

Press Paragraphs

Martin Carder spent Saturday in Walla Walla.
Miss Mary Hartle spent the week-end in Pendleton.
Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Watts spent Wednesday in Walla Walla.
Mr. and Mrs. Penn Harris were Walla Walla visitors Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ringel were Walla Walla visitors Tuesday.
Sam Thompson of Pendleton was calling on friends here Tuesday.
Louis Keen is spending the week at Cold Springs and other mountain resorts.
T. P. DeFreece who resides near College Place was a recent Athena visitor.
Hay for Sale—Good Alfalfa hay for sale. Mrs. C. H. Potter, phone 26F13, Athena.
Mrs. Fred Geissel of Portland has been visiting relatives here during the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rogers and daughter Helen, visited friends at Weston, Sunday.
Mrs. Nellie St., Dennis of Weston is improving after a severe attack of stomach trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Lowe and son David, spent the week-end with friends in Seattle.
Mrs. Anna Rothrock plans to occupy her home in the north part of Athena this winter.
Jack Calder is wearing a smile of happiness; his old pal, Chris Thoey is with him again.
The Athena golf course is popular with a number of Milton players, who come to play here.
Mrs. Zeltha McIntyre plans to reside in Walla Walla leaving here the first of next month.
Mr. and Mrs. Vern Dudley have been staying at the E. A. Dudley cottage at Bingham Springs.
Mrs. Fred Pittman recently visited at the home of her brother, Ed Mitchell on Reed and Hawley Mountain.
Mr. and Mrs. Lisle Gray and family have moved into the Hiteman property in the eastern part of the city.
Mrs. Ravella Licuallen has been visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Rae at Walla Walla. George Gross is employed at a Union Oil service station in Pendleton, beginning Monday of this week.
Mrs. Bertha Garrett of La Grande arrived in Athena Tuesday to remain a few days at the J. F. Wilson home.

R. B. McEwen and sons, Ralph, Jr., and Edwin, and Eldon Myrick were Walla Walla visitors Tuesday.
Ella, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crawford has been quite ill this week, but is much improved.
Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Bruce and small grandson came down from their ranch above Gibbon and spent Sunday in Athena.
Miss Billy Wright of Walla Walla arrived here Wednesday to be the guest of Mrs. Penn Harris until Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Alf Johnson came over from Walla Walla Sunday and spent the day at the Al Johnson home in Athena.
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mitchell, who were married last week, are spending the week at the home of Will Potts near Athena.
State tax appraiser Larrabee for the Eastern Oregon district was a business visitor here from Pendleton Tuesday.
Mrs. Henry Dell spent last week-end in Walla Walla visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Armand De Merritt.
Will and Ad Pinkerton who made a search for huckleberries with little success last week made a return trip this week.
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones will attend the rural mail carrier's picnic, an annual affair, at Emigrant Springs, Sunday.
Highway traffic is appreciably on the increase due to the Round-Up, but it does not compare with the volume of former years.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koepke, Jr., and Henry III have returned to their home near Athena after a motor trip to Seattle and Seaside.
The First National Bank of Athena will be closed Saturday on account of the Round-Up and stores and business houses will close.
In company with Herman Hoffman, Wm. McLeod took a pleasure ride in the Blue Mountains Sunday, traversing the scenic Skyline road.
Alistair Meldrum will leave for Payette, Idaho, the last of the week. He has spent the summer in Athena and his home is at Spokane.
Louise Ringel spent Wednesday visiting at the home of Mrs. L. R. Gililand of Weston. She attended the Round-Up yesterday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Miller and two sons are visiting relatives in Seattle this week. They spent several days in Spokane before going to Seattle.
Mrs. Charles Potter has disposed of her cattle to Harry Nulph of Umapine. The herd was moved to the farm of the new owner yesterday.
Mrs. M. L. Watts and Mrs. M. M. Johns motored to Walla Walla Wednesday where they saw Marie Dressler and Polly Moran in "Politics."
Mrs. W. S. Ferguson is spending the week at Nampa where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Horace Belnap. Mrs. Ferguson left here last Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dudley have returned from a two weeks outing at Seaside where they were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Van Dusen of Astoria.
Clarence Hand has gone to Bonners Ferry to work in harvest. He accompanied Charles Kirk, who left Athena last week for his home at Creston, B. C.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. O. Montague and Clarence and Melba Montague motored to Arlington last Saturday night, proceeding to Roosevelt where they spent Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Joyce of Skykomish will arrive Sunday to visit at the home of Mrs. Joyce's sister, Mrs. E. C. Prestbye. The visitors will remain until Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Brower and Mrs. Grant Prestbye left for their home at Kalispell, Montana, Tuesday. The visitors have spent the past week visiting relatives here.
Miss Genevieve Hampton left Tuesday for her home at Genesee, Idaho, after spending several weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton, west of Athena.
All school children of grammar age were admitted free to the Round-Up yesterday. Disabled veterans from the hospital at Walla Walla, were also admitted free.
Mr. and Mrs. Dale Warren of Ellensburg and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Warren of Connell, Wash., were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stanton, Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Watt of Dayton were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cornell in Athena. Mr. Watt is an instructor in the high school at Dayton.
Miss Elsa Ringel is in Pendleton this week, where she is in charge of the culinary department for the ladies of the Episcopal church, in serving meals for Round-Up visitors.
William and Ad Pinkerton returned Saturday from a huckleberry pilgrimage to the Frazier ranch in the Blue Mountains. They found plenty of walking but few berries.
Arthur Stone, one of the editors of the Salem Capital Journal, former Athena boy, was in the city for a short time Tuesday. He will return to Salem after the Round-Up.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott and son Jay, made a trip last week to Corvallis, where they had business. While in Portland they visited Mrs. Retta Potts and Miss Myrtle.
Miss Frederica Kershaw arrived home Tuesday night from Ontario, where she left her grandmother, Mrs. Barbara Willaby about the same. Mrs. Kershaw will return Sunday.
Mrs. A. W. Logsdon enjoyed a visit Sunday with her mother Mrs. Hardy Mansfield of Pendleton. Mrs.

