

Press Paragraphs

H. M. Fox of Yakima was an Athena visitor Monday.
 George Gross attended the stock show at Union last week.
 Mitchell Tweedy was in Athena Wednesday from Pine Creek.
 Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thompson were week-end visitors in Portland.
 John Hodgen of Umapine was in Athena Wednesday visiting friends.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nelson of Milton are visiting Athena relatives this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Haworth of Salem are spending a few weeks in Athena.
 Claude Irons and Roy DeFreece of Freewater were Sunday visitors in Athena.
 Mr. and Mrs. McPherson motored to Battle Mountain park, near Ukiah, Sunday.
 S. W. Barnes of Phoenix, Arizona, was registered at the Athena Hotel, Monday.
 Mrs. Lila Kirk and son John Kirk, spent last week-end with relatives in Spokane.

A. B. Amey, a salesman was a business visitor in Athena Wednesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. William Bush were Tuesday visitors from Waterman station.
 Mrs. Henry Barrett is entertaining the Athena Bridge club at luncheon today.
 A. L. Swaggart is here from Portland to spend a few days at his farm north of town.
 Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bishop and son of Washougal, Wash., were Athena callers Monday.
 Carolyn Kidder arrived in Athena Friday from Montana, where she has spent several months.
 Mrs. Charlton is over from La Grande, visiting at the home of her son, S. C. Charlton, near Athena.
 Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Hirsch and children of Waitsburg were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Prest-bye.
 Mrs. Clara Hammet, Mrs. Tolt and Mrs. Scott of Walla Walla were Sunday visitors at the L. R. Pinkerton home.
 Miss Mildred Watkins left Monday for Seattle where she will attend the University of Washington summer school.

