Mrs. Fred Stricker will join her husband in Shaniko shortly where they will make their future home.

The Beaverton Band boys will give another of their excellent dances in Morse hall on Saturday night.

WANTED—$2000 at 7 per cent first class real estate security. Enquire Times office. 341

The following is taken from the Hillsboro Daily and will probably be of interest to numerous Beaverton people.

Reserved seats for coming Commercial Club benefit on sale at Bank, Hardware store, and Beaverton Times office.

The Beaverton Fire boys are planning a high dance and basket social on Saturday night May 6.

Fergusons have installed a drinking fountain in their store which will give the thirsty traveler a fine drink of ice cold water.

Mrs. E. H. Helmsback, who has resided in a small farm south of town left Wednesday for Toledo, Ohio, where she will join her husband. They will make their future home at that place.

W. A. Jack of Hillsboro and Robt. Simpson, of Buxton, left this morning for Tandy, Idaho, where they have interests in some copper mining claims. They will be gone all summer and work their claims.

We invite correspondents to write up and send in their news. If the same is not printed it is through no fault of the printers but rather, due to the rather congested conditions of our columns, so do not feel put out if your contribution is not used.

W. G. Skiles is in receipt of three pieces of sandstone which aggregate about 9000 pounds. All you and I would care to lift at least.

We are informed that Mr. Keeler Emmons has taken a position at St. Joe where he will operate a donkey engine for the Southern Pacific. Mrs. Emmons is preparing to join him. Mr. Earl Vaughn is now filling his position at the Union Station for the present.

A large delegation of Beavertonites, members of the local Chamber of Commerce were visitors at a smoker given by the Hillsboro Commercial Club. They report a large crowd present, and are loud in their praise of Hillsboro hospitality. This meeting was the first step in the direction of co-operation between the different commercial organizations over the county. Several of the Beaverton men spoke upon the get together spirit and strongly advocated a county organization.

The third regular meeting of Beaver Council, Knights and Ladies of Security, was held Tuesday night at Cady Hall. The famous degree team of Kirkpatrick Council Portland, together with the officers of that council, came out and put on the recent work in form, after which a splendid luncheon was served in the banquet room. The team was highly appreciative of the good time shown, while the members of Beaver Council are loud in their praise of the excellent exemplification of the secret work. Kirkpatrick degree team will go to Detroit, Mich., in June to compete for the world's prize, and it is not improbable they will bring the honors home to Portland. There were present about fifty visitors, forty being from the Portland chapter and ten from the one at Forest Grove.

AROUND THE COURT HOUSE

Interesting Items Gleaned From the Court Records.

In the case of C. R. Taunton vs. M. S. Taunton, the plaintiff has filed suit for divorce on the grounds of desertion. The plaintiff asks that the marriage contract be annulled and that she be allowed the custody of the minor children. There are three children in the family of which two are minors.

The State of Oregon vs. Claude Groves. The defendant is alleged to have stolen a cow from J. W. Passmore. When haled before Justice of the Peace Smith, the defendant was unable to produce a bond of $1000 so he was placed in the county bastle where he awaits trial.

Isabella Henkle vs. Myrtle L. Murphy for judgment on note dated in 1906 for the sum of $6000.

Marriage licenses were issued to William Dodge and Halley Williams, of Hillsboro; and Jefferson J. Grebe and Ethel Dodge; Elmer J. Peterson, at Cowlitz county, and Florence Daily; John A. Peppete and Bertha G. Shipley.

The total amount of taxes to be collected is $527,651.45 and the total amount of collections up to Saturday night were $269,836.61 leaving a total to be collected of $257,814.84. It was estimated that there was at least $15,000 in unanswered letters. The total number of receipts issued were 7,139.

Chas. E. Lytle of Hillsboro has filed for county assessor and Miss Effie J. Goodman of Hillsdale for the office of treasurer.

In county court, Mrs. E. Eline La Chappalle was allowed $10 per month for relief. The claim of Frank Kable for damages for injury received last fall in the county rock quarry at Cedar Mills, was continued for further consideration.

It is reported that S. A. D. Meeke has filed at Salem for representative from Washington county. He is a resident of the North Plains country.

The second trial of William Lyda on an indictment for a criminal assault upon his daughter, began Monday morning. In the first trial held on March 19th the jury disagreed. Lyda is a well known resident of the Thatcher district, Northwest of Forest Grove. At the conclusion of the first trial his wife committed suicide.

