

Press Paragraphs

"Second Childhood" Auditorium, again tonight. Mrs. James Cresswell and Mrs. Lew McNair were in Walla Walla Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. James Bell are spending several days visiting friends at The Dalles. Oral Michener is forced to use crutches in order to protect a badly infected foot. Mrs. Fred Pinkerton and Mrs. Marion Hansell spent Tuesday in Walla Walla. Ben Butler of Portland has been a house guest at the home of his aunt Mrs. H. I. Watts this week. Mr. Butler contemplates spending the winter in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Eager and daughters Betty and Virginia were Milton visitors Sunday. Doris Jenkins has been out of school this week and has been ill with a painful case of tonsillitis. George Gerking returned yesterday morning from a short business trip to Long Beach, California. Miss Marguerite Hereford came over from Weston and spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Kohler Betts. John Standage and J. V. Milligan were out after the elusive wild duck just after the noon hour, Monday. Dr. Geyer and Miss Jessie Lasaiter were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Prestbye. Mr. and Mrs. Venable and family are moving to Helix where Mr. Venable has found employment in the mill. Mrs. Frank Little, Mrs. W. J. Crabbill, Mrs. Ralph Singer and Mrs. L.

A. Cornell were Tuesday visitors in Pendleton. Attorney Watts has returned from Canyon City, Grant county where he attended to legal matters in circuit court. Mrs. Theresa Berlin and daughter Mary will leave the first of the week for Walla Walla where they will make their home. Miss Frederica Kershaw is planning to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kershaw here. Herbert C. Gregg, former Walla Walla resident, died at Seaside and funeral services were held at Walla Walla, Tuesday. F. R. Egee, of Los Animas, Colorado, has arrived in Athena and is at the Ben Bateman home for a visit of indefinite length. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mays arrived Wednesday night by motor from Portland and are visiting at the H. A. Barrett home here. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Foss came over from their farm home near Freewater and spent Sunday at the W. J. Gholson home in Athena. Mrs. Lilla Kirk was hostess to Mrs. Jennie Proebstel and Mrs. W. McPherson at an afternoon luncheon at Walla Walla Wednesday. John Murray, district manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company paid a business call to the local exchange Wednesday. Mrs. Bruno Weber, Mrs. J. E. Jones and Mrs. Fred Pittman were in Weston Wednesday afternoon where they attended the Thimble club. Mrs. Anna Stine of Spokane has been visiting her sisters Mrs. Margaret Banister and Mrs. Amanda McArthur in Athena this week. Mrs. Huldah McKinney who has been visiting relatives at Walla Walla, was brought home Sunday by her daughter, Mrs. Frank Little. Spend another fruitful evening by attending the school play, "Second Childhood," again tonight. Admission only 25 cents, children free. Rev. J. M. Cornelison of Pendleton, well known missionary worker, is ill in a Rochester, New York, hospital recovering from a major operation. Mrs. W. S. Ferguson is in Nampa, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Horace Belnap. Mrs. Ferguson will be away until after the Thanksgiving holidays. Rev. and Mrs. T. A. Graham, parents of Mrs. Gordon Watkins, will arrive in Athena today to remain until after Thanksgiving at the Watkins home. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller will leave for Portland in a few days, where they will remain for the winter, returning in the spring to their Athena home. Lieutenant Commander Gale Poindester, nephew of Mrs. Sabina Morton of Athena and California, has recently been appointed aide to President Hoover. Mrs. Louis Keen will spend Thanksgiving at the home of her sister Mrs. J. F. Haines at Enumclaw, Washington. Mrs. Keen plans to be away about ten days. Henry and Wilford Miller opened the side of the Post building west of the telephone exchange, outmarted a hive of bees and secured several pounds of honey. Colonel J. H. Raley, having the distinction of being the oldest living member of Pendleton Masonic lodge, has been presented a 50-year service emblem by the lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Archie McIntyre and family are moving to their ranch home. Their residence on South Third street will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. John Milligan. Interest in golfing was revived on the local course Sunday due to fair weather, with the result that a number of players were on the links for the greater part of the day. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pinkerton entertained at dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Frazier and daughter Celeste of Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pinkerton and family. Mrs. Harvey Roseberry is suffering from weakness due to a severe nasal hemorrhage Tuesday afternoon. Only after extreme measures had been taken was the bleeding stopped. Miss Florence Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ross of Thorn Hollow, has recently left a Portland hospital, and is convalescing at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Brouillard, in that city. Miss Hilda Dickenson will arrive today to spend the week-end with relatives. Miss Dickenson who is enjoying a week's vacation has divided her time between Portland, Baker and Athena. Charles Williams left the fore part of the week for Newport where he will probably spend the winter. Mr. Williams spent a portion of last winter in that beach town and liked it very much. Fred McKinley has returned to Athena from Spokane and joined his father and brother here. Fred attended high school here last year and in a couple of weeks will enter school at Cheney Normal. Mr. and Mrs. Armond DeMerritt visited a few days in Athena this week from Walla Walla, leaving this morning for Portland for a visit over Thanksgiving. Their son Dell will remain in Athena. Local football fans are much interested in the outcome of the Whitman-Willamette game to be played on the Whitman gridiron, Thanksgiving Day. The boys over here are pulling for Borleske's team to win. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Schultz (Thena Russell) of Harrington, Washington, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter, November 7, at Davenport, Washington. The young lady has been named Virginia Dorelors and at her birth weighed 10 pounds.

