Beaverton and Hillsboro

WASHINGTON COUNTY SCHOOL NEWS

Grade School News.

Many of the students are drilling on spelling these winter days for the big contest at Hillsboro in the spring.

In 1917 Beaverton School came home with 37 county champions.

From present indications the Beaverton Band of the future should be well supplied with drummers, as 30 boys now take their turns at the drums in marching.

Old Oregon has favored us with balmy weather this winter and the health of the pupils has been excellent.

Big preparations are being made for the second oratorical contest of the term which will be staged the latter part of this month.

The basket ball team is jubilant over their victory Saturday night when they defeated the Cornelius Scouts by a score of 30 to 29. The funny part of it was that some "old scouts" were mixed in with the visitors. It was a dandy game. Hurrah for Beaverton!

Velma Davies is the first student to commit all the tables, 2's to 20's inclusive. She repeats them faster than they can be written, thereby winning the Fisher Cross for great proficiency in arithmetic.

Lawrence Hughson and Lowell Tallman are making rapid progress on the cornet. We are looking for a piano now and the public school will have an orchestra.

Even the primary department is patriotic. On Monday one of the little fellows said: "Do you know what I'm going to do when I's a man?" "No. Tell us." "I's going to fight the 'Kisah'."

The seventh and eighth grade students voted to have cartooning this month in the drawing classes, preparatory to entering "Cartoons" in the Second Art Contest which will be held in February. It is interesting to note that "Mutt and Jeff" are the favorites of the eighth grade, while "Jiggs and Maggie" won the honors in the seventh. The teacher is taking a course in cartooning this winter and is pleased to note the talent among the students. It sure puts the "pep" in drawing.

SOME SORRENTO NEWS

(Sent in by Cecil Emmons)

The Red Cross meeting last Tuesday was well attended, 15 ladies being present.

Mrs. J. E. Davies went to Portland Tuesday to visit her sister, J. E. Davis is in Seattle.

Land in the Sorrento is getting quite swampy, owing to the excessive rainfall.

The Red Cross unit is now held on Tuesdays instead of Fridays.

Miss Oma Emmons has returned to her school at Denzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace G. Emmons, after a two-weeks' visit with parents and friends in this vicinity and in Portland, have returned to Monroe, Oregon, at which place he has charge of a 400-acre ranch.

George F. Davies is at St. Helens, where he is employed in the shipyards.

Much traffic passes over the back road through Sorrento this winter.

Veteran—We are going to carry our pistols in our belts or account of leather to make holsters being so high. New Recruit—Just my luck? I wear suspenders.

The English soldier gets $26 a year, the French soldier $28 a year and the United States soldier $33 a month.

Lyle V. Hilsabeck, member of the Quartermaster's department was a guest of W. B. Emmons in Sorrento last week.

A letter received from James Emmons of Battery A, who is now in New Jersey, states that it is very cold there—17 degrees below zero.

A jolly watch party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cook in Sorrento New Year's Eve. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Davis, Leland Cook, Jamie Hudson, Wesley Cook and Lester Fairweather.

OLD LANDMARK IS PRESERVED

Historic General Schuyler Mansion at Albany, N. Y., Associated With Revolutionary Times.

By the dedication of the General Schuyler mansion at Albany, N. Y., another interesting landmark of revolutionary days was permanently preserved from the devastating hand of modern improvement, notes a correspondent. The house is 155 years old, having been built in 1762. Its recent dedication by Governor Whitman, marked the one hundred and fortieth anniversary of the surrender of Burgoyne at Saratoga. General Schuyler took an active part in the campaign against the invading British army from the North, and, at Saratoga, he suffered a serious loss in the burning of the British of his country home and mills. Notwithstanding this, he acted the part of the chivalrous conqueror a few days later, when he entertained General Burgoyne and his staff, including the Hessian general, Baron Riedesel, and his wife, at his Albany home, when, as prisoners of war, they stopped there on the way to Boston.

With the single exception of the famous Washington headquarters at Newburg, purchased by the state in 1840, the Schuyler mansion is more closely associated with revolutionary times than any other of the historic memorials purchased from time to time by the state for preservation.

WAS CALLED BY WASHINGTON

First Cape Cod Canal Engineer to Be Pressed into Service Because of Demand for Experts.

