

Press Paragraphs

Mrs. Lila Kirk came over from Walla Walla Tuesday, and spent the day in Athena.
Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Everett Zerba, at Milton, November 11, 1930, a daughter.
Ray Dudley is quite sick at the Dudley home near town, with a severe case of quinsy.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Dick Clemons, of Pendleton, November 12, 1930, a baby girl.
Rev. Gowan of Waitsburg, will preach at the morning services Sunday, at the Baptist church.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hand have moved from Athena to the Ralph Allen ranch, north of Adams.
Mrs. J. F. Kershaw left by stage Sunday for Ontario, where her mother, Mrs. Barbara Willaby is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Castleman.

E. C. Prestbye was a Walla Walla visitor Wednesday.
Mrs. H. I. Watts spent Tuesday in Walla Walla, with friends.
Mrs. Will Kirk who has been ill for the past week is improving satisfactorily.
Gloria and June Garfield are able to be out after being confined to their homes with severe colds.
Oliver Dickenson, who used to farm north of Athena, was in town from his home at Freewater, Wednesday.
Owing to inclement weather conditions Saturday, the football game scheduled at Touchet, was postponed.
Mrs. Lloyd Michener has returned to her home in Athena after spending the past two months in the country.
Mrs. H. A. Barrett and daughter, Beverley returned home Monday after a week's visit with relatives in Portland.
Mrs. Bryce Baker who underwent a minor operation in Walla Walla Monday is convalescing at her home in Athena.
H. A. Street, well known farmer, is recovering from a severe cold, which for a time threatened to terminate in pneumonia.
Mrs. Charles McFarland went to Pendleton Wednesday, where she spent the day with her daughter, Mrs. Hazel Armintrout.
Mrs. W. S. Ferguson has returned home after a week spent in Portland and Longview. Mrs. Ferguson made the trip by motor.
Teddy and Gene Miller are out of school this week, the former nursing a well developed case of chickenpox, and the latter has the flu.
Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Steen came over from Milton Sunday and spent the day at the home of Mrs. Stella Keen, mother of Mrs. Steen.
Specials for next week, starting Monday morning, at the Harris Barber and Beauty Shop, will be a regular $1 Marinello Facial for 50 cents.
Mrs. McArthur has gone to her home at Portland, and will return in the near future to remain indefinitely with her sister, Mrs. George Banister.
Mr. and Mrs. Ted Becker, (Fay Gerking) returned to their Wallowa county home Sunday, after visiting at the Geo. R. Gerking home, west of Athena.
Miss Lois Johnson, a junior at the University of Oregon will spend Thanksgiving at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Matt Johnson in Athena.
Alex Montgomery of Portland, and John Montgomery of Spokane were in the city Saturday. They spent some time at the office of their friend, B. B. Richards.
W. P. Allen reports that his three children who have been confined in a Walla Walla hospital for the past two weeks with intestinal influenza are improving.
Ad Pinkerton and family are nicely settled at the corner of Fifth and Jefferson street in the house recently vacated by Charles Williams and daughter, Ruth.
Mrs. Sarah Gross, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Grant Prestbye who is here from Whitefish, Montana, will visit relatives and friends in the Willamette valley.
The condition of F. M. Anderson of Walla Walla who is seriously ill in a hospital in that city, remains unchanged and little hope is entertained for his recovery.
Mrs. G. E. Heineck of Okanogan, Washington, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. D. Blatchford. Mrs. Heineck plans to spend several weeks in Athena.
Miss Mildred Stanton who was a patient at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton, is now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stanton in Athena, and is convalescent.
Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Marquis of Pendleton were house guests several days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Johnson. Mr. Marquis is Mrs. Johnson's brother.
Mrs. Lisle Gray is taking subscriptions for the Walla Walla Union, during the contest for district prizes. Mrs. Gray will appreciate all subscriptions given her at this time.
Bun Moore of this city, is confined in a Walla Walla hospital, where he is receiving treatment for an infected knee. Mr. Moore is employed at the Preston-Shaffer milling plant.
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ringel, formerly employed on the S. J. Culley ranch, southeast of Athena, have moved to town and are living in the Lila Kirk cottage on lower Third street.
Miss Jane Irving, teacher in Weston High school was a guest of Miss Elsa Ringel Tuesday at her home near Athena. Miss Irving and Miss Ringel were schoolmates at Oregon State College.
Farmers who reside on the Reed & Hawley mountain have difficulty in negotiating the road to the valley this week due to a ten inch fall of snow. The temperature however is not unusually low.
Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wood have returned from Selah, Wash., where they visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Steel. Hughie Steel, former Athena school pupil, is attending school in Selah.
Mrs. Eliza Burchill of Pendleton spent last Friday night here as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Eager. Mrs. Burchill was here to attend the high school play and returned to Pendleton Saturday.
Members of the Baptist church are requested to attend a special business meeting to be held Sunday afternoon, following a potluck dinner in the church basement. The meeting will be an important one and all members of the church are earnestly requested to be present.

