WOULD YOUR SKIN STAND THIS TEST?
The bright lights of an evening gathering show up mercifully the defects of a poor complexion. But the regular use of Resinol Soap makes it as easy to have a naturally beautiful skin as to cover up a poor one with cosmetics. It lessens the tendency to pimples, redness and roughness, and in a very short time the complexion usually becomes clear, fresh and velvety.

In severe or stubborn cases, Resinol Soap should be aided by a little Resinol Ointment. All druggists sell them.

All-Oregon Historical Pageant Commencement Week Feature

University of Oregon, Eugene—An all-Oregon historical pageant, in which each of the 35 counties will be represented by a "Daughter of Oregon," will be presented at the State university during commencement week, early in June.

The pageant has just been approved by the board of regents and will be presented before final examinations so that the participation of a great portion of the student body may be possible.

The pageant will depict the progress of Oregon. The first representation will show the state as it was in its original primeval condition, prior to the coming even of the Indian. Then the epoch of Indian domination will be depicted, then the coming of the white man, then the days of the immigration, then the gold days, and finally the realization of the present with a glimpse into the future. The pageant will be in five scenes, presided over by "Mother Oregon." In the last scene the 35 "Daughters of Oregon" will bring gifts symbolic of the industries of each county.

The pageant is to be not merely a University affair. Contribution of lyrics for the various choruses is invited from the state at large, and any suggestion for the five scenes will be appreciated. A large state attendance is looked for. Persons desiring to make suggestions for the pageant should communicate with Dr. E. S. Bates, professor of English and author of the scenario, University of Oregon, Eugene.

State Joins Fight on Federal Control of Vacant Public Lands

Salem—With other Western states, Oregon will join with Utah in the battle to determine whether the Federal government has exclusive control over vacant public lands in the Western states.

Believing that the case now on appeal from Utah to the United States Supreme court, in which the Beaver River Power company is enjoined from operating a hydro-electric plant on lands in the Federal forest reserve, is of vital interest to Oregon, Governor Withycombe has requested Attorney General Brown to appear in Washington, D. C., as a friend of the court, and give Oregon's attitude in the question of government control of water power resources on Federal lands.

Utah was the first to intervene, and since then Idaho, Colorado and a number of other Western states have decided to be represented.

The question involved in the case, according to officials here, is whether the laws of a state regulating the appropriation and use of water within its boundaries are controlling and exclusive of any other control.

Will Drain 60,000 Acres in Fertile Long Tom District

Eugene—A meeting of business men and landowners has launched plans for the drainage of between 60,000 and 70,000 acres in the Long Tom district at an estimated expense of $280,000. About 20,000 acres of this land is in Lane county, the rest being in Linn and Benton counties.

The commercial club at a recent meeting pledged its support to the project and will, it has been announced, give $1000 toward getting the work under way, provided the majority of the landowners vote to create a drainage district as authorized by the Oregon law, within which assessments may be levied. The district will be authorized to issue bonds.

This project has been proposed a number of times by individuals, but the action of the club, co-operating with landowners, is the first organized movement to accomplish the drainage of this land, which is almost worthless because it is covered with water a great part of the time, but which would be among the most valuable farm land in the state if the water was eliminated.

Red Boy Mine Is Sold

Baker—H. A. Sonne, cashier of the Baker Loan & Trust company has announced upon his return from Canyon City that he bid in for $34,500 the property of the Red Boy Mines company at a sheriff's sale for the bank, holder of a trust mortgage securing a $137,900 bond issue. The sale was effected by canceling a large part of the bond issue, at considerable below par.

Judgment given by the Grant county Circuit court, on which the sale was based, was $171,836.98, together with $5000 attorney's fees, to be divided between Clifford & Correll, of Baker, and William Jackson of Chicago, $23 costs and $500 for trustees' fees.

More Hops Are Sold

Salem—Reports this week were that the Oregon Hopgrowers' association had sold 8000 bales of its holdings to Louis Lechmud for an average price of 12 cents, but association officers refused to confirm the amount. They admitted, however, the sale of a large block. M. L. Jones, president, said another large deal was pending. Prediction that the hop market would see a slump before long was made by Mr. Horst, who declared that the large stock on the Pacific Coast yet unsold did not justify high values.

