

FINE FEATHERS

"FINE FEATHERS MAY MAKE FINE BIRDS." but even if that is true, who wants to be a bird?

Fine clothes are not all that's required to make fine men, but by a long shot. A good, clear, well-educated mind; a strong, healthy body; plain clothes suited to the occasion; and a comfortable account at the bank; these things count for more than fine clothes every day. We will help you with that bank account any time you want to start.

Hans Neilson dropped in Tuesday to let us know that he got the articles he advertised for two weeks ago. He says the Beaverton paper is all right.

C. W. Colby was in Tuesday to attend the gopher and mole demonstration at the schoolhouse and to attend to business.

Mrs. Guppy gave a lunch last Friday for Mrs. F. M. Hobart and Mrs. S. J. Robinson in honor of Mrs. Hobart's 79th birthday.

Miss Helen Smith of LaFayette has succeeded L. E. Robinette as night operator at Beaverton for two months until a permanent appointment can be made. She is making her home with Mrs. F. M. Hobart while here.

H. Lavman of Woodburn spent the week-end at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Kamberger. Mr. Lavman had just returned from a business trip to Seattle and Snohomish and reports that high water still prevails. In the lowlands only the house-tops are above the flood.

Mrs. Hazel Malarkey, daughter of J. T. Williams, who has been employed by a Portland firm, has accepted a position as stenographer in the office of Stroud & Tucker.

L. E. Robinette, night operator at the S. P. depot resigned his position last week to accept the position as agent at Marcola in Lane County and left Wednesday morning for his new home. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robinette will wish them a pleasant summer in their new home.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The boys played an exceptionally good game, although we have to admit that Forest Grove bent our boys on their own floor. But many things must be taken into consideration. In the first place, the Beaverton boys contracted for a game with Forest Grove high school, but Forest Grove played two P. U. players. Everyone knows that when the high school boys go to college they sure will play the game in improved style.

Beaverton played a good game all the way through. The guarding was exceptionally well done in spite of the adverse score. Roy and Francis added to their laurels at every turn. Rodman did not play up to his usual standard but this was perhaps due to the rough tactics of his opponents. Ekstrom and Emmons both did good work, but the Forest Grove quintet simply outplayed the local boys both in team work and in shooting baskets.

Beaverton has another game scheduled for Thursday night, March 7, when they meet Hill Military Academy of Portland.

COUNCIL IS EARNEST IN DESIRE FOR CLEAN-UP

Sidewalk Matters Up for Discussion and Drastic Action Is Promised with Laggards.

The Beaverton Town Council is not to be trifled with longer in the sidewalk and clean-up matters. This was clearly set forth at the regular meeting on Monday evening when the recorder was instructed to write courteous but plain letters to all who are remiss in the sidewalk matter and to out of town owners in regard to the clean-up day.

The clean-up committee was given carte blanc in the matter of the clean-up and they have been busy ever since and have enlisted the help not only of the grown-ups but of the school pupils as well. Letters, maps and notices figure prominently in the clean-up matter and this afternoon promises to be a never-to-be-forgotten day for Beaverton.

On motion duly seconded and carried, bills were ordered paid as follows: Tualatin Valley Water Co., $125; North Coast Power Co., $81; C. E. Hedge, recorder's salary for February, $10; Elmer Stipe, water clerk's salary for February, $5; tanning main for starch factory, $17.70; repairing lock on jail, $75; repairing water main, $9; M. Welter, labor on street, $21.50; G. Holbake, same, $6; R. Fehlman, same, $17.50; Peter Kenro, same, $9.50; Beaverton Times, printing delinquent water notices, $1.50; Jones Lumber Co., $4.00; interest on $4500 water bonds six months, $270.

Financial Standing, March 1

General fund, $34.58; water fund, $125.77; bond fund, $124.80; general road tax, $10.94; special road tax, $23.90.
C. E. HEDGE,
Recorder-Treasurer.