Carl Christian, mayor of Adams, was in Athena Tuesday.
Ad Pinkerton and son Laurence were Pendleton visitors Tuesday.
Walter Adams of Walla Walla was an Athena visitor Wednesday night.
Paul Kibbey is confined to his home with a severe case of chicken-pox.
Jim Liewallen, Weston cattleman, transacted business in Athena yesterday.
McKenzie Chapter, O. E. S. met Wednesday evening for a brief business session.
Fay and George Pambrun and Orel Michener bagged a couple of mallards on Greasewood, yesterday.
Mrs. Don Stanton of Oakland, California, is a guest this week at the home of her brother, George Green.
Mrs. C. M. Eager was a Walla Walla visitor Wednesday where she is taking treatments for an attack of neuritis.
Athena markets continue to be supplied with vegetables and garden produce. Three outfits delivering by auto truck, make regular visits here.
Miss Ellen Henry who is teaching at Estacada this year, will spend Thanksgiving at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry.
The joint work of putting in a new culvert at the intersection of Main and Fifth streets by the city and the state highway department is about completed.
Mrs. Chase Garfield was called to Walla Walla last Friday by the illness of her brother, Sheriff McInroe who was operated on for appendicitis. At present his condition is favorable and he is convalescing nicely.
The continued storm of the last few days has halted all farming operations and machinery is being housed for the winter, as the weather man promises no immediate relief from present wintry conditions.
Henry Koepke left Tuesday night for Glendale, California, where he will spend the winter months. He will visit the home of his parents and will join his wife and son who have been in the south for the past month.
Henry Barrett received word from Eugene announcing the death of Henry Mitchell, who many years ago resided in Athena. He was a nephew of the late Henry Adams and a nephew of Elmer Merritt of this city.
Leonard Geissel, Dean Pinkerton and Melvin Coppock spent Sunday in the vicinity of Hermiston, hunting ducks. The birds flew high, with the result that the local sportsmen returned home, duckless—and chickenless, too.
A band of Canadian geese which lit in a field west of town Monday drew the attention of a couple of Athena shooters, but the wise old sentinel warned the flock of their approach and the bonkers immediately left for parts unknown.
An informal meeting of the J. T. club occurred last Friday at the home of Mrs. Bert Logsdon. The afternoon was spent in chat and needlework. The club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Fred Gross next Friday, November 28th.
The ladies of the Christian church will hold a bazaar December 5th in the church basement. Various fancy articles, aprons, pillow cases and other articles too numerous to mention will be on sale and a dinner, cafeteria style, will be served.
Last Thursday evening Mary Lou Hansell celebrated her eighth birthday with a jolly party for her small friends composing the Blue Bird group of Camp Fire girls, and on Sunday the occasion was again observed with a birthday dinner.
Mrs. E. C. Rogers was pleasantly surprised Saturday when she received a visit from her sister, Mrs. F. D. Watts from Portland. Mrs. Watts, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith who visited friends in Weston and Athena, the party returning home Monday.
Miss Florence Craven of Walla Walla, Camp Fire organizer, will address the Camp Fire groups of Athena at the high school auditorium, Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Miss Craven will give a most helpful talk and it is most desirable that all members make an effort to be present.
Four teams on the Athena high school football squad will be seen in a double-header at the high school gymnasium tonight. Next week the winners of tonight's game will play and also the loser's will play. These games are open to the public. No admission.
One of the outstanding events of last week was the dinner Monday evening for which Mrs. Art Jenkins, Mrs. Bun Moore and Mrs. Will Campbell were hostesses. Honorees were the members of the Athena high school football team and squad. Covers were placed for eighteen players. Additional guests were M. I. Miller, coach, Mr. and Mrs. Bloom and Mr. Jenkins. Fall flowers and tapers made effective decorations and the favors were chocolate footballs. Appropriate remarks were made by Mr. Bloom, Mr. Miller and Arthur Crowley, followed by short talks by other guests.
The meeting of the Methodist Ladies society, was held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Crabill Wednesday afternoon. Visitors were Mrs. Shubert Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. Cornell, Miss Edna Zerba, Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. W. O. Read led the lesson, "Thankfulness is a grace." Solos were sung by Mrs. Sleeman and Mrs. Clarence Hand. The diversion of the afternoon was a postal package sale. Mrs. Frank Little and Mrs. W. O. Read served refreshments. Mrs. Cornell, Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Shubert joined the society. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Little on December 17th.

