 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koepke, Sr., are expected to arrive from their home at Glendale, California, the end of this week. They are making the trip by motor.
 Penn Harris has been suffering with a painfully injured finger. A large splinter was run under the nail, and though removed immediately caused considerable swelling and pain.

Mrs. Glenn Dudley played in the golf tournament at Walla Walla Tuesday. Yesterday in company with Mrs. E. A. Dudley, she motored to Bingham.
 Lady members of the Pendleton golf club will be hostesses at a tournament on the Pendleton country club course to the lady golf players of the Walla Walla country club October 14. For September 23, La Grande, Walla Walla and Pendleton players will participate in a sweepstakes tournament at Pendleton.
 One of the pillows on display with the Thimble club quilt in the Red and White window was embroidered and made by W. L. Elder who resides with Mrs. Elder at the Laurence Pinkerton ranch near Athena. Mr. Elder conducted a very successful 4-H club of boys when he lived in Portland. Beside excelling in the usual lines this group won prizes over girls groups competing. Mr. Elder would be glad to start a 4-H club in Athena.
 The Thimble Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary McKay. Members spent the afternoon working on a quilt for the hostess, following which refreshments were served. Mrs. McKay was assisted by Mrs. Celia Harden and Mrs. James Huggins. Those present were, Mrs. W. L. Elder, Mrs. John Stanton, Miss Mildred Stanton, Mrs. Charles Henry, Mrs. Chester McCullough, Mrs. William Harden, Mrs. L. A. Cornell, Mrs. Clarence Hand, Mrs. James Huggins, Mrs. Matt Johnson, Mrs. A. D. Pinkerton, and Mrs. C. E. O. Montague.
 Mrs. Henry Gissel who left last week for her home in Brooklyn, New York, was honored Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. B. Foster near Athena. A group of friends spent the afternoon informally and at the tea hour the hostess assisted by her daughter Arlene served ices and cake. Those present were Mrs. Gissel, Mrs. Charles Betts, Mrs. Kohler Betts, Mrs. Arthur Coppock, Mrs. Clarence Tubbs, Mrs. Frank Williams, Jeannie Williams, Mrs. Fred Pittman, Arlene Foster and the hostess.
 Miss Wilma McIntyre and Mary Lou Hansell were gracious hostesses Friday afternoon of last week when they entertained nineteen of their young friends at a "dress-up tea," at the Hansell home. The young ladies came attired in the apparel of their elders, and many and varied were the grown-up togs displayed. Owing to the rather embarrassing length of the gowns and the height of the shoe heels, entertainment was provided in distinctly sedate and decorous games, and dainty refreshments were served. Miss Marjorie Wilkes received the prize for the best costume.
 The recent wedding of Miss Marjorie Wilson and Wilburn Kayser was the incentive for a shower given as a surprise for the young couple, a group of friends invading the Kayser home last evening laden with gifts. After the bride had recovered from her surprise and packages had been opened the evening was spent playing progressive games. Dainty ices and cakes accenting a color scheme of pink and green were served at small tables centered with pink tapers in green holders. Other table appointments and favors were in the same shades. Mrs. Penn Harris, Mrs. Charles Wilson and Mrs. Elmer Stockstill who were responsible for the affair included the following in their guest list Alberta Charlton, Mrs. Bryce Baker, Mrs. Donald Johnson, Emma Ringel, Frances Cannon, Evelyn and Eunice Greer of Weston, Mrs. M. I. Miller, Ora Burke, Dorothy Burke, Thelma Schrimpf, Edna DeFreece, Phyllis Dickenson, Bernice Wilson, Marjorie Montague, Virgie Moore, Mrs. Will Kirk, Mrs. E. E. Tate of Pendleton, Sadie Pambrun, Mrs. Robert Cutler of Neskowin, Helen Foster and Mrs. Gerald Kilgore.
