

D. L. C. of his grandfather Wm. E. Walker, 2 1-4 miles northwest of Beaverton, Washington county. where he grew to manhood and willingly and industriously labored on the farm for his father, Robert H. Walker, who it will be remembered lost his life last February, when struck by a fast moving O. E. car st St. Mary's station. As a boy he attended the Union school near Cedar Mill, and during 1895 6 he attended the State Normal school at Monmouth, Or. In the spring of 1898 he was united in marriage to Miss Ora P. Crowley and they immediately took up their residence in Scoggin Valley, where Mr. Walker worked and successfully conducted a large farm until 1913. When he was divorced from his wife who is now motor, proved fruitless and death living with their five children in Lents, Or. Mr. Walker was a "live wire" full of energy and possessed of a likeable personality. Absolutely honest in all of his dealings, he was highly respected by all of his business associates. Free from all thought of self, he was first to offer aid whenever his assistance would be of benefit. He was an ardent supporter of the prohibition movement and was eager to see the state freed from the liquor traffic. Mr. Walker had at the time of his death reached the age of-44 years and 11 days. He was a member of the following orders Portland Chapter of S. A. R ; Holbrook Lodge No. 30, A. F. & A. M. Forest Grove; B. P. O. E. Lodge No. 142 Portland. Or. the last two of which in connection with the Rev. Andrew Carrick of Portland, conducted the funeral services which were held at the old home near Beaverton, Sunday, Dec. 31, 1916, and interment was in the old Union cemetery. Mr. Walker leaves a wide acquaintance and numerous friends in both Washington and Multnomah counties to mourn his early departure, as the many expressions of regret and beautiful floral tributes readily testify. Much sympathy is felt for his mother, Mrs. Rachel Walker, his sister, Mrs. Lauretta G. (Walker) Olds, his five children and his brother W. B. Walker.
