Getting It All.

The doctor told him he needed carbohydrates, proteins and, above all, something nutritious. The doctor mentioned a long list of foods for him to eat. He staggered out and wobbled into a Penn avenue restaurant. "How about beefsteak?" he asked the waiter. "Is that nutritious?" The waiter didn't know. "Are fried potatoes rich in carbohydrates or not?" The waiter couldn't say. "Well, I'll fix it," declared the poor man in despair. "Bring me a large plate of hash."—Pittsburgh Post.

British Capture Prisoners from Germans After Separate Battle.

FRENCH ADD MORE PRISONERS

Trenches Retreated Before French Drive Near Hardecourt—Loss Many Trenches Also to British.

London, August 2.—The success of the British and French drive against the German line near Hardecourt, which was captured by the British, according to an official statement issued Sunday night.

"Substantial progress has been made in the vicinity of Hardecourt, which was captured by us at 3 p. m. Up to noon some 800 more prisoners had been taken in the operations between the Ancre and the Somme, bringing the total up to 2500, including those captured on other parts of the front Saturday night."

The official statement by the French war office at Paris says that south of the Somme the French have forced their way into the second line of the German entrenchments at several places and have captured the village of Fries and the Merscourt wood. The number of unwounded prisoners taken in the two days' battle now is said to be more than 3000.

Sunday night's statement by the French war office said that in the fighting south of Arras Saturday the French took a total of 5000 prisoners. In the course of the night French troops captured the village of Curia, about seven miles southwest of Albert. A heavy German counter-attack on the village of Hardecourt, north of Curia, was repulsed, the statement adds. After repeated assaults the Germans were obliged to retreat in disorder.

London July 2.—The British troops in their great drive in France have captured a German labyrinth of trenches on a front of seven miles to a depth of 1000 yards and the villages of Montsaunoy and Mametz.

North of the Ancre valley, according to the official statement, the British have not been able to hold sections of the ground gained in their first attacks. Two thousand German prisoners have been taken.

Hughes Plans Trip to Pacific Coast Cities First of August

Bridgehampton, N. Y. — Unless he changes his plans, Charles E. Hughes, in all probability will inaugurate his campaign for the Presidency in the second week in August, starting on a tour which will take him to the Pacific Coast. The present purely tentative arrangements provide for addresses in about 10 leading cities, probably St. Paul, Portland, Or.; Seattle, Wash.; San Francisco, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City, Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago among others.

Mr. Hughes intends this swing around the circle as merely preliminary to one or two whirlwind tours. He hopes to avoid rear-platform speaking on the first long trip.

Mother and Baby Washed Away By 15-Foot Wall of Water

Pendleton, Ore.—Mrs. M. C. McCabe, a rancher's wife, and her infant boy were drowned Saturday night about 5 o'clock when a cloudburst broke over upper Butter Creek canyon, 43 miles southwest of Pendleton, and a wall of water swept down upon their home. Mrs. McCabe's body was found five miles further down McDonald canyon Sunday morning by a searching party. The baby's body was found later. Mr. McCabe, her three children and some men were in the McCabe house and knew nothing of the flood until it struck the house, tearing it asunder and carrying away Mrs. McCabe and the child. The other children were rescued by the men.

I. W. W. Leaders Threaten.

St. Paul — Declaring their personal liberties as citizens have been violated by the order of Governor Burquist for the sheriff of St. Louis county to disarm all striking miners, nine I. W. W. leaders at Virginia, in a telegram received Sunday night, ask if they are in Russia. The message is a demand that the chief executive of the state remove all mine guards from within the city limits of mining towns on the range. "Otherwise," the statement reads, "our miners will be instructed to defend themselves."

Italians in New Attack.

Rome, via London.—Continuing their offensive in the Trentino, the Italians have begun an attack on the Austrian fortified positions between Kugna Taya and Poppiano, says the Italian official statement issued Sunday. The Austrians were driven from sections of trenches north of Pedesola, the dispatch adds, and some more trenches were carried between Bels and Mofalcone. In the latter battle 195 Austrians were taken prisoners.

The War Children of Paris.

How beautiful they are, the war children! How well cared for, how thriving, and how showered with love! Their prolonged stay in the Bois or in the gardens have freshened the bloom of their cheeks. Their immaculate pink-and-whiteness seems to testify to the girl mother's loving care of the now sovereign baby who for two years has had no rival. The mother's entire time is devoted to his Majesty, the baby, nor is he ever forgotten except occasionally when her thoughts wander to the absent one, she traces in the baby's dimpled face the sometimes fugitive, sometimes striking resemblance to his soldier-father. Several moments these when in the twilight the curly head and downy cheek receive themselves into the pale or sunburnt features of one "somewhere in France."—Cartoons Magazine.

Gypsies Use Automobiles.

"Even gypsies are abandoning horses for motors," says the July Popular Mechanics Magazine. "A band of about 40 of these nomads recently visited Columbus, Ohio, traveling in three covered automobiles which had been purchased a short time before. Each motor was fitted up in true gypsy fashion, and portions of the tops were painted in the bright colors characteristic of the families inhabiting the three cars. The sage of the group was a woman 75 years old; the youngest of the children was three months old."

The Usual Way.
Out of a letter that came to us the other day we grab this little bit: You can tell a man your troubles. You can weep and moan and wail. You can tell him you'll go bankrupt. That you'll maybe go to jail. You can tell your innocent secret. You can bare your life's one blot. And he'll say: "I want to help you. But what assets have you got?"—Detroit Free Press.

Nervy.
"That fellow's got his nerve with him!"
"What's the matter now?"
"He actually asked me to lend him a couple of gallons of gasoline until next Saturday."—Detroit Free Press.

The Smile of Serenity.
"That man is really an optimist."
"How do you know?"
"He smiles continually."
"Maybe he's an optimist and maybe he's a diplomat."—Washington Star.