Mansfield who formerly made her home in Athena spent the day here.
Wm. Winship, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Clayton, (Mildred Winship) Miss Audrey Winship and Mrs. James Hawthorn, were in the city yesterday from Salem, visiting relatives and friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Granville Cannon, Charles Williams, Miss Edna Zerba, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckner spent last Sunday picnicking on the Umatilla river.
A party picking huckleberries at Salmon river recently included, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Schubert, Mrs. Ralph Tucker, Miss Ito Schubert and Mrs. J. F. Snider of Weston.
Mrs. William Gordon and daughters have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zerba. Their home is in Vancouver, Washington, where her husband is a United States army senior captain.
Mrs. E. C. Rogers and daughter Helen are in Portland, where they are visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Watts, former residents of Athena and Weston. Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Watts are sisters.
Mr. and Mrs. John V. Milligan are enjoying a weeks outing at Lake Ronan in Montana and at Glacier National Park. They were joined by relatives at Watsburg who accompanied them on the trip.
Mr. and Mrs. William McPherson and Mr. and Mrs. John Standage spent the week-end at Spout Springs, in the Blue Mountains. The men folk were moderately successful in a grouse hunting expedition.
Miss Mildred Watkins, who spent a portion of the summer at the home of her brother, Gordon Watkins in Athena, has left for Centralia, Wash., where she resumed teaching in the public schools of that city.
Announcement is made of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Will B. Campbell at Walla Walla, August 22. The youngster has been named William Casimer and he tilts the scales at six pounds, three ounces.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Anderson of Portland will arrive tonight to spend the week-end at the M. L. Watts home here. The visitors are especially attracted to this part of the country by the Round-Up at Pendleton.
Mr. and Mrs. Jack West are visiting at the home of Mrs. George Banister here. Mr. West is able to be about on crutches following an accident suffered in railroad camp in northern California where he was employed.
Charles Williams accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckner and children on a huckleberrying trip in the Langdon Lake country. Mr. and Mrs. Beckner came down from Washuena, Wash., on their first visit here in several months.
Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Hodgen will return to The Dalles after the Round-Up, having remained in the Athena-Adams neighborhood during the summer. Beryl will be coach and athletic director at The Dalles high school again this year.
Henry Hill left Athena yesterday on a motor trip to Newport. Mr. Hill contemplates driving by way of Eugene and will go north after leaving Newport, to Seaside and Astoria. He contemplates meeting J. W. Smith of Helix at Newport.
Wayne Pinkerton, employe of Rogers & Goodman, attended the Atwater Kent radio convention at Walla Walla, Wednesday. At the meeting the latest models of Atwater Kent receiving sets were on display, and they attracted a great deal of attention.
The Misses Helen Barrett, Arleen Myrick, Dorothy Burke and Marjorie Montague, Athena riders in the cowgirl greeters' troop have been in Pendleton daily this week, participating in the activities of the troop, which numbers between 75 and 100 riders.
Mr. and Mrs. Dick Swift arrived home Tuesday after a three week's visit at Vancouver, B. C. They made the trip by motor and during their absence attended the races. Mrs. Swift's brother has a string of horses which he is now racing at Victoria.
Miss Hilda Dickenson, chief operator of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company at Arlington recently visited relatives here while taking her summer vacation. Miss Dickenson also spent a week with her grand father T. P. DeFreece near College Place.
The 19th birthday anniversary of Miss Mary Tompkins was observed Tuesday, when she was hostess to a dinner party. A splendid birthday cake centered the table. Invited guests were Miss Marjorie Douglas, Mrs. Ralph Singer and Mrs. Willard Crabbill.
The September meeting of the Missionary society of the Christian church will be held next Monday afternoon, August 31, instead of Wednesday of next week, at the home of Mrs. M. M. Johns. This is to permit the attendance of Mrs. Sias, who is leaving on Wednesday.
Mrs. O. M. Castleman is here from Ontario, visiting at the Kershaw home. Mrs. Castleman will remain until after the Round-Up, spending a part of the time in Pendleton with her daughter, Miss Barbara Castleman, who is one of the four attendants of the queen of the Round-Up.
Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts returned the latter part of last week from Portland, where they spent several days. Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Adams, left Sunday morning for their home at Palo Alto, California, after spending a couple of months at the Watts home.
Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pittman have returned to their home on the McArthur place, south of town from Northern California, where Wayne

