Dr. Hess Fly Spray

Still more important than its killing properties is the ability of Dr. Hess Fly Spray to protect cows from fly torment in the pasture. Cows sprayed with it in the morning are practically free from flies ALL DAY LONG and this means something to the dairyman. It means he can avoid a milk slump at fly time.

On some authority or other an item appeared in The Press last week to the effect that no less a personage than our own J. E. Jones, mountaineer, camper and out door recreationist when he has time to spare, reported a great scarcity of huckleberries in his Blue Mountain haunts. And now it becomes known that Mr. Jones is receiving congratulations over his success as a huckleberry picker when he guided a party to a favorite patch last week-end. How come?
 The Thimble club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. A. Cornell. The quilt upon which the members have been working for several months was finished. At the tea hour the hostess served reasonable refreshments. The following members were present Mrs. Celia Harden, Mrs. Fred Pittman, Mrs. Tom Kirk, Mrs. Stella Keen, Mrs. Lola Payne, Mrs. Louis Keen, Mrs. Ad Pinkerton, Mrs. Ethel Montague, Mrs. Matt Johnson, Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Lee Johnson, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Laurence, Mrs. Henry Booher, Mrs. Mary McKay, Billy Kirk, Clayton Cornell and the hostess, Mrs. Tom Kirk assisted the hostess in serving.
