A Well Known Woman Speaks.

In Every Town in Oregon Neighbors Say the Same.

Portland, Oregon.—"I have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for my nerves and a general break-down and after using only three bottles I was completely cured. I also used Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the blood and it proved very beneficial.

"I can heartily recommend Doctor Pierce's medicines."—MRS. J. B. HAYES, 642 Duncan Ave.

The mighty restorative power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription speedily causes all womanly troubles to disappear—compels the organs to properly perform their natural functions, corrects displacements, overcomes irregularities, removes pain and misery at certain times and brings back health and strength to nervous, irritable and exhausted women.

It is a wonderful prescription, prepared only from nature's roots and herbs, with no alcohol to falsely stimulate and no narcotics to wreck the nerves. It banishes pain, headache, backache, low spirits, hot flashes, dragging-down sensation, worry and sleeplessness surely and without loss of time.

Why should any woman continue to worry, to lead a miserable existence, when certain help is at hand?

What Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done for thousands it will do for you. It's not a secret remedy for its ingredients are printed on wrapper. Get it this very day from any medicine dealer in either liquid or tablet form.

More Than $700 Will Be Distributed at Seattle Land Show for Best County or Community Exhibit.

The best county or community display at the land show in Seattle from October 4 to 14 will receive a cash prize of $400 and a handsome trophy banner. The second prize is for $200 and the third prize $100.

Already there is interest over Washington, Oregon and Idaho in this contest and a large number of Washington communities will try for the prizes. Oregon counties and communities will also be well represented, the displays coming from the state fair at Salem.

The contest has been thrown open to any commercial club, grange, farmers' association, improvement club or other county or community organization in the Northwest.

The management of the Northwest Land Products exposition has set aside $225 in gold for the best individual farm exhibit. The first prize calls for $150 and the second prize $75.

Indications are that the first land show ever staged in Seattle will be the greatest agricultural exhibit since the exposition of 1909. The Great Northern railway has taken space for an agricultural display and the Milwaukee will make a similar exhibit and in addition will bring the Montana state exhibit to the show.

The Alaska display will be the greatest ever made and the entire exhibit of grains, grasses and vegetables from the annual fall fair at Fairbanks will be shipped to Seattle the latter part of this month.

The land show at Seattle will cover more than 70,000 square feet in the heart of the business district, the city authorities giving permission to tent over Fifth Avenue adjoining the Arena, the city's largest assembly hall.

GIRL COULD NOT WORK

How She Was Relieved from Pain by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Taunton, Mass.—"I had pains in both sides and when my periods came I had to stay at home from work and suffer a long time. One day a woman came to our house and asked my mother why I was suffering. Mother told her that I suffered every month and she said, 'Why don't you buy a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' My mother bought it and the next month I was so well that I worked all the month without staying at home a day. I am in good health now and have told lots of girls about it."—Miss CLARICE MORIN, 22 Russell Street, Taunton, Mass.

Thousands of girls suffer in silence every month rather than consult a physician. If girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a safe and pure remedy made from roots and herbs much suffering might be avoided.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. (confidential) for free advice which will prove helpful.

Across the Continent in Five Days—18½ Hours.

Fred W. Vogler, president of The Northwest Auto Co., of Portland—premier speed boat enthusiast of the Pacific Coast—all-round sportsman and general good fellow, has been prevailed upon to bring a duplicate of the famous Marmon 34, that crossed the country in less than six days, to Pendleton during the Round-Up week—so that some of our real riders may have a chance to see this wonderful car.

When the railroad situation looked as if it might tie up every road in the country, Mr. Vogler said:

"We can move troops fast enough with the Marmon 34 to stop anything—and one man proved it beyond a doubt."

S. B. Stevens arrived at San Francisco just 5 days, 18¼ hours after the car had left Columbus Circle, New York City, 3476 miles away.

This completed the most remarkable and fastest journey ever made across the United States in a motor car—the average rate of speed being almost equal to the schedule of the fast transcontinental railroad trains.

Some One Ought to Tell Her.

Dear little Willie was only recently married, and for the past fortnight he had been wearing that fatuous smile which a man wears on only two occasions—when he is first married and when the first baby arrives. That smile, which suggests a codfish in paradise, is extremely annoying to the onlooker. Therefore, Willie's friends were relieved to see him appear one morning looking very glum.

"Hallo, Willie! What's the matter?" they cried in chorus.

"Oh, don't chaff, boys—don't chaff! Marriage isn't what I thought it was! My wife can't sing!"

"Can't sing? Why, you ought to be thankful for that!"

"Yes, I dare say. And I might be—only, you see, she doesn't know it!"—

His Honor in Error.

Mose Ham was arrested for "loud and uproarious language" and "disturbing the peace." Judge Briles read the document in the case and then turned to the black-as-ebony prisoner.

"Mose Ham," said he, "you are charged with shouting, groaning, crying loud in the night, lamentations, impure language, cursing, swearing, breaking the peace and general noisy conduct not befitting a citizen. What have you to say?"

"Des dis, jedge, dey ain't no spec' er dat de truf; all I had wus er slight visitation ob religion. Ef I talked loud, jedge, hit wus becaus I'm further away from th' Lawd dan mos' folks."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

What a Tourist Heard.

A tourist in Ireland came upon a couple of men "in holts" rolling on the road. The man on top was pummeling the other within an inch of his life. The traveler looked on for a moment in silence and then intervened.

"I say, it's an infernal shame to strike a man when he's down."

"Faith, if yes knew all the trouble I had gettin' him down yes wouldn't be talkin' like that," came the intermittent reply.—Judge.

Explained.

Sister Nancy was going the round of the ward in the big hospital for wounded soldiers, examining the medical charts over each bed and taking temperatures.

Reaching the side of one hero, in whose mouth she had left the thermometer a minute before, she was horrified to find, on withdrawing it, that it registered 120, although only an hour ago the patient was normal. Swiftly she summoned the house doctor, but he, on arriving, was seriously perplexed, as there was nothing in the patient's condition to account for the sudden rise.

"Look here," he said to the soldier, "have you dropped this thermometer or been fooling about with it?"

"No, sir. Only been stirring me tea with it!"—London Answers.

Prolonged Mourning.

Bones, a hostler, failed to turn up at the livery yard one morning.

"Where's Bones?" the boss asked.

"His father's dead, sir," explained one other hostler.

"Oh!"

The next day again Bones failed to turn up. And the next day still he was absent.

"Bones not about?" said the boss.

"His father," said the other hostler, "as I told you before, sir——"

"Well, look here," said the boss, "you slip on your coat and run round to Bones' house and find out if he intends to stay away all the time his father is dead."—Chicago Journal.

"Vacation is a great thing."

"Don't have to watch the clock then, eh?"

"Don't even have to watch the calendar."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Versatile.

A lady stopping at a hotel on the Pacific coast rang the bell the first morning of her arrival and was very much surprised when a Japanese boy opened the door and came in.

"I pushed the button three times for a maid," she said sternly, as she dived under the bed covers.

"Yes," the little fellow replied, "me she."
