NEWS OF THE BEAVERTON BOY SCOUTS

At the weekly meeting Monday night, Elert Carstens, Leroy Craig, and George and Philip Thompson successfully passed the second class indoor test. Charles Fry successfully passed the tenderfoot tests.

NEWS OF ELMONICA.

Holt Dietz, Correspondent.

Henry Schlotmann has a sick cow, due to overfeeding. His father, W. H. E. Schlottmann, was called in the case.

Trachsel Brothers are busy plowing and seeding.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Keehn and Albert Keehn made a short business visit to Hillsboro Tuesday morning. They drove down.

Teddy Schallsberger took an auto load of calves to Portland last week. From there he went to Linnton. Mr. Shalsberger also caused some comment by taking a ride on the Oregon Electric, as he almost invariably drives his car when he goes.

Hermann Schlottmann was in Beaverton Wednesday.

Mr. McLeod was in Beaverton Tuesday.

UNCLE HI SAYS:

Say! That's some factory, isn't it? If you weren't there you missed a lot—anyone can tell you that.

George Holsheimer is doing some plowing.

A carload of land plaster is expected to reach Elmonica Thursday. It is reported as all sold to the progressive farmers of this locality.

The 6:15 P. M. Oregon Electric train has a new whistle that sounds very much like that of the Southern Pacific that runs near the same time. As the S. P. tracks are only about a mile and a quarter away and the whistle can be distinctly heard, many mistakes are made in consequence.

Our good neighbor, George Holsheimer, is considering trading his home for a place in Honolulu. He has probably been there before, as he was formerly a sailor. When Philip voluntarily answered the call to the colors, the community felt the loss, although