Thomas Machin, the engineer charged by a committee appointed in 1776 by the colony of Massachusetts with the task of making the first survey for the Cape Cod canal, was "drafted" as an army engineer by George Washington before he could make a fair start on the survey, says the Engineering News-Record. George Washington's letter to the chairman of the committee which appointed Mr. Machin read:

"The great demand we have for engineers in this department has obliged me to order Mr. Machin hither to assist in that branch of the business."

This bit of American engineering history is recounted by William Barclay Parsons, in a paper (published in the Proceedings of the American Society of Civil Engineers) on the Cape Cod canal, which was first proposed more than three hundred years ago and finally opened to commercial traffic in 1914.

Meaning of "Sinn Fein."

"Sinn Fein" (pronounced Shin Fain) is a Celtic expression meaning "ourselves alone," and is the name and motto of an Irish party which constructs it as meaning both for and by the Irish alone. It dates actively from 1906 and claims to be more practical and comprehensive than any of the old parties that have aimed at Irish independence or self-government. Among other things, it proposes to establish a purely Irish parliament, army and navy; civil and consular service; judiciary and school system; also the economic reorganization of Ireland by its own people on a purely Irish basis including merchant marine, stock exchange, banks, etc.; all official and business matters and correspondence to be conducted in Gaelic, the use of English language to be boycotted in public offices, schools and business. These and many other interesting results are to be accomplished by passive means and peaceful methods. It is not stated exactly how, but by some kind of social and political pressure without violence.

The West Point Course.

The course of instruction at the West Point Military academy requires four years, and is chiefly mathematical and professional. Each cadet is paid by the government $700 a year while at the academy, that sum being about sufficient for his support. Only one leave of absence is allowed during the four years, and this is granted at the end of the second year. The regular session of study and academic duties continues from September 1 to June 1, the intervening months being spent in camp, where practical military training is given. At the end of four years cadets are graduated and commissioned as second lieutenants in the United States army.

Too Hasty.

Capt. Emilio Rosetti, the Italian pilot of the wonderful twenty-five passenger Caproni airplane, said at a luncheon in Norfolk:

"Don't mistrust Italy. To mistrust Italy's loyalty in this crisis is to be like the jealous husband."

"A jealous husband slipped into the house in his usual quiet way one evening and heard his wife at the telephone. To whom could she be telephoning? He tiptoed into the room, and his blood froze in his veins with horror as he heard her say: 'I love you so! You're my own baby boy. Meet me at midnight in the same old place. Kiss me, sweet heart!'"

The man roused up and seized her by the throat.

"Who are you telephoning to?" he roared in a paroxysm of rage and grief.

She answered with an icy smile: "To my music dealer for the new songs he advertises in this morning's paper."

RED CROSS TO ELECT OFFICERS NEXT WEEK

Open Meeting at 3:00 o'clock Wednesday Afternoon Will Name Officials for the Coming Term.

The Beaverton Red Cross is to hold an election. Next Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock an open meeting will be held at which officers for the ensuing term will be chosen.

At the meeting Wednesday nine new members were added to the roll.

The ladies would like to have more machine stitchers attend the Thursday morning session when active work is carried on for the relief of the suffering soldiers and the other victims of war.

The Beaverton Red Cross now has a membership of nearly 200 but do not feel that they have reached the possibilities of this locality until every person who resides here is a member.

The Red Cross room is now open on Thursdays as well as on Wednesdays and a good attendance is present at each meeting. If more of the members will attend, the room will be kept open on additional days.

The thrifty saving of money is commendable, but remember that the saving of food staples is the primary object of the Food Administration. If corn bread costs a little more than wheat bread in the Northwest, eat it once in a while anyway, and regard the extra cost as your war tax!

15,000 MEN WANTED FOR U. S. GUARD DUTY FOR PROTECTING PROPERTY

(Continued from Page One.) set aside one half of his pay for his wife and the government will allot an equal amount. If he have children under 16, the pay to the children is $10 for the first child, $7.50 for the second and $5 for each additional child.

The pay is as follows: first enlistment, $30 per month; first-class private $33; corporal, $34; sergeant, $44; and first-class sergeant $51.

Sergeant Keyser is affectionately referred to as the American kaiser by those who know him well and he is certainly doing his part, after 25 years of active service, to defeat the kaiser who has upset the peace of the world. Sergeant Baldwin saw 99 years of active service and has been seven years on the retired list. Sergeant Donovan also has 30 years of active service to his credit and has been six years on the retired list, but the old boys are still able to go "over the top" when Uncle Sam needs help.