William Morrison of Pendleton was in Athena on a business mission Wednesday.
 Claude Harris, well known sheepman of Milton was an Athena visitor Wednesday.
 Fred Bruce was in Athena this week coming here from his ranch on the Umatilla River.
 George Winship of the Standard Oil force at Pendleton, spent the fore part of the week in Athena.
 Roland Richards and Jack Moore were Pendleton visitors Wednesday where they transacted business.
 Ira Snook of Baker and Pendleton was a dinner guest Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Richards.
 O. D. Eisminger of the Helix district was a business visitor here yesterday. He was enroute to Walla Walla.
 The Methodist Ladies' society will meet at the country home of Mrs. John Tompkins next Wednesday afternoon.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harve Roseberry left Friday for Portland returning Sunday evening. They attended the Rose Festival.
 Mrs. R. H. Otterson of Seattle, spent the week-end in Athena, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller.
 Mrs. Robert Cutler of Hermiston, visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Leon Miller, and attended the picnic at Weston.
 Miss Agnes Little left Saturday morning for Portland, where she will attend Northwestern Business college for the summer term.
 Ray and Shirley Blalock of Pendleton are visitors this week with their aunt Mrs. L. R. Pinkerton and uncle, Lisle Gray.
 Wayne Pittman left Friday morning for Klamath Falls, where he has employment. His family will remain in Athena for a time.
 J. E. Jones, rural mail carrier is taking his annual vacation, and his son Ray Jones is substituting during his father's absence.
 Kohler Betts who was a delegate from Dolph Ledge, A. F. & A. M., to grand lodge sessions in Portland, returned home Saturday.
 Another heavy rain visited Athena and vicinity yesterday, with the result that the soil has just about all the moisture it can absorb.
 Mrs. Geo. Banister, Mrs. Helen Haynie and daughter arrived in Athena Sunday, after a few weeks spent in Bend and Portland.
 The local churches held their children's day program Sunday, the Christian church at the Sunday school hour and Baptist at the evening hour.
 Mrs. Ethel Hawkins is here from Tacoma, visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pittman. Mrs. Hawkins will return home today.
 Mrs. C. M. Eager spent Saturday in Dayton. Virginia returned home with her after a week spent with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Eager.
 Miss Dena Lieualen has graduated from University of Oregon and returned this week to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lieualen, near Adams.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirk, Frank DeFreece, Mrs. Lowell Harder, Edna DeFreece and James Hodgen attended the Starkey picnic at Emigrant Springs Sunday.
 Students home from University of Oregon for the summer vacation are Miss Lois Johnson, Miss Kathleen Radtke and Fred Radtke; from Whitman, Eldon Myrick.
 E. H. Smith, who has been machinist at the Galaher Garage, has leased the building next door to Harden's pool hall and will conduct a garage and repair shop there.
 Mr. and Mrs. Clason Adams are here from Palo Alto, California, and for some time will be guests at the home of Mrs. Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts.
 Marvin Crawford, who attended Willamette University and Jaunita Crawford, from Eastern Oregon Normal, are home for the summer months with their parents, near Adams.
 Mrs. Lowell Harder of La Grande spent the week-end in Athena with relatives, leaving Monday for Seattle.
 Mrs. W. J. Kirk accompanied her. They will also visit in Portland en route home.
 L. L. Lieualen was reelected to membership on the board of directors of school district 85, Adams, and T. A. Lieualen was reelected clerk of the district, at a meeting held Monday afternoon.
 Miss Dorothy Berlin left Sunday for Seattle, where she will take the summer course at University of Washington. Miss Berlin will teach for the third year in the Roslyn, Wash., high school.
 Rev. Dryden who has supplied at the Baptist church for several weeks, preached his farewell sermon Sunday morning to a large congregation. The pulpit will be filled next Sunday by Rev. C. H. Northup of Lewiston, Idaho.
 Norvel Bradley, former Weston resident now owner of a hotel at Hillsboro, Wisconsin, writes his friend, Chance Rogers, that his section of the country does not appear to be hit so hard by the depression as are the industrial centers of this state. Norvel was here a couple of years ago, renewing acquaintances at Weston and Athena.
 Mrs. Fletcher of Wallowa county, is visiting at the home of her brother, William McPherson, in Athena. Mrs. Fletcher, in company with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller of Lostine are returning from a motortrip to California, and the party were entertained at the McPherson home, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Marion Hansell was confined to his home a couple of days this week with a severe cold.
 Peter Sorensen has given his bachelor quarters a fresh coat of paint and is about ready to "move in for the winter."
 Mrs. Ralph McEwen returned home Tuesday from a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goff, at Newberg.
 Dolph Thompson, merchant postmaster and erst while philosopher was in Athena yesterday from his home at Gibbon.
 John Bloom was in town Wednesday from Reed and Hawley mountain. Mr. Bloom is engaged in hauling wood.
 Ira Scott, prominent farmer of La Crosse was an Athena visitor Wednesday. Mr. Scott also farms land in the Helix district.
 Mrs. William B. Young, wife of Rev. Young, former pastor of the Methodist church in Walla Walla, died at Boise, Idaho, Tuesday.
 The Athena Etude club attended the funeral of Mrs. Ernest Bell in Pendleton, yesterday. Mrs. Bell was a member of the club.
 Billy Pinkerton, having won out over a mustard patch at the ranch west of town, is now all set to go fishing; weather permitting.
 Clarence Ross, rider for the Weston Cattle Association, was over from his Umatilla range and spent Sunday with Jim Chaffin at the Marion Hansell farm, north of Athena.
 Word from Stanley Bush at Port Angeles, Washington, is not encouraging for his early recovery from severe burns suffered recently.
 Walter Fuller who formerly made his home with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Baddeley in this vicinity is here visiting friends and relatives. His present home is in Los Angeles.
 A. L. Foss former resident of Athena, was in town Tuesday visiting old friends. He accompanied his son Austin Foss whose home is now in the Walla Walla valley.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bloom who spent several weeks visiting in Spokane left by motor Tuesday for Berkeley where they will attend the summer sessions at the University of California.
 Cherries slightly damaged by heavy rainfall, but suitable for canning purposes are being offered for sale to Athena housewives by Milton-Freewater fruit vendors at greatly reduced prices.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. E. O. Montague spent Sunday in Walla Walla where they were dinner guests of old friends. There were twelve additional guests all old friends and neighbors of the Montague family.
 J. J. Bennett, former Athena and Weston boy, is visiting friends here and his mother and brother who live on Wild Horse Mountain. Mr. Bennett is accompanied by his wife. They reside at Long Beach.
 Dudley Rogers writes from Creston, B. C., that wheat in that district is just beginning to head, and that a rain up there would do a lot of good. Some fields are beginning to dry up for want of moisture.
 The rains have been a decided help to Athena gardens, both flower plots and vegetables. Some very fine vegetable gardens are to be seen here this year, and early potatoes, heretofore a mediocre crop, are said to be maturing well.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kershaw returned home Thursday of last week, after several days visit in Vancouver and Seaside. The were accompanied home by their daughter Frederica, who has completed her year's teaching in Roseburg.
 With the arrival of favorable weather conditions a demonstration will be made by the new "40" International Track Tractor on the Collins & Bamfield ranch, southwest of Pendleton. Rogers & Goodman are local agents for the tractor.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Duffield entertained in honor of the 19th birthday anniversary of their son Curtis, Wednesday evening, with a dinner. Guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Miller, Goldie and George Miller, Jerry Cutler and Miss Sadie Pambrun.
 Teddy Miller, a real boy genius, has come to the front by installing Athena's first miniature golf course. Teddy has added all kinds of "hazards" to his links and his kid patrons have to resort to scientific strategy in overcoming many of them—and some are never overcome.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Crane (Lenore McNair) visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lew McNair, Wednesday. The visitors were en route from Klamath Falls to Ellensburg, Washington, where they will make their home. Mr. Crane who is an employee of the Standard Oil company has recently been transferred to the Washington city.
 Ernest J. Sias, wife and daughter, Mrs. Wendell Harding and husband of Lincoln, Nebraska, where Monday guests of Mr. Sias and family. Ernest J. Sias is president of the Traction & Flying School of Lincoln, Neb., and with his family is making an extended tour, visiting Yellowstone National park en route. Mr. Sias is a brother of the Reverend Sias of this city.
 F. B. Radtke, Fred Radtke, Herbert Parker and John Rothrock are contemplating a fishing trip to the Deschutes river and lakes in the vicinity of Bend, intending to start Sunday. Herb Parker, assisted by Lisle Gray, invaded the secret sanctuary of a colony of the biggest angle worms ever which have been duly confined in a container and will be presented to Harry Keller, when the party arrives at Bend.
 About 100 members and friends of the Baptist church and Sunday school