Word has been received from friends at Creston, B. C., that so far no extremely cold weather has been experienced in the vicinity. Heavy rains and snow flurries, with cold winds have been experienced. Mrs. Claude Dickenson complimented her sister Mrs. Henry Knight at a birthday dinner last Sunday. Additional guests were Sims Dickenson, Henry Knight, Claude Dickenson and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Harden. Athena has been asked to contribute a number to the program at the annual band concert to be given in Waitsburg in February. Other adjacent towns are also asked to assist in making the affair its usual success. Mr. and Mrs. Justin Harwood and Mrs. Lloyd Michener were Waitsburg visitors Sunday. The Harwoods were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hirsch and Mrs. Michener visited the family of her cousin Harvey Burker. Miss Inez McClure was hostess at a buffet supper at her home in Pendleton Saturday night. Bridge and dancing entertained the guests. Athena guests motoring down for the affair included Helen Hansell, Kathleen Radtke, Norman McIntyre and Leonard Geissel. Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell arrived by motor from Portland for a brief visit at the A. L. McEwen home northwest of Athena. Mrs. McEwen and Mrs. Mitchell are sisters. The visitors will also spend a short time in Walla Walla and will be accompanied to Portland by Mrs. Mitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCool who will spend the winter in the metropolis. The Loyal Gleaners class of the Christian church entertained with a party in the church parlors Wednesday night. Fall flowers were used as decoration. Many clever and interesting games were arranged for the amusement of the guests. Sandwiches, pickles, cakes and coffee were served from a prettily appointed table centered with a cluster of orchid chrysanthemums and tall pink tapers in silver holders. An interesting aid to artists and home decorators was demonstrated by Mrs. L. A. Cornell at the Quality Grocery Saturday. Japanese oil paints of various colors added to water forms a mixture into which scarfs, mats, candles and many kinds of fancy work may be dipped, the result being beautiful and artistic. Winter bouquets are other items made easily and effectively with the new compound. Colors are fast and articles dyed may be washed or cleaned without fear of fading. Mrs. Clarence Zerba entertained the members of the Baptist Missionary Society Wednesday afternoon at her home west of Athena. About twenty were present. An interesting talk on the history and proceeds from the sale of Christmas seals was given by Mrs. Stewart of the high school. Mrs. Granville Cannon had charge of the lesson which dealt with Burma. Mrs. Ross Payne and Mrs. Clarence Zerba sang a duet. Mrs. Charles McFarland and Mrs. Anderson served refreshments.

The Athena Bridge club was charmingly entertained last Friday night at the home of Mrs. M. L. Watts. Rosebuds and snap dragons were used about the rooms where four tables were in play. In addition to members Miss Helen Hansell and Mrs. Fred Pinkerton were guests, Miss Hansell receiving an attractive guest prize. Mrs. Henry Dell made high club score and Mrs. C. M. Eager second. The club is meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. B. Richards. Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Miller were hosts Tuesday night to the Kilkare Pinochle club when members and guests made up four tables. Clusters of chrysanthemums made effective decoration about the rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Pinkerton were additional guests. Mrs. Lee Johnson and Dick Swift received awards for high score and Mrs. Ross Catron and Harvey Roseberry received the consolation prizes. After the game the hostess served delicious salad cakes and coffee. A delightful afternoon was spent Thursday of last week by members and guests of the 3 o' 4 club when they were entertained at the home of Mrs. Max Hopper on South Third street. The hostess decorated her rooms with clusters of autumn flowers and served refreshments following the game. The guests were Mrs. Lloyd Michener, Mrs. C. M. Eager, Mrs. F. S. LeGrow, Mrs. W. S. Ferguson and Mrs. A. H. McIntyre. Mrs. Eager won high guest score, Mrs. M. I. Miller high club score and the consolation award was presented to Mrs. Gordon Watkins.

