

ONE FRIEND TELLS ANOTHER WHY W-B CUT TOBACCO IS BEST AND CHEAPEST

MY POUCH OF W-B CUT TOBACCO ISN'T AS BIG AS YOUR LOOSE PAPER SACK, BUT IT'S BETTER AND CHEAPER, BECAUSE IT SATISFIES AND LASTS LONGER.

JUDGE, THAT FELLOW HAS CAUGHT ON TO IT ALL RIGHT.

HERE'S something curious about W-B CUT Chewing—it takes less out of your pocket and puts a better chew into your mouth. No big plug sagging your pocket, no big wad sagging your cheek. Half as much of this rich tobacco goes twice as far as ordinary plug. W-B saves your silver and gives you a silver-lining feeling of happiness all over. You can't help from telling your friends about W-B.

Women Jurors.

Jury rooms in every court house in Oregon will have to be altered to provide lavatories for women should the empanelment of women on juries be authorized by the state legislature.

As it is left to the option of women to serve, the sheriffs of remote counties (like Harney and Malheur) in the service of summons would have to ride many miles over sage-brush plains and through forest wilderness (in Douglas and Curry) in order to find women willing to serve. Either that would be the method, or the service of jury summons would have to be confined to the towns. The cost to the county would be considerable if any attempt were made to empanel women from different localities.

But the foregoing are not the main objections to permitting women to serve on juries. The purpose of trial by jury is to do justice to the accused, and to accomplish this purpose only disinterested jurors are permitted to serve. Whether he will serve on a jury is not optional with a man who is summoned. It is optional with women, only those women who are interested in some phase of the case at trial will serve, and in proportion as they are interested they would be unfair as jurors and might do injustice to the accused by convicting, or to the public by turning him or her loose.

Also, human experience shows that women judge largely by intuition. They make up their minds quickly, and testimony, evidence and argument have little weight with them once their minds are made up. This would have a tendency to do injustice to accused persons if all women jurors were prejudiced alike at the beginning of a trial; if the women differed, it would have a tendency to result in disagreements, thus delaying the administration of justice and creating the expense of new trials.

Trial by jury is not a game to be played at or toyed with by active-minded women who get interested in social questions—it is an institution for the dealing of justice to accused persons, an institution to establish which countless thousands of men have laid down their lives. Such an institution should not be tampered with lightly to please the whims of the few women who crave entrance to the secrets of the jury room. (S. B. 32 and 47.)
