number of the larger boys will take charge of the War Garden on the school grounds and will keep up the work throughout the summer. Every Friday afternoon will be devoted to actual work from 1 to 3 p. m., after which the school will go into session for the purpose of collecting the savings for thrift stamps and devoting the remainder of the time to drill work in recitals and recitations.

The play for April 1 is being well prepared for and a good rendition of the comic parts may be expected. Sale of tickets is made thruout the week and a large attendance is confidently expected.

Rev. Father J. E. Rubis, well known in the community, formerly of St. Mary's Orphanage, now pastor of the church in Albany was a visitor at the Parish residence on Wednesday evening, and assisted in the Chapel at the exercises on Holy Thursday morning. His many friends and acquaintances called on him at the residence during the evening and morning. Special services during the Holy week will be observed by reciting the stations of the Cross, beginning at half past seven on Good Friday evening, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament on Saturday evening beginning at the same hour. Easter Sunday services will take place at the usual hours, 7:45 and 9:45 a. m. and Vesper services with Benediction in the evening at half past seven.

NEWS OF ELMONICA.

Holt Dietz, Correspondent.

Say, did you see that nice looking soldier at the Aloha masquerade? Well, that was Miss Minnie Holsheimer, the Red Cross nurse was her sister, Mrs. Morton of Eugene, who was visiting her.
G. Holsheimer was very sad Saturday because he didn't have a partner to go to the Aloha masquerade, as his wife wouldn't go.
Mr. Holsheimer, the Beaverton Times has an advertising section.
Philip Holsheimer, private, C. A. C., gladdened the hearts of his parents by sending them a letter saying that he was now probably on the first lap of the journey to France as he was now in Virginia.
The last time he wrote he was stationed at Fort Stephens.

Mrs. Dopp is employed as a nurse in Portland. She seems to be well qualified for this position.

Miss Olive Courtin is now in Seattle. She has been there about a month and is expected home Easter.

John Trachsel brought a load of fertilizer home Thursday of last week from Portland.

Mr. Pauli has about 50 chicks "All colors of the Rainbow."
Three hens are taking care of them.

Miss Mary Gestra was distributing conservation food cards last week. (Continued on Page Six.)

For County Judge

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the Republican nomination for county judge. I am the present incumbent of the office and willing to be judged by past performance, for if nominated and elected I will continue to conduct the office as in the past in the manner which experience has led me to believe is for the best interests of all the taxpayers.