PRICES for SATURDAY and MONDAY

Kraut Juice Hamilton's Pure Juice, per can...18c	Fig Bars Nice and Fresh, 2 lbs.....25c
Wesson Oil Per Quart49c	Fruit Salad Libby's, 3 cans.....69c
Salmon No. 1 Pink, 2 cans25c	Toilet Paper Large 7 oz. rolls, 6 for25c

New Lot of Aprons, Dainty Patterns 98c
Pajamas, Something New, per pair 1.95

Phone 152

Athena Department Store

F. S. LeGrow has been confined to his home with an attack of influenza, but is much improved at this time.
Mrs. Beryl Hodgen left for her home in The Dalles last Saturday after a week spent in Athena. Mrs. Hodgen was called here by the illness of her father, Matt Johnson, who is now able to be at his office.
Dr. and Mrs. Douglas McIntyre and Mr. and Mrs. Charles McSweeney of St. John, Wash., were in Athena Wednesday en route by motor to California. They are acquaintances of Gordon Watkins, who resided at St. John before coming to Athena to engage in the drug business.
An interesting meeting of the B. Y. P. U. was held at the Baptist church Sunday evening. The program which was featured with a duet by Miss Jean Zerba and Miss Clara Flock, was presented in contest form by two divisions presenting the numbers. The study topic was "Stewardship."
The Athena Bridge club was entertained last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ralph McEwen. Chrysanthemums added to the attractiveness of the rooms where three tables were in play. Club honors fell to Mrs. F. S. LeGrow and Mrs. R. D. Blatchford received the guest prize. Other guests for the affair were Mrs. Justin Harwood and Mrs. Laurence Pinkerton.
Mrs. Kohler Betts entertained the members of the Baptist Missionary society at her home Wednesday afternoon of last week. Discussion of the year's study on India was led by Mrs. Zeltha McIntyre. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles Betts and Mrs. A. R. Coppock. The society will be entertained by Mrs. Fred Pinkerton at her home in Athena, at its December meeting.
Complementing Mrs. E. A. Dudley, Mrs. Glenn Dudley was hostess at a delightful one o'clock luncheon Tuesday, when she entertained the following ladies: Mrs. Zeltha McIntyre, Mrs. Minnie DePeat, Mrs. Charles A. Sias, Mrs. M. M. Johns, Mrs. F. B. Boyd and the honoree. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with needlework. Mrs. Dudley with Mr. Dudley will leave soon for their usual winter sojourn at Long Beach, California.
Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Prestbye entertained at dinner and bridge Tuesday evening at their home on Fourth street. Chrysanthemums centered the table and during the play which followed Mrs. Prestbye won first in the tournament now being played by this group. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Rice of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Harwood, Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Blatchford, Mrs. Grant Prestbye of Whitefish, Montana, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Hopper.

Quality Grocery
Just a few more every day
Prices

Fine, large, new crop Walnuts, 3 lbs. for.....	$1.00
Mince Meat, 1 year old, just right for pies, 2 lbs. for.....	45c
9-lb. bag Aunt Jemima Pearl Hominy.....	44c
White Diamond Flour, home made, per sack.....	$1.24
Tree Ripened Apricots, 2 1/2s, per can.....	20c
5-lb. box Preferred Soda Wafers.....	68c
10 lbs. Pure Umatilla county Honey.....	$1.20
No. 2 can Golden Bantam Corn.....	15c
Orange Marmalade, just in, 1-lb.....	25c
Carstens Boston Butts Best Ever, per lb.....	25c

Frank Little, Prop.

Main Street Phone 561

THE ATHENA MARKET

We carry the best
Meat
That Money Buys

Kipperd Salmon, all Kinds of Salt Fish. Fresh Fish, Oysters, Crabs, Clams, Kraut in Season.
A. W. LOGSDON
Main Street Athena, Oregon.

Goodyear Tires
and Tubes

Valvoline
Oils
Automobile Supplies,
Parts and Accessories

Athena Garage
North side Main Street Phone 352

November

Is the Month

that every Poultry Raiser should get his hens into the highest production possible.

There is one outstanding product that will put hens in laying trim, and that's

PAN-A-MIN
(Formerly Pan-a-ces)

For every $1.00's worth of Pan-a-min you feed your hens, you will bring $6.00 worth of extra eggs to town. Get it at

WATKINS' PHARMACY

Main Street Phone 832 Athena

CHAIN RED & WHITE STORES

From the first cheery "Red & White," in answer to your telephone call, to the prompt delivery of the foods to your home there is always a cordial spirit of service shown that is typically Red & White

SPECIALS for SATURDAY and MONDAY

Cranberries 2 for 39c
Sweet Potatoes 6 for 25c
Celery, Oregon 2 for 15c
Celery, Utah 20c or 2 for 35c
Oysters, Blue & White 2 for 35c
Shrimp, Red & White 2 for 45c
Shrimp, Small 15c
Mince Meat 2 lbs. for 35c
Pumpkin, Red & White, 2 1/2s 2 for 33c
Crisco 3 lbs. 69c
Canada Dry, Lime Rickey, Mission Orange 6 for 1.45
Raisins, 4-lb. Bags 29c
Ripe Olives 2 for 43c
Dates, Holden Hollowi 2 lbs. for 25c
Coffee, Red & White 1 lb. Bags 35c
Oranges, Navals, size 288s 3 doz. for 79c

MONTAGUE & CORNELL
PHONE 171