James Cresswell, Miss Helen Hansell and Mrs. Henry Barrett planned the decorations and entertainment.

BAPTIST CHURCH
 Good crowds are greeting Capt. G. L. Hall since his arrival in our city. Last Sunday was even larger than the Sunday previous. Mr. Hall will continue his sermon of last Sunday morning. "Being a Christian what then is involved?" Special music will be in attendance at both services. The Sunday school was the largest also since Mr. Hall has been here. In the morning he spoke at Adams than drove to Athena afterwards. Everyone not attending church elsewhere is cordially invited to meet and worship God with us.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH
 Mr. C. F. Swander, missionary secretary in Oregon, will speak at the morning service. Mr. Swander is an old college mate of Mr. Sias, who hopes that there will be a large hearing on this occasion. We are assured of an excellent address.
 Let there be the usual good attendance at the 10 o'clock Bible school. There will be special music this Sunday.

UNION RELIGIOUS SERVICES
 The Meade Union Evangelists, well known in the Northwest, will be in Athena, March 3d, to open in the Baptist church covering a period of two weeks. These meetings are sponsored by the Baptist and Christian churches of Athena, and it is hoped that all Christian people, and all who appreciate the need of a religious revival in the community will unite in hearty cooperation. The character of these evangelists, and their calibre are well established. Would it not be well for you to plan your time, and your other activities so that you may have the benefit of these meetings, and at the same time lend your influence and presence for the success of the effort?

Eyesight Specialist Coming Monday
 Dr. Dale Rothwell, Pendleton eyesight specialist who is making regular visits to Athena will be at the hotel parlors all day Monday, February 23rd. Have your eyes examined. Dr. Rothwell is known for the best in glasses at reasonable prices.
