

LOCAL NEWS

Attorney S. B. Lawrence of Raleigh was a business visitor in Beaverton last Thursday afternoon.

Chas. W. Gilbert, just arrived from a visit with his parents at Billings, Okla., is visiting his brother, L. L., in this city.

Mrs. Mary Jane Henry, mother of W. J. Henry, who resides out on Rout 4, died last Wednesday. Interment was made on Friday in Cooper Mountain cemetery.

H. G. Vincent, wife and daughter returned Sunday from an all-week stay at the state fair. Mr. Vincent reports a splendid fair this year—fine exhibits of all kinds and large attendance.

Louis Hughson and Neise Dyrness went out Sunday to chase the festive Chinas, and report a very fine day of sport. Each bagged the limit, but it required all day, excepting that they stopped long enough to cook a couple for their mid-day meal.

Messrs. Beedle and Waite of Portland have purchased of R. L. Tucker, his stock of lumber, paints and other building materials, Mr. Tucker retaining the real property. The deal was closed last week, the new proprietors taking charge the first. Mr. Tucker will remain in Beaverton for some time.

The opening of the bird season last Friday was observed by many Beaverton sports. Among those going out the first day were: James Rowe, Carl Desinger, Harrison Hughson, John Hoover, I. A. Thomas and many others whose names we cannot just recall. Most all returned with one to five Chinas to his credit. Some few perhaps didn't get any.
