizzie McKenzie of Portland, Mrs. Ed Stickler of Pendleton, Mrs. Ralph Cannon of Walla Walla, and Mrs. Star Charlton. At the tea hour the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Frank Sanders. The next meeting will occur November 12th at the home of Mrs. Bert Logsdon.

The carnival sponsored by the Adams Ladies' Community Club was a riot of fun and much of a financial success, the tidy sum of $83 being realized from sales at the different concessions. The event was largely attended and entertainment provided included many novel stunts. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bloom, Miss Cameron and Mr. and Mrs. Harve Roseberry were among the Athena people who attended the carnival.

The ladies of the Baptist church served dinner in their dining room the evening of election day. The tables were most attractive and with roast chicken as the "piece de resistance" and all the "trimmings," and a good sized crowd of hungry friends and customers, the affair may be counted a real success. About fifty dollars was cleared and the sponsors wish to thank all who in any way assisted.

Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Blatchford, Mr. and Mrs. James Cresswell, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Prestbye and Mr. and Mrs. Justin Harwood were dinner guests Monday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. Rice in Pendleton. Red and white chrysanthemums were used effectively for decoration. At bridge, played following dinner, Mrs. Rice held high score, the second time since beginning of the tournament now in progress.

Baskets of beautiful chrysanthemums centered four small tables at the home of Mrs. Bert Logsdon, Wednesday evening when she entertained the B. B. Club. Dinner was served at six-thirty and bridge was played during the evening. Laurence Pinkerton and Mrs. Lloyd Michener held high score and A. A. McIntyre was awarded the consolation prize. The club will be entertained next Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Douglas.

Mrs. M. M. Johns entertained the Christian Missionary society Wednesday afternoon, when eight members answered to roll call. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton and the devotionals and a varied program were arranged by Mrs. Johns. Papers were read by Mrs. Sias and Mrs. J. W. Pinkerton, and the hostess served tea, assisted by Mrs. E. A. Venable. The December meeting is scheduled to be at the home of Mrs. D. A. Pinkerton.

The B. Y. P. U. of the local Baptist church was responsible for a most successful Halloween party Saturday night. The reception rooms of the church were beautifully decorated with festoons of orange and black crepe paper, Helen Lucille Barrett and Mary Jane Miller being responsible for the artistic effects achieved. Robert Lee was chairman of the social committee and with the able assistance of Kohler Betts and others clever games and stunts were features of the evening's entertainment. Cider and doughnuts were served.

The October meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. D. A. Pinkerton, with nine members present. Mrs. Ida Cowan of Walla Walla, a former president of the local union, was present. Mrs. O. H. Reeder had charge of the program for the day and led a discussion of the various political candidates and their qualifications. The next meeting will be held on November 18 at the home of Mrs. O. H. Reeder, at which time the county W. C. T. U. president, Mrs. Esther A. F. May will be present and give an address upon the work done at the recent state convention in Roseburg.

Chrysanthemums in shades ranging from rose to bronze were used effectively as table decoration Tuesday when Mrs. W. S. Ferguson entertained at luncheon at the Grand Hotel in Walla Walla. Covers were placed for sixteen guests and dainty sachets were used as favors. Baskets and score cards in pastel shades were also employed. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon, Mrs. H. I. Watts winning high score and Mrs. Marion Hansell second. Others present were Mrs. Henry Dell, Mrs. F. S. LeGrow, Mrs. C. M. Eager, Mrs. Fred Kershaw, Mrs. Chase Garfield, Mrs. Max/Hopper, Mrs. Laurence Pinkerton, Mrs. Alex McIntyre, Mrs. James Cresswell, Mrs. Sarah Jane Bowles, Mrs. A. A. McIntyre, Mrs. Arthur Douglas and Mrs. George Bishop of Freewater.

PLEASE

Will all those knowing themselves indebted to Dr. S. F. Sharp for professional services, in the past, kindly pay all or part as soon as possible to meet expenses incurred by continued illness.
 Signed, MARY ELLEN SHARP.

PRICES for SATURDAY and MONDAY

Flour White Diamond, per sack1.19	Pork & Beans Van Camps, 11 oz. can, each8c
Milk All brands, 6 Small 25c, 3 large 25c	White Beans Great Northern, 4 lbs.25c
Head Lettuce Large Crisp Heads, each5c	Cabbage Solid Heads, per lb.2c
Sweet Potatoes Nice and Mealy, 6 lbs. for25c	Canned Corn Silver Leaf brand, 4 cans49c

Phone 152

Athena Department Store

Little Jimmy Cresswell had a hard fall from the Standard Oil truck last week. He suffered a scalp wound which was dressed by Dr. McKinney.

Marion Hansell, John Pinkerton and Arnold Wood spent a successful day fishing Sunday when they motored to the Umatilla river above Bingham Springs.

A party motoring to the Lieualien cabin at Meacham for the week-end included the Paul, Lawrence and Ravello Lieualien families of Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Ray of Walla Walla.

Miss Clara Flock came up from Portland Sunday and will remain for the winter at the home of her sister, Mrs. Clarence Zerba, west of town and will attend the Adams high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stater and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thompson were guests at a supper and dancing party at the Walla Walla Country Club, Friday night.

Mrs. Minerva Montague, who made her home in Athena with her son, Ed Montague, for several months, recently fell and fractured her hip while at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Spaulding, at Eugene.

President R. A. Long's address at the recent convention at Washington, D. C. may be heard at the Christian church next Sunday night. It will be a strong address by a man of national business reputation.

