Long Beach, Cal.,

Feb. 25, 1917.

Times, Beaverton, Ore.—The Beaverton fans are having a time of their lives. We got a free ride in the country and dinner thrown in, went out on the R. N., there were 1500 of us.
There was an opening up of a new town. My the prices are high in real estate. When we came back we came in a Ford.
The price of potatoes is 5 cents, onions 12 1-2 cents, cabbage 7 cents a pound. Everything is high. There is twenty-five thousand tourists in Long Beach.
They voted bonds two years ago of two hundred and fifty-four thousand dollars for high school and have not room enough, there are 1900 pupils in this school.
In the M. E. Sunday school today were 1671 scholars, the Christians 1100, the Congregational the same. Have had a storm for a week with a little sunshine. The submarines were out trying their guns a few days ago. We see the air craft flying out to sea. California is tired of her wet towns when the people get to vote again then she will be bone dry. We do not think of coming back to Oregon soon. We were homesick for awhile would like to see Beaverton. This leaves us all well.
Our love to all friends.

T. J. Allen and wife.

In the matter of the guardianship of Ruth O'Connor, Wm. Hare is peti-

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

A new record for Fire Drill was established Friday. The building was emptied in 52 seconds.

There will be a business meeting of Hon. B. W. Barnes made his annual visit to our school last Friday, spending one half day with the upper rooms.
He is coming again soon to complete his visit to the lower rooms. While with us Mr. Barnes gave an instructive address on the subject of "Regular Attendance" at school to obtain greatest benefits. Also he explained the rules for participating in the Washington County Spelling Contest to be held at Hillsboro the latter part of April. He was enthusiastic about Beaverton School re-entering this line of work, which has been left out for the last two years. After the contest is over this year, the visiting children will be royally entertained by moving picture shows, noted actors from Portland and the Lincoln High School Band of the metropolis will furnish the music. Beaverton will be there!

The teachers are co-operating with City Health Officer Dr. Carstens in placing under control the present epidemic of chicken pox and mumps, which is prevalent in this vicinity.
We invite the parents' aid in stamping out the present plague. Don't let your children "go visiting" where the disease is located.

The Public School is enjoying some great singing at assembly every Wednesday morning. One hundred and sixty voices blend fine.

Eighth grade students passed previous records in Endurance Recitations in Agriculture. This week high records for continuous written recitation at the board on subjects studied were: Thelma Illig, 80 minutes; Edna Hocken, Lena Matzke, Vera Gaskill, each 79 minutes; Della Allen, 77 minutes; and Lucile Jones, 72 minutes.

Two places in town where Old Glory floats are the car shops and the public school building.

The town council met in regular monthly session last Monday night with all officers present.
Mr. Easter, manager, for N.
Coast Power Co. was present and effected a compromise for rebate claimed by city for lights not burning strength contract. d for, by deducting $9.65 from the February bill a resolution was passed employing County Surveyor Reiter to survey a 60-foot right of way through H. R. Nelson place for the new State Highway. The following bills were allowed:

A big part of the evening was taken up in the discussion of making different minimum water rates to consumers who are on meters, but resulted in nothing.
