Tolstoy's Intensity.
Everything in Tolstoy's character,
says a Russian writer, attains titanic proportions. "As a drinker he absorbed fantastic quantities of liquor. As a gambler he terrified his partners by the boldness of his play. As a soldier he advanced gayly to bastion four, the bastion of death at Sevastopol, and there he made dying men laugh at his witty sayings. He surpassed every one by his prodigious activity in sport
as well as in literature."

Death expecteth thee everywhere.
Be wise, therefore, and expect death
everywhere.—Quarles.

The most important educational meeting ever held in the state of Oregon will be the State Teachers' Association of Portland, December 27, 28 and 29.

Two of the most eminent educators in the United States have been secured for this meeting. They are: President Henry Suzalle of the University of Washington, formerly of Columbia University, New York, and Carroll G. Pearce, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, of the State Normal School.

The business of the Association will be transacted by a representative Council composed of delegates representing every teachers' organization in the state. The entire first day will be given up to the work of this council. Besides the regular business which will come before the Association there will be the report of three permanent committees which have been at work during the past year. The first report will be on a Retirement Fund for teachers. This committee has been at work during the past year under the direction of the Chairman President Wm. T. Foster of Reed College. The report will be submitted by Supt. J. A. Churchill, superintendent of public instruction. The second report will be on a Code of Ethics for teachers which will be presented by the chairman, President J. H. Ackerman of Monmouth. The third will be on the Retardation Problem which will be presented by C. W. Boetticher, city superintendent of the schools of Albany.

On Thursday morning and Friday afternoon there will be general assemblies of all teachers. Only speakers from abroad will appear on this part of the program.

Thursday afternoon and Friday morning will be given up to Department work. Leading educators from all parts of Oregon will meet in conference at this time. Following are the departments which will be in session as a part of the State Association:

City superintendents; Higher Education; Secondary Schools; History Modern Languages; Foreign Languages; Council of English Teachers; Elementary Schools; Rural Schools; Manual Training; Home Economies; Commercial; Art; Music; Librarians; and Physical Training.

ROBINETT-MCILVAINE

Miss Geneva McIlvaine and L. E. Robinett, suprised most of their friends when they quietly slipped over to Vancouver last Monday and had the knot tied. Both are well known young people. Mr. Robinett is operator on the first night shift at the S. P. station and Mrs. Robinett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. McIlvaine. The newlyweds have rented the L. Boring house where they are at home to their friends. The Times joins in wishing them a happy future.