Mrs. Thompson of Portland, a graduate nurse, has been the guest of Mrs. W. H. Baldwin for the past week. On Tuesday they went to Vancouver for a visit at the Barracks there. Mrs. Baldwin will give no estimate of the number of men, but says that it is enormous. There were soldiers drilling everywhere. The hospitals were full. Recruits were drilling in civilian clothes. Relay sound post drills, bomb throwing exercises, bayonet drills and the preparation for the trenches in Europe were everywhere in evidence. There are many tents in addition to the barracks, good tent-houses, however, with stoves in them. Mrs. Baldwin also visited St. Joseph's Hospital which she knew when a little girl, for Vancouver is her old home.

NOTES FROM ST. MARY'S INSTITUTE

By Mary Hermans, '30

The members of the agriculture class are busily preparing hot-beds for their spring war gardens. Much interest is evinced.

Phyllis Uptegrove is back in school again after an illness.

The pupils of the music department will give an ensemble in the near future.

Test week at St. Mary's—with alternate smiles and tears.

Delightful spring days and hand ball and long Saturday walks.

The Spanish and Latin classes are deep in the mysteries of the work of the second semester. Translations aplenty, and compositions, too.

to move away as soon as they can dispose of their property. Mr. Kechn is a capital farm worker and as he has but a small place of his own, his services are in much demand during the busy season.

The recent proclamation of the food administration has come to the relief of many Elmonica people who have cattle of which it is their desire to be rid. Because of the car shortage, the meatless days in Oregon, Washington and Idaho have been discontinued to a large extent and thus the home market for fat cattle has been improved.

Our mail carrier tells us that he has had to discontinue service on a part of his route because of the condition of the roads.

Holt Dietz has been ill with a cough lately.

No news yet as to the outcome of the petition to move Elmonica station.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dietz and son were in Portland Saturday. Please give your orders for printing to Holt Dietz.

Uncle Hi Says:

"The right of free speech also carries the responsibility of speaking the truth."

Phillip Holsheimer, "our soldier boy," visited home last week.

Several of Elmonica's prominent citizens are planning to attend the opening of the starch factory in Beaverton March 16. Are you?

A rookie is known by the company he keeps.

Mrs. W. H. Baldwin spent Friday to Saturday evening as a guest at the home of Elmer Coe of Swenson on a visit to her son, Lloyd Blauer, who is a student at the Knappa High School No. 2 at that place. Lloyd did well in his school work, finishing the first semester of the year with an average of 95 1/2, but he gets lonesome and wants to come to his home often. Mr. Coe is past Great Sachem of the Council of Oregon, Independent Order of Red Men, and showed Mrs. Baldwin, with much pride, a medal which has just been awarded him because of his service there.

S. P. Shop Notes.

Conrad Wolf has resigned his position as painter's helper at the shops to accept a position with Wadhams & Kerr of Portland. We expect that in the near future we shall see Conrad, armed with a sample case and a large black cigar, descend upon the grocery-men of Beaverton as a full-fledged traveling salesman.

Carl Hughson was laid up for a few days last week with a bad cold.

Bobby Petrusich, the airbrake man, underwent an operation for appendicitis. He is at St. Vincent's hospital and is reported to be getting along nicely.

C. E. Peck visited us this week. There is a vacancy at the shop for a painter's helper. See G. A. Van Antwerp, painter foreman.

A Cheerful Lie.
He's a cheerful liar, even when the thermometer goes to "zero below zero." Recently, on the coldest morning of the year, he came into the office mopping the perspiration off his brow.
"What's the matter, Jim?" asked his office mate. "Been working with your furnace?"
"No," said Jim. "I've been chasing robins from cherry trees and driving the sparrows from my strawberry patch."
Then somebody called attention to white spots on his nose, cheeks and ears, and when the frost had been rubbed out of them, the telephone bell rang. A wifely voice rang for Jim, saying:
"Cut, you come home for a few hours? The water pipes have frozen and burst, and I'm afraid the house will be flooded, and it is so cold the children are crying."
Jim stopped his "camouflaging" and didn't pretend to wipe any more sweat from his face.