SPECIALS FOR NEXT WEEK
STARTING SATURDAY, JUNE 20th

Oysters Fountain brand, 5 oz. cans...2 for 25c	Whipcord Pants Men's all size.....$1.69
Soap Polar White.....10 bars 25c	Cotton 3 lb. Bolts..... each 69c
Amaiza Oil For Salads and Cooking...qt. can 39c	Overalls 220 Denim with bib.....per pair 98c
Mayonnaise Best Foods.....pint jar 33c	Gloves Men's Squaw Gloves.....per pair 98c

Another Shipment Ladies Pajamas and Voile Dresses
$1.95
 Phone 152
ATHENA DEPARTMENT STORE

SAVE with SAFETY
 at your REXALL DRUG STORE

JUNE TOILET GOODS SALE

75c REXALL THEATRICAL COLD CREAM.....	59c
10c EGYPTIAN PALM SOAP, 6 for.....	45c
50c KLENZAN COCOANUT OIL SHAMPOO.....	39c
50c JONTEEL COLD and VANISHING CREAMS.....	39c
$1.50 SHARI COMPACT.....	98c

SPECIAL OFFERS

35c Lavender Shaving Cream FREE with purchase of Lavender SHAVING LOTION $1.00	25c Jonteel Soap FREE with purchase of Jonteel FACE POWDER 50c
CARA NOME CREAMS Regularly $1.00 each Three for $2.00	25c Gentlemen's Talcum with purchase of HARMONY BAY RUM 49c

25c SIZE REXALL MILK OF MAGNESIA TOOTH PASTE FOR 5c

WITH PURCHASE OF ANY ITEM ON THIS SALE THESE ARE ONLY A FEW OF OUR SPECIAL PRICES, EFFECTIVE THE REMAINDER OF JUNE

Main Street WATKINS' PHARMACY Phone 332

The RED & WHITE Store

All Specials This Week
49c

SPECIALS for SATURDAY and MONDAY
 June 20th and 22nd

Red & White Tomato Soup 6 for 49c
Red & White Dills, 2 1/2s 2 for 49c
Blue & White Pink Salmon, 1s 4 for 49c
Crown Sardines, 1/4s 4 for 49c
Red & White Mayonnaise, pints and Red & White Catsup, large 49c
Red & White Orange Marmalade, 16 oz. 2 for 49c
Blue & White Toilet Paper 7 for 49c
Red & White Corn Flakes 6 for 49c
Red & White Red Kidney Beans, 2s 3 for 49c
Blue & White Grape Friut, 2s 3 for 49c
1 Crystal White Granulated, large
1 Crystal White Granulated, 10c
3 Crystal White Bar Soap
1 Palmolive Beads, 10c 49c
Carnation Milk, 16 oz. 6 for 49c

MONTAGUE & CORNELL
 PHONE 171

held their annual picnic at Walla Walla Park Wednesday. The party left Athena at ten o'clock in the morning and at noon enjoyed a splendid lunch. The afternoon was spent playing baseball, tennis and other games and visiting. At four o'clock ice cream and cake were served. In spite of damp weather in Athena the picnicers report a pleasant day in Walla Walla.