SPECIALS-----SATURDAY and MONDAY

Bacon Swifts Breakfast, per lb.....23c	Pork & Beans Van Camps Med., 17 ³ / ₄ oz. 2 for....15c
Corn Del Maiz, 3 cans.....39c	Fruit Jar Rubbers and Lids Twin lip rubbers 6 doz.....25c Lids per doz.....25c
Pancake Flour Albers or Sperrys, package.....23c	String Beans Xtra Standard, 3 cans.....35c
Flour White Diamond, per 49 lb. sack...89c	Fruit for Salad Ehrmans Best No. 1 can, each.....19c
A. & L. Pineapple No. 2 1/2s Whole Sliced, 2 for.....39c	Fancy Grapefruit No. 2 cans, 2 for.....35c

Men's Blue Chambray Shirts 49c
Men's Whipcord Pants $1.69

Phone 152

ATHENA DEPARTMENT STORE

SAVE with SAFETY
at your LOCAL DRUG STORE

STAG....

THE ONLY COMPLETE LINE OF TOILET GOODS MADE SOLELY FOR MEN

- Bay Rum Shaving Cream.....35c
- After Shave Powder.....25c
- After Shave Lotion.....75c
- Vegetal Lilac.....$1.00
- Vegetal Royal.....$1.00
- Crystallized Brilliantine.....50c
- Liquid Brilliantine.....50c
- Pom-Pom Hair Lustre.....50c
- Perfumed Hair Oil.....40c and 75c
- Hair and Scalp Tonic.....$1.00

HAS SET A NEW STANDARD OF COMFORT AND GOOD GROOMING FOR MEN EVERYWHERE

—SOLD ONLY AT REXALL STORES—

WATKINS' PHARMACY

Main Street --- Athena --- Phone 332

The RED & WHITE Store

After Harvest Specials

SPECIALS for TODAY and MONDAY August 28 and 31

- Red and White Coffee, 1 lb. tins 38c
- Red and White Baking Powder, 1 lb. 23c
- Red and White Shrimp, 1s 2 for 43c
- Red and White Whole Kernel Golden Bantam Corn 2 for 45c
- Red and White Marshmallows, 1 lb. 29c
- Red and White Sifted Peas, 2s 2 for 43c
- Red and White Catsup 2 for 37c
- Red and White Grape Fruit, 2s 2 for 39c
- Red and White Mayonnaise, pints 25c
- Red and White Sandwich Spread, pints 39c
- Deep Sea Oysters 4 Cans for 39c