Northwest portion of the state, Home of James Fenimore Cooper, and Niagara Falls, were interestingly reviewed by Mrs. E. C. Rogers. The next meeting was postponed from November 27 to December 1st, and will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Pinkerton. Three principle cities of the East will be reviewed as follows: Philadelphia by Mrs. F. B. Radtke, Baltimore by Mrs. Stella Keen, and Washington by Mrs. Marion Hansell. Roll call will be answered with current events at the National Capitol. Preceding the program, Mrs. Boyd read a short history of the work of the Health Seal movement.

The Triple Link club met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Harvey Roseberry. A short business session was held and the remainder of the evening was spent working on quilt blocks. Ten members were present. The club was organized primarily for work and refreshments are "taboo." However, the hostess served pop corn to the busy workers. Seventeen members of the O. D. O. club were entertained at the home of Mrs. A. A. McIntyre Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. A. W. Logsdon, and Mrs. Wade LeRoy of Tacoma were guests for the meeting. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess at the tea hour. The club is social, and needlework and chat were the diversions. Mrs. Claude Dickenson will entertain the club Tuesday, November 24 at her home northwest of Athena. Miss Frances Bateman soon to be the bride of Edwin Anderson of Billings, Montana, was complimented with a shower last Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bateman. The affair came as a complete surprise to the honoree and the guest

SPECIALS.....SATURDAY and MONDAY

Kraut Hillsdale, 2 1/2s, 2 cans.....25c	Corn Standard Brand, 2s, 3 for.....35c
Peaches Yellow Cling, 2 1/2s, 2 for.....38c	Soap Polar White, 10 bars.....25c
Kadota Figs Put up in Wine, 2 for.....25c	Spinach Fresh and Green, 5 lbs.....9c
Head Lettuce Solid and Crisp, 3 for.....10c	Grape Fruit Good Size, 3 for.....21c

Munsing $1.95 Silk Chiffon Hose

Clean-up Price

98c

Phone 152

ATHENA DEPARTMENT STORE

SAVE with SAFETY
at your Rexall DRUG STORE

Special!

50c Bottle of Vapure

The wonderful inhalant for Head Colds—With 100 Puretest Aspirin Tablets

All for
69c

This Is National Kantleek Week

National Kantleek Week celebrates a new era in the making of rubber goods for household use. Ten thousand Rexall Stores offer for your inspection the latest developments of Kantleek craftsmanship. New pastel tints in soft velvety rubber — new prices — two-year guarantee. Don't miss this opportunity. See this complete new line at the Rexall Store today. Watkins Pharmacy.

WATKINS' PHARMACY

Main Street The Rexall Store Phone 332

The RED & WHITE Store

Thanksgiving Sale

Beginning Saturday, November 21st. and Continuing until Thanksgiving

Pumpkin, Red and White, 2 1/2s
2 for 25c

Mince-meat, Kerrs
2 lbs. for 33c

Mayonnaise, Red and White, pints
28c

Marshmallows, Red and White, 1 lbs.
25c

Oysters, Red and White, 1 lb.
2 for 39c

Oysters, Blue and White, 1s
2 for 25c

Shrimp, Red and White
2 for 45c

Shrimp, Blue and White
2 for 35c

Coffee, Red and White, 1 lb. tin
38c

Citron Peel, Extra Fancy, pound
39c

Orange Peel, 1/2 lb.
17c

Lemon Peel, 1/2 lb.
17c

Ginger Ale—Canada Dry
Three 12 oz. for 57c

Ginger Ale—Canada Dry
Two 28 oz. for 57c

Marmalade, Red and White, 16 oz. glass
2 for 49c

Oyster Cocktail Sauce, C. H. B. 10 oz.
23c

Walnuts, Fancy, Large, Oregon
3 lbs. for 89c

Hams, Sugar cured, half or whole
24c

Seeded Raisins Puffed Sun Maid, 15 oz.
2 for 25c

Dates
2 lbs. for 25c

Currants, 15 oz. package
19c

MONTAGUE & ROSEBERRY
PHONE 171

Society and Clubs

A regular session of Mignonette Rebekah lodge No. 86 was held Tuesday evening. The nominating committee filed their report, officers for the coming six months being named as follows: Lois Smith, Noble Grand; Lucille Johnston, vice grand; Velma Schubert, financial secretary; Ada Montague recording secretary.