Reaction in Wheat Market Feared.

The recent swift upward movement in the wheat markets of the United States is causing grain men at Portland to proceed with caution. They are asking whether or not the top has been reached. Sooner or later the high limit is going to be attained and the turning point will come without warning. It is true that prices are 30 cents cheaper in the local market than they were one year ago, but it is just about a year ago that the crest of the 1914-15 market was reached, and a slump disastrous to many set in. While there may or may not be a permanent check to the rise, a reaction, at any rate, is looked for, and for that reason there has not been the keenness to buy this week that was witnessed in the preceding week. It is also this uncertainty that is causing millers to refrain from advancing flour prices at this time.

Country wheat bids were unchanged, but at the local exchange offers were raised from 1/2 to 1 1/2 cents. Coarse grains were about steady.

Bradstreet estimates the world's visible wheat increase at 960,000 bushels, the corn increase at 1,172,000 bushels, and the oats increase at 979,000 bushels.

The European visible wheat supply is 79,840,000 bushels, an increase of 3,456,000 bushels for the week; a year ago it was 72,800,000 bushels, a decrease of 4,400,000 bushels.

Boom in Hop Trade.

A buying movement of unusually large proportions has struck the Pacific Coast hop market. In the three states trading has become extremely active and prices are on a firmer basis than any time this year. A large part of the buying appears to be for export account. There are also indications of urgent short covering. That some of the purchases represent new business with Eastern brewers is also certain.

Hop men are at a loss to explain the sudden boom in trade. It may be partly in consequence of the clearing off of pooled hops from the market, but it is more than likely that the demand for association hops is an effect rather than a cause of the flurry. A place abroad for a large quantity of American hops has evidently been found. Whether the stocking up is in anticipation of a small foreign crop or is to avoid the import duty that England is likely to impose is not clear.

At any rate, the buying has become urgent and supplies in the hands of Coast growers are sharply reduced. Oregon holdings in first hands, outside the association, are now estimated at 10,500 bales.

Grant to Use Stock Tax.

Baker—For the first time since the state law was passed allowing counties to tax stock from other counties summering within their own boundaries, Grant county is taking advantage of the new law and has employed George H. Cattanch and J. M. Blank to gather data from the forestry office, to enable it to collect the amounts due. It is thought that the entire sum will run well into the thousands. Collections will be made from Baker, Harney, Morrow, Gilliam, Crook, Umatilla, Wheeler and Malheur.

Opportunities of the Horse Breeder in the Northwest.

About the professional horse breeder I shall have little to say. He is abundantly able to take care of himself and, if he is as foresighted as he should be, he will profit by the impending conditions which will soon make horse breeding one of the most profitable phases of animal husbandry in this country.

Henry Ford and the European war conditions have completely changed the aspect of the horse business in this country—the first by putting the poor horse out of business and the second by practically cleaning the country of the lighter and less useful farm horses and both in causing conditions which make for the advantage of the drafter.

More than any other country the United States is a user of agricultural machinery and, as our machines have become heavier and more complicated we have suffered from lack of farm power. Motors will not supply this lack as they are yet too expensive both in cost and operation and they do not supply the mobility of power afforded by the horse and needed by the farmer.

The reason for this lack of power is not far to seek. It has been the long continued and almost universal practice of farmers to breed their mares for the nearest stallion regardless of breed or type but, all the time, very regardless of the size of the service fee. Too often the farmer will breed his mares to a Percheron one year, a Clyde or a Shire the next and then to a standard bred, a Morgan or a grade the next with the result that he has all kinds and types of horses on his farm at the same time.

The raising of pure bred draft horses on the farm should now offer greater opportunities than ever before. I mention the drafter particularly because he is the only kind for the farmer and his market for his surplus animals.

Never breed a mare to a stallion that is not of her own breed and never, under any circumstances, use a stallion that is not better than the mare. Good draft horses are just as essential as good seed or good machinery and the foals from pure bred parents are worth at least double any other kind. And then feed. Draft horses cannot be made without feed. Push the colt from three weeks to three years, give him plenty of open air and exercise, and he will pay you as well as anything on the farm.—I. D. Hraham, in Rural Spirit.