Mrs. Henry Koepke, Sr., is ill with a severe cold at her home in Glendale, California. Mr. and Mrs. Koepke, Mrs. Henry Koepke, Jr., and infant son, Henry III, left Athena a couple of weeks ago for California.

J. M. Crawford of Walla Walla president of the Tum-A-Lum lumber company, A. M. Gillis and John H. O'Dell also of Walla Walla and auditor of the same company transacted business in Athena Wednesday.

Mrs. M. M. Johns, Mrs. H. I. Watts and Mrs. Ralph McEwen were luncheon guests Thursday at the home of Mrs. O. O. Stephens and Mrs. A. A. Kimball in Pendleton. Bridge was played during the afternoon.

Jim Hodgen returned recently from a visit to his mother at Redlands, California. The family is nicely situated there and getting along well. Alton and Helen are employed in a drug store and Phyllis is attending business college.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shick and Mr. and Mrs. Loraine Shick came over from Walla Walla Sunday and spent the day at the home of Mrs. Jane Hardien. Mrs. Hardien states if illness remains the same as it has been for the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Spokane called on Athena friends Sunday, making a short stop en route home from attending the football game in Portland Saturday. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, also of Spokane.

The Christian Endeavor convention held at Helix Saturday and Sunday was attended by delegates from all parts of the county, and the sessions were interesting. The Saturday luncheon was served by the Ladies' Aid of the Christian church, in I. O. O. F. hall. The Endeavor banquet was held Saturday evening at Helix Hotel. Sunday noon the Baptist ladies served dinner in the lodge hall.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH
 Mr. Sias will speak of progressive and satisfying faith, next Sunday morning. At the evening service there will be reproduced the opening address of the recent Washington City convention, by Mr. R. A. Long (founder of Longview city.) This was a great address, both broad and stirring. It is desired there shall be a good hearing, both of the membership of the church and others, for they will be uplifted and benefited by it. Good singing and special music is promised for both services.

Quality Grocery

Purex, Softens the Water, 2 quarts	25c
Fels Naptha Soap, 10 bars	65c
Preferred Soda Wafers, 5 lbs.	69c
Alaska Pink Salmon, 1 lb. talls	15c
Hills Bros. Coffee, 1 lb. 44c, 2 lbs. 86c, 4 lbs. $1.71
New Crop Lima Beans per lb.	14c
New Crop Red Mexican Beans per lb.	7c
Picnic Hams, per lb. Still	19c
Home Grown Honey, 10 lbs.	$1.20
Home Grown Honey, 5 lbs.	61c

Frank Little, Prop.

Main Street

Phone 561

THE ATHENA MARKET

We carry the best

Meat

That Money Buys

Kippered Salmon, all kinds of Salt Fish. Fresh Fish, Oysters, Crabs, Clams, Kraut in Season.

A. W. LOGSDON

Main Street

Athena, Oregon.

Goodyear Tires and Tubes

Valvoline Oils

Automobile Supplies, Parts and Accessories

Athena Garage

North side Main Street - - Phone 352

CHAIN RED & WHITE STORES

Canned Fruit Sale

Avail yourself of this opportunity to stock your pantry with quality Canned Fruit, yet at these extremely low prices.

SPECIALS for SATURDAY and MONDAY November 8 and 10

Peaches, Red and White, 2 1/2s
 3 cans for 79c, or 12 cans for 3.10

Peaches, Blue and White, 2 1/2s
 3 cans for 69c, or 12 cans for 2.70

Apricots, Red and White
 3 cans for 89c, or 12 cans for 3.50

Apricots, Blue and White
 3 cans for 69c, or 12 cans for 2.70

Pineapple, Red and White, 2 1/2s
 3 cans for 83c, or 12 cans for 3.25

Pineapple, Crushed Buf. 1s
 3 cans for 40c, or 12 cans for 1.55

Pineapple, Crushed 24-2, Red and White
 3 cans for 73c, or 12 cans for 2.90

Pineapple, Blue and White, 24-2 1/2, Broken Slice
 3 cans for 69c, or 12 cans for 2.70

Pears, Red and White, 2 1/2s
 3 cans for 79c, or 12 cans for 3.10

Pears, Blue and White, 2 1/2s
 3 cans for 69c, or 12 cans for 2.70

Fruits for Salad, 1 lb tins
 3 cans for 73c, or 12 cans for 2.90

Grape Fruit, Red and White
 3 cans for 69c, or 12 cans for 2.70

Strawberries, Raspberries, Loganberries or Blackberries
 3 cans for 98c, or 12 cans for 3.85

Pumpkin, 2 1/2s
 3 cans for 49c, or 12 cans for 1.90

Olives, Blue and White, 1s
 3 cans for 63c, or 12 cans for 2.40

Mayonnaise, Red & White, pints
 98c

Coffee, Red and White, 2 lbs
 69c

Prunes
 3 lbs. for 29c

Cake (Pineapple Layer)
 49c

MONTAGUE & CORNELL

PHONE 171

Bruno Weber

Blacksmithing

AND

Repair Work

Prices Reasonable

Successor To

JENS JENSEN

Pleads Guilty to Sale and Possession

B. B. Richards, when interviewed by the Press man, pleaded guilty to the sale of the best insurance obtainable for the money and possession of more policies in reserve ready at a moments notice for your use and purpose. A policy for every hazzard.
 B. B. RICHARDS,
 Insurance