McKenzie Chapter, O. E. S. met Wednesday evening when a social hour was enjoyed, bridge being played. Mrs. B. B. Richards received an award for high score. Mrs. Ralph McEwen second, and Mrs. Frank Little consolation. Mrs. Henry Barrett, Mrs. James Cresswell and Miss Helen Hansell served delicious refreshments using a pink and green color scheme.

The Triple Link club met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Harvey Roseberry. A short business session was held and the remainder of the evening was spent working on quilt blocks. Ten members were present. The club was organized primarily for work and refreshments are "taboo." However, the hostess served pop corn to the busy workers.

Seventeen members of the O. D. O. club were entertained at the home of Mrs. A. A. McIntyre Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. A. W. Logsdon, and Mrs. Wade LeRoy of Tacoma were guests for the meeting. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess at the tea hour. The club is social, and needlework and chat were the diversions. Mrs. Claude Dickenson will entertain the club Tuesday, November 24 at her home northwest of Athena.

Miss Frances Bateman soon to be the bride of Edwin Anderson of Billings, Montana, was complimented with a shower last Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bateman. The affair came as a complete surprise to the honoree and the guest list included 20 friends. The gifts were presented in an inverted parasol, suggestive of a strictly dry shower. Seasonable refreshments of pumpkin pie and confections were served by the hostess.

The Athena Bridge club was charmingly entertained last Friday night at the home of Mrs. M. L. Watts. Rosebuds and snap dragons were used about the rooms where four tables were in play. In addition to members Miss Helen Hansell and Mrs. Fred Pinkerton were guests, Miss Hansell receiving an attractive guest prize. Mrs. Henry Dell made high club score and Mrs. C. M. Eager second. The club is meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. B. Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brace entertained the Athena Pinochle club Wednesday night at their home at Thorn Hollow. Members and guests sufficient for five tables were present and results of the evenings play were as follows: high club score, Mrs. Will Campbell, and Jesse Smith and Clarence Ross; guest prize, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Remillard. Additional guests were Miss Anita Carstens and Harry Groves. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Remillard. The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Remillard. Mrs. Ed Montague will be honor guest in commemoration of her birthday.

Mrs. Stella Keen was hostess to the Study club last Friday afternoon at her home, when eight members were present. Roll call was answered with authors who were mentioned in the lesson, which dealt with New York state. Mrs. J. W. Pinkerton gave a comprehensive talk on "Around the Hudson, West Point, Tarrytown and Irving Haunts." The

Kansas City Life Insurance Company

"The Insured Home is the Secured Home"
If you and your family are not fully insured better consult
JOHN V. MILLIGAN
Local Agent

QUALITY GROCERY

Hills Brothers COFFEE
Red Can
1 lb. can 40c

Hills Brothers COFFEE
Red Can
2 lb. can 80c

Hills Brothers COFFEE
Red Can
4 lb. can $1.58

Hersheys COCOA
1/2 lb. can 25c

Hersheys COCOA
1 lb. can 29c

Happy Home Top Grade PEAS, CORN and BEANS
20c

Market Day Special RAISINS
4 lb. bag 35c

Ghiradelli GROUND CHOCOLATE
1 lb. can 40c

Ghiradelli GROUND CHOCOLATE
3 lb. can $1.15

Carstens, 6 to 8 lbs BACON
Now 23c per lb.

Carstens, 8 to 10 lbs. BACON
Now 22c per lb.

Carstens LARD
8 lb. pail $1.00

Carstens LARD
4 lb. Glassine Package
46c

Swansdown CAKE FLOUR
Large Size
32c

Frank Little, Prop. Athena, Oregon. Phone 561

Farmers Grain Elevator Company

Grian and Feed
SPECIAL

A Full Line of Sperry's Chick Feed

Phone 382 LEE WILSON, M'gr.

Goodyear Tires and Tubes

Valvoline Oils

Automobile Supplies,
Parts and Accessories

Athena Garage

North side Main Street - - Phone 352