Road Supervisorship at Last Settled

After a large amount of different information, both official and otherwise, we find that we were slightly mistaken in our article of a few weeks ago stating that Lou Wolf had been appointed road supervisor in this district. Since then it has come to light that the information was wrong, altho he was the one named in Fred Pappel's resignation to succeed him. The County Court, at the last session, appointed Robt. Fehlman to fill the position. Mr Fehlman will, no doubt, live up to all expectations in the matter.

Washington County Resident Held in Custody in California Jail.

Arthur Turner, whose home is near Helvetia in this county, is held by the officials at Crescent City, California, awaiting the coming of a Washington county deputy sheriff with extradition papers to bring him back to Hillsboro. He was indicted by the grand jury last fall on a charge of grand larceny. C. W. Redmond was the man detailed by Sheriff Reeves to bring back Turner. Crescent is located in an almost inaccessible portion of California, a few miles across the border on the west side of the coast mountains. It is necessary to travel for about seventy miles by stage over rough mountain passes.

Sortento News Items.

CHILD WANDERS FROM HOME

Mite of a Lad Lost in the Woods All Night.

Considerable excitement was manifested west of town Wednesday when the entire neighborhood turned out to search for the baby son of C. E. Swanson, who had been lost in the woods since the evening before.

About six, the Tuesday evening the little fellow appeared at the house of one of the neighbors crying and said that he wasn't wanted at home so he was going away.

A searching party began operations about eight and continued to look for the child till early in the morning. Wednesday the search was taken up by large parties of men, and the entire Boy Scout patrol.

All through the morning and late in the afternoon they combed the woods and searched in every conceivable place, but it availed nothing. Footprints said to be those of the little fellow were found but, always they were a jumbled up mess of signs, from which could be drawn no real conclusions as to his probable whereabouts.

About two o'clock the parties began to disperse and there was some talk of getting hounds to take up the trail. A deputy sheriff from Hillsboro was present but seemed unable to accomplish very much. The searching had all been on the hill and through the woods west of the main road running south past the Pike place. It was here that the foot prints were seen.

About the time that the searching parties had given up the search, Mrs. Anker, who lives north of the Emmots place, heard a child crying in the woods on the Jack Sloan place, and upon investigation it proved to be the lost child. He was very tired, very hungry, and when given some warm milk, immediately went to sleep. In the course of his wanderings he must have traveled over at least three or four miles.

Deceased.

C. W. Stafford, father of Mrs. S. H. Davis, passed away at the Davis residence, west of town, Thursday April 6, at 2:00 p. m., following a prolonged illness of two years. Mr. Stafford was at one time a resident of Portland, but spent most of his life in the Dakotas. He crossed the plains during the California gold rush days. At one time he was a prominent figure in the politics of South Dakota, and was a member of the first legislature of that state. The deceased was 75 years of age at the time of his death. He leaves a wife and three children: Mrs. E. J. Stafford of Beaverton; D. C. Mrs. S. H. Davis of Beaverton; F. H. Stafford, of McHenry, N. D.; and C. C. Stafford, of Velva, N. D. Mrs. S. H. Davis accompanied the remains to Velva, N. D., where they will be interred.

School was resumed Monday morning with a very much diminished attendance. One of the rooms having a few over five present.

Spectacular Entertainment to be Given by Beaverton Chamber of Commerce—Talent From Portland to be Provided.

The evening of April 25th will mark an era in Beaverton in the production of classical entertainments. On that date the Chamber of Commerce will introduce to the citizens of Beaverton and vicinity a galaxy of entertainers who are par excellence in their respective lines. The committee having the production in charge, promises an occasion extraordinary, and no expense is being spared to make it an event that will long be remembered.

Among the talent to be introduced will be Prof. Kellerman, world renowned prestidigitator and man of mystery. Herr Schmitzsbain, formerly private entertainer to the Kaiser. Ah Yet, friend and confidante to Li Hung Chang, formerly Prime Minister of China. Mlle. Klumka, late of the Pavlova Ballet, and universally famed exponent of classic dancing.

Be sure to save the date. The price of admission is only one quarter of a dollar and it behooves you to buy your tickets early as the size of the audience will be limited to the capacity of the hall. Tickets may be procured from any member of the Chamber of Commerce. Watch for further announcements.

The press notice is hardly dry yet, and the public is clamoring for tickets. This means but one thing—you must buy early. For those who wish a close up view of the stage, special accommodations have been provided. The first five rows on the front will be reserved and seats sold for 35c per ticket. The Times office is in receipt of a limited number of these tickets which will be sold to the first bidders.
