Fire Loss Considerable

Sunday night the barn on the Reghetto place just north of the Oregon Electric tracks which has been leased by some Chinese truck farmers burned to the ground destroying a fine work team, some farming implements and numerous sacks of potatoes; the entire damage amounting to about $1800.

The local fire department experienced considerable trouble after the hose lines had been run out as the fire hydrant had not been flushed since the mains were laid in that part of town. After the hose had been connected it was found necessary to dig for the water cut off which was buried in the ground. As soon as the water was procured the fire was soon subdued.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McKell entertained at an elaborate "500" party last Saturday evening. Forty guests enjoyed the hospitality at the McKell residence.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Taylor were entertained at a farewell party at the W. O. Hooker residence last Monday night. There were present some fifteen friends, and all enjoyed a social evening. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor have moved into Portland where they will make their future home.

High School News

The report cards were given out last week and everyone was more than delighted with them.

Mr. Myers held another rehearsal of the orchestra Tuesday morning. This is a splendid opportunity for those of the high school who are musically inclined to receive instruction in orchestra work under such a competent instructor.

The sophomore class organized Monday afternoon electing the following officers. Francis Livornese, president; Roy Emmons, vice president; Vivian O'Connell, secretary; and Elnathan Sweet, treasurer. They are also selecting a motto and class colors.

A hotly contested basketball game was played Friday night in the High School gymnasium between the High School team and Town team. At the end of the first half the Town team was one basket ahead, but were unable to keep the lead against the fast playing of the High School boys and at the end of the game the score stood 22 to 20 in favor of the High School. The High School boys are playing a fine clean game and have developed splendid team work.

Mrs. J. W. Fairweather and Mrs. R. W. Cook entertained at the home of Mrs. Fairweather in Sorrento Saturday evening November 19th in honor of Mr. Cook's birthday and Miss Francis Fairweather from Tacoma. A delightful evening was spent playing cards, Miss Davis winning first prize; and after a delicious luncheon, all participated in the latest stepping, 90 guests being present. Mr. and Mrs. Blair from Portland and John J. McNamara of Astoria being special guests. All departed for home in the wee hours of the morning.

J. F. Hunter was a visitor at Beaverton Wednesday evening.

Home Life

Now that the election is over everybody is turning their thoughts to the full dinner pull on Thanksgiving day.

The people in this vicinity are very much pleased to hear that the tunnel project has again revived. We are all interested in this project and should, in unison, stand ready and willing to do our part when called upon.

The play, entitled, An Old Maids' Convention, given by the Multnomah and Huber commercial clubs, was a successful and highly enjoyed event. Fifteen of the young ladies from Multnomah constituted the old maids that held the convention, after which the following program was rendered. Piano duet, Mrs. L. Darby and Miss Gladys Rose; vocal solo, Mrs. K. E. Britch; Saxophone solo, Mr. W. E. Burks; fancy dancing, Miss Bertha Shanahan; select reading, Mrs. J. M. Loomis; quartet, Messrs. Davy, Herse, Darby and Dolk.

In addition, the following, from Huber and other places assisted in the play. Mrs. G. W. McAuley, Mrs. Dan Shaw, Mrs. F. W. Pulver, Mrs. W. J. Lang, Miss George, Miss Mary Rasmussen, Miss Emma Wilson, Miss Mary Fitzpatrick, Miss Edna Freddeen and Miss Zylpha Harper.
