Attempted Robbery at Aloha.

The Brauer store, owned by F. J. Brauer of Aloha, was the scene Monday night of an attempted robbery. About 1 A. M. the owner, who sleeps upstairs, heard a crash of broken glass, and getting out of bed he rushed down. The thieves had been apparently frightened at the noise and he could distinctly hear them running away in the darkness. They had cut a large piece from the window, and this had slipped when they attempted to remove it crashing to the floor. No clue to the thieves was found.

Masred Bands at Orenco.

Five bands met again at Orenco where seventy-five musicians assembled. The original plan was to have the concert in the Orenco park but the day being wet and threatening rain every one went to the large packing house of the nursery company. Here between four and five hundred people gathered to listen to music by the bands and other numbers prepared for the occasion. The Big Four Quartet carried off the usual honors.

Following the ceremonies at which a few friends and relatives were present, a sumptuous wedding dinner was served at the Clasen residence. Late in the afternoon the bride and groom departed via auto with several friends for Portland where they will make their future home.