MONTAGUE & CORNELL
PHONE 171

Clarence Hand has gone to Bonners Ferry to work in harvest. He accompanied Charles Kirk, who left Athena last week for his home at Creston, B. C.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. O. Montague and Clarence and Melba Montague motored to Arlington last Saturday night, proceeding to Roosevelt where they spent Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Joyce of Skykomish will arrive Sunday to visit at the home of Mrs. Joyce's sister, Mrs. E. C. Prestbye. The visitors will remain until Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Brower and Mrs. Grant Prestbye left for their home at Kalispell, Montana, Tuesday. The visitors have spent the past week visiting relatives here.
Miss Genevieve Hampton left Tuesday for her home at Genesee, Idaho, after spending several weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton, west of Athena.
All school children of grammar age were admitted free to the Round-Up yesterday. Disabled veterans from the hospital at Walla Walla, were also admitted free.
Mr. and Mrs. Dale Warren of Ellensburg and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Warren of Connell, Wash., were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stanton, Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Watt of Dayton were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cornell in Athena. Mr. Watt is an instructor in the high school at Dayton.
Miss Elsa Ringel is in Pendleton this week, where she is in charge of the culinary department for the ladies of the Episcopal church, in serving meals for Round-Up visitors.
William and Ad Pinkerton returned Saturday from a huckleberry pilgrimage to the Frazier ranch in the Blue Mountains. They found plenty of walking but few berries.
Arthur Stone, one of the editors of the Salem Capital Journal, former Athena boy, was in the city for a short time Tuesday. He will return to Salem after the Round-Up.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott and son Jay, made a trip last week to Corvallis, where they had business. While in Portland they visited Mrs. Retta Potts and Miss Myrtle.
Miss Frederica Kershaw arrived home Tuesday night from Ontario, where she left her grandmother, Mrs. Barbara Willaby about the same. Mrs. Kershaw will return Sunday.
Mrs. A. W. Logsdon enjoyed a visit Sunday with her mother Mrs. Hardy Mansfield of Pendleton. Mrs.

has been employed in a railroad construction crew at work on the extension of the Great Northern, south from Klamath Falls into California. He may return there later to work temporarily.
Johnny Robinson and his Varsity Vagabond orchestra furnish music for Happy Canyon this year. Several years ago Johnny and his orchestra appeared in a musical program at the Standard Theatre and played for several dances in the old hall, since torn down and utilized in construction of cabins at Booth's auto camp near City Park.
Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Pinkerton, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Zerba, Gail and Billy Zerba, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McIntyre, and daughters, Wilma and Belva McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton, Garth Pinkerton, Miss Genevieve Hampton and Miss Glea Sias made up a no-host party enjoying supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Flint Johns Sunday evening.
In honor of Wayne Pittman's birthday, Wednesday, Mrs. Pittman arranged a picnic party at Umatilla river and Bingham Springs. Guests were Betty Jane Eager, Arthur Crowley and Donald Pittman. Other members of the Pittman family who celebrate the same date as their natal day are Mrs. Tom Kirk, (Levone Pittman) and Mrs. Fred Pittman.
The members of the Christian church are giving a reception in the church basement next Tuesday evening, in honor of Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Sias. The community in general is invited to meet and wish this worthy couple success in their new field of labor in the Boys' Home at Turner, an institution that is maintained by the church. It is conceded that their place in Athena will be hard to fill and many are expressing keen regret at their departure.

QUALITY GROCERY

Phone 561

Some More Every Day Prices

Seaport Brand Cut Beans No 2 Cans 11c Can	Purex in Quart Bottles 25c
Fancy Grapefruit No 2 Cans 15c Can	Sardines Mustard and Tomato 10c Can
Deep Sea Oysters No. 1 Can 10c Can	Preferred Stock Tuna No. 1/2 Cans 2 for 45c
Crystal White Soap 7 Bars for 25c	Canned Milk Large Size, any kind 7c Can
8 Pad Package S. O. S. Sauce Pan Free, only 25c	Canned Milk Baby Size, any kind, 6 for 22c

Frank Little, Prop. Athena, Oregon. Phone 561

THE ATHENA MARKET

We carry the best
Meat
That Money Buys

Kipperd Salmon, all Kinds of Salt Fish. Fresh Fish, Oysters, Crabs, Clams, Kraut in Season.
A. W. LOGSDON
Main Street Athena, Oregon.

ROUND-TRIP RAIL FARES

CUT TO
about 1c
PER MILE
OVER DAY

Fares apply between points in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Utah (except east of Ogden), Nevada, California, Montana (west of and including Butte and Havre), Wyoming (west of and including Granger), and some points in British Columbia. Minimum adult fare 50 cents. Children half fare.

GOING: SEPT. 3, 4, 5
RETURNING: SEPT. 14
(Home by midnight that date)
Approximate

ROUND TRIP FARES

TO DESTINATIONS	100 MILES	200 MILES	500 MILES	1000 MILES
AWAY	2.16	4.32	10.80	21.60

Baggage checked.

Tickets good on all trains and in all cars. In Standard and Tourist Sleepers, add regular sleeping car charges.

Ask local agent for details

UNION PACIFIC

Goodyear Tires and Tubes

Valvoline Oils

Automobile Supplies, Parts and Accessories

Athena Garage

North side Main Street - - Phone 352