The Churches

CHURCH OF CHRIST
 Charles A. Sias, Minister
 The Athena congregation is a unit in itself, with no outside authority or machinery. Congregational government; special plea is for unity of all Christian people, with the New Testament alone as authority and rule of faith and practice; large liberty of opinion. Worship and sermon each Sunday morning and evening. Bible school 10 a. m. Young people meet at 6:30; mid-week devotional and Bible study Wednesday night.
 At the morning service Sunday, Mr. Sias will speak of a people of "The Way"; many have shown an interest in the great "War of Armageddon." This topic will be covered in a discourse in the evening hour, closing up an interesting study of the book of Revelation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kershaw returned home Thursday of last week, after several days visit in Vancouver and Seaside. The were accompanied home by their daughter Frederica, who has completed her year's teaching in Roseburg.
 With the arrival of favorable weather conditions a demonstration will be made by the new "40" International Track Tractor on the Collins & Bamfield ranch, southwest of Pendleton. Rogers & Goodman are local agents for the tractor.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Duffield entertained in honor of the 19th birthday anniversary of their son Curtis, Wednesday evening, with a dinner. Guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Miller, Goldie and George Miller, Jerry Cutler and Miss Sadie Pambrun.
 Teddy Miller, a real boy genius, has come to the front by installing Athena's first miniature golf course. Teddy has added all kinds of "hazards" to his links and his kid patrons have to resort to scientific strategy in overcoming many of them—and some are never overcome.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Crane (Lenore McNair) visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lew McNair, Wednesday. The visitors were en route from Klamath Falls to Ellensburg, Washington, where they will make their home. Mr. Crane who is an employee of the Standard Oil company has recently been transferred to the Washington city.
 Ernest J. Sias, wife and daughter, Mrs. Wendell Harding and husband of Lincoln, Nebraska, where Monday guests of Mr. Sias and family. Ernest J. Sias is president of the Traction & Flying School of Lincoln, Neb., and with his family is making an extended tour, visiting Yellowstone National park en route. Mr. Sias is a brother of the Reverend Sias of this city.
 F. B. Radtke, Fred Radtke, Herbert Parker and John Rothrock are contemplating a fishing trip to the Deschutes river and lakes in the vicinity of Bend, intending to start Sunday. Herb Parker, assisted by Lisle Gray, invaded the secret sanctuary of a colony of the biggest angle worms ever which have been duly confined in a container and will be presented to Harry Keller, when the party arrives at Bend.
 About 100 members and friends of the Baptist church and Sunday school

QUALITY GROCERY
 Phone 561

Van Camps, 14 oz. Catsup 15c	Rosedale Sliced Dried Beef 2 1/2 ounces 20c
Peets Granulated Soap Large Package, 2 for 75c	Royal Club Shrimp No. 1 can 20c
Carstens Lard 8 pound size $1.10	Hot Sauce for seasoning, 8 oz. can 3 for 25c
Carstens Lard 4 pound size 57c	Tea Garden Syrup full gallon, still $1.13
Chloride Lime 2 cans 25c	1 Albers Flapjack Flour 1 Albers Wheat Flakes both for 25c

Quality Grocery
 Frank Little, Prop. Athena, Oregon. Phone 561

VISIT YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

by

UNION PACIFIC STAGES

DAILY SCHEDULES EXCURSION FARES
 Now in effect

Yellowstone... the vacation of a lifetime. Happy, carefree, comfortable way to go... enjoying the scenery at its best from those big, easy-riding Union Pacific Stages.

Or, via Salt Lake City you can visit the world-famous Grand Canyon, Zion, Bryce Canyon National Parks.

Daily service to Butte, Montana now in effect.

Ask Agent for details

Gordon M. Watkins Agent

THE ATHENA MARKET

We carry the best Meat That Money Buys

Kipperd Salmon, all kinds of Salt Fish. Fresh Fish, Oysters, Crabs, Clams, Kraut in Season.
 A. W. LOGSDON
 Main Street Athena, Oregon.

Goodyear Tires and Tubes

Valvoline Oils

Automobile Supplies, Parts and Accessories

Athena Garage
 North side Main Street - - Phone 352