

Two Road Meetings Necessary

The State Tax Commission has made a ruling that two meetings of the taxpayers must be held to levy a special road tax.

At the first meeting, called in a manner designated by Section 6384, Lord's Oregon Laws, or Section 6321, as amended in Chapter 361 Laws of 1913, action should be taken for the preparation of the budget or estimate of expenses, and the meeting can designate the road supervisor or some other qualified person to attend to the work. Provision should be made for publication of the budget as required by law.

The second meeting should be called in the same manner as the first to be held at the time and place designated in connection with the budget as published, says the commission. At the second meeting, the budget or estimates are to be finally passed upon, and the tax levy is to be made.

Chapter 159, Laws of 1915, has no bearing on the proceedings, except as it would be necessary to publish or it would be necessary to publish or post notices for thirty days in the event of a purpose to levy a tax exceeding by more than 6 per cent the larger amount levied in either of the last preceding years when levies were made, says the commission.

Notice to Taxpayers

You are hereby notified that second half payment of your tax will be due on or before September 30, 1915. Beginning October 1, 1915, said tax will become delinquent, and a penalty of 10 per cent and interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum will be added until paid.

Where no part of the tax has been paid, a penalty of 1 per cent per month for each calendar month, or fraction thereof cumulates during the period, beginning April 1, 1915, and ending August 31, 1915. On September 1, 1915, a penalty of 10 per cent replaces the cumulative penalty heretofore charged, and further interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from September 1, 1915, is added.

On or as soon as practicable after October 5, 1915, the tax collector shall proceed to collect all taxes upon personal property, which shall not have been paid before said October 5, 1915, together with penalty and interest, and shall levy on and take said personal property into his possession, or so much thereof as to satisfy said tax, and sell the same at public auction . . . or he may charge the tax on personal property against real property . . . and said tax shall be a lien on said real property, and shall be enforced in the same manner as other real estate tax liens.

The above statement is in accordance with Chapter 283, Laws of 1915, and Sections 3682, 3683 and 3687, Chapter 184, Laws of 1913.