Can't Resist Odor of Onions.
The inquisitive subscriber of Whatton wants to know if we are "temptation-proof." We can pass a hock sign and turn up a successful sniffer at a juke, there's a little restaurant on Travis street that makes us take the other side because of the almost irresistible odor of fried onions that pours out the front door all the time.—Houston Post.

Japanese Arts and Letters.
The Yamato association has been formed by distinguished Japanese citizens for the purpose of making Nippon's achievements in arts and letters better known to the western world. Its promoters believe that Japanese civilization is not correctly understood by the vast majority of Occidental people. Her naval, military and scientific advancement is recognized, but the West has yet to comprehend the significance of her achievements in the humanities. The Japan Magazine, commenting upon the new organization, says: "Many foreigners are disposed to look upon Japan as merely a military nation, whereas her most important side is the genius of her unique civilization and character. If people could get a glimpse of the soul of Japan they would have quite a different opinion of her. This can best be had from Japanese art and literature, which in many ways are equal to those of the West. Even those Occidentals who try to appreciate Japanese art prefer the least representative art of the nation. And as for Japanese literature, it is practically unknown among western people."
The association will publish works on Japanese history, literature and art and make translations into European languages of the best works of Japanese writers, ancient and modern; in addition its endeavor will be to promote the improvement of the national music and drama.

Glass Industry in America.
Glass was first manufactured in America by the people of Jamestown, Va., during the year 1615. Commenting on this fact, John Smith lamented that "the labor of the colony has been misdirected in the manufacture of ashes, soap, glass and tar, in which they could by no means compete with Sweden or Russia." The inhabitants of Jamestown did not agree with this view, however, and soon afterward commenced the erection of a glass works, the completion of which was interrupted by the Indian massacre of 1622. The first glass factory in North America to attempt the industry on an ambitious scale was built in 1780, at Temple, N. H., by Robert Hewes of Boston. The workmen, 32 in number, were German deserters from the British army. The carelessness of a workman caused the destruction of the plant by fire in 1781. In 1808 a glass factory was established in Boston, and since that time the industry has flourished.

Second Hand Sale.

I have left with me for sale a lot of household goods consisting of beds, mattresses, dressers, range, washing machine, wringer, kitchen utensils, and numerous other articles too numerous to mention. Most of these goods were bought new last fall and are now offered at a bargain.
C. E. HEDGE.

Huber Boy Scouts.

G. W. Wadsworth was down from Huber yesterday and tells us that the Huber Boy Scouts have moved into new quarters in the Dr. Wetmore building. Mr. Wadsworth is scout master of the troop at Huber.

Truck Line Changes Hands.

P. J. Corkery of Portland, formerly of Hillsboro, has purchased from Ernest Ends the truck line and mi'k route which Mr. Ends has operated for the past four months. Mr. Ends will spend a week or ten days here to close up his affairs and then he and Mrs. Ends will go back to Portland, their former home, a fact that Beaverton will regret for we have found Mr. and Mrs. Ends very genial people.

Mr. Corkery will make his home in Beaverton, and he is a likeable fellow who will drive the truck himself and will soon win his way into the hearts of the people for whom he hauls.

Huber Boy Scouts. G. W. Wadsworth was down from Huber yesterday and tells us that the Huber Boy Scouts have moved into new quarters in the Dr. Wetmore building. Mr. Wadsworth is scout master of the troop at Huber. The finance committee, M. E. Blanton, chairman, has succeeded in exceeding the quota set for the Huber Scouts in the recent $600,000 drive. A number of Huber people have subscribed liberally to the local uses of the troop. Tuesday night the boys conducted a night tracking contest, being out until midnight. The Fox patrol succeeded in an attack on the Bob White patrol, who were entrenched in the woods. First-Class scout tests will be conducted in about two weeks.
