

For Sale.

We have one of the finest listings of property in this county as a result of our recent efforts in that line. These are samples of what we can offer you:

376 Acres, 200 in cultivation, 100 in fall wheat, 40 acres fine Beaverdam land all in high state of cultivation. Good house and out buildings complete; running water, family orchard, completely equipped with farm machinery, horses, cows, etc. Some fine timber on the place. This is one of the best farms in Washington County and well located. Price $125.00 per acre. Terms that are easy.

121 1/2 Acres, 30 under cultivation, some stump and brush land, some timber, all good soil, 1/4 mile to school and railroad; running water on place, no buildings. Price $80.00 per acre. Terms if desired.

267 Acres, 100 in cultivation, 1 mile to good town, good house, barn, etc. All good soil. Some pasture land and balance in fine timber. Price $75.00 per acre.

We are advising our clients to buy now prices are right, below what they have been at any time within the past few years, prices of farm produce are good and may be better for several years. We can offer terms to suit you on a great deal of the property listed with us.

STROUD & TUCKER,
Real Estate, Loans, Life and Fire Insurance.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

R. Matteson, Forest Grove, Present Incumbent, Seeks Re-Election, Basing His Claim for Recognition on The Work Accomplished by The Present County Court in The Interests of The County at Large.

R. Matteson of Forest Grove is a candidate for re-election to the office of County Commissioner. Being a member of the present County Court, he asks endorsement of his acts and policies therein and seeks the Republican nomination at the primaries, May 17.

(Paid Advertisement.)

LOCAL TALENT PLAY

Members of the Cedar Mills Auxilliary of the Red Cross present

"Her Friend, The Enemy"

A CIVIL WAR DRAMA IN FOUR ACTS

at Grange Hall, Cedar Mills, 20
Saturday Evening, APRIL

Do you know your neighbors when on the stage? Guess who's who.

CAST OF CHARACTERS:

CAPTAIN JACK FERNBROOK, U. S., Who holds honor above all
FRANK FLEMING A scapegrace
COLONEL JAMES BURTON, C. S. A., With strong convictions
LIEUTENANT BERKELEY BURTON, C. S. A., His son
ZEBEDIAH JENKS Yank to the backbone
LIGE A negro servant
DIANA BURTON Of Richmond
MRS. BURTON Her mother
ADDIE JENKS Zebedah's daughter
AUNT CHLOE Lige's better half
Union and Confederate Soldiers, Etc.

Time in Representation, Two and one-half hours

SYNOPSIS:

ACT I.—Zebedah's Farm in the Berkshire Hills of Massachusetts. ("Fort Sumter Has Fallen.")
ACT II.—Parlor in Colonel Burton's Home in Richmond, April 1, 1865. (The Return of the Old Love.)
ACT III.—The same, April 2. ("Sergeant, There Lies Your Man.")
ACT IV.—The same, April 3. (The fate of a traitor.)

There is a lapse of four years between acts one and two. The action of Acts Two, Three and Four occur on the day of the entrance of the Union Army into Richmond and the two days preceding.

Music by Larsen's Orchestra. Tickets on sale at May's store and by members of the Red Cross. Every cent of proceeds goes to the benefit of the Red Cross.

Don't forget! It's a Red Cross Benefit!

Third Liberty Loan Starts Saturday, April 6.

Let's Put Over Our Quota for Eastern Washington County the First Day and Have it Over With.

We Believe that the Eastern End of Washington County is the Most Loyal Section of the United States. Because We Believe This, We Are Going to Put Over Our Quota of The Third Liberty Loan The First Day of the Drive. Eastern Washington County Without Fail Has Gone "Over The Top" Every Time Yet. We Won't Fall This Time. So, Let's Do It The First Day and Get Some Good of It-Ourselves.

Everyone do his part and it's easy.

This space donated by E. S. May, Cedar Mills Store.

War Savings News.

Fine reports are coming in from the house to house canvassing committees.

The high marks in W. S. S. sold as far as reported to date are:

District No. 78, Carlon—H. Herschel Clutter chairman, $2,000.

District No. 21, Academy—Joseph Groff chairman, $1,848.

District No. 108, Hiteon—C. Van Kleek chairman, $1,692.

District No. 26, Tualatin—A. E. Robinson chairman, $1,499.

District No. 12, Greenville—George Heyndericks, chairman, $1,118.25.

The following districts are 100 per cent War Savers reporting every family buying War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps except some who have already bought Liberty Bonds.

District No. 19, Sewall District—James Sewell, chairman.

District No. 50—Mountain-side, W. W. Jaquith, chairman.

District No. 51—Meachan, Earl Hollenbeck chairman.

A large number of others have reported every one purchasing who reasonably could be expected to do so.

N. A. FROST,
Chairman War Savings.

BEAVERTON SCOUTS

The boy scouts are going to take a part in the third Liberty Loan drive. They will have a special drive of their own from April 20 to April 30.

Scout Master G. A. Van Antwerp has received his instructions and the scout manuals.

The scouts are trying to get a vacant lot for a war garden. If any person has ground which he will donate for this purpose, will he please notify the scout master or tell one of the scouts.

The next meeting of the scouts will be on Monday, April 8. Visitors are invited and applications of candidates solicited.

Mrs. J. Waldo Fine of McCoy, wife of Lieutenant Fine who is now in France, spent Easter in Beaverton, the guest of Mrs. B. A. Rohse.

Conservation is The Watchword of The Day. Let us help you.

What more effective way to conserve your own resources and do your bit to save raw materials and labor, than to make last season's straw hat do another year. You can make it look better than new. Just change its hue with

COLORITE

Makes straw look like new

Colors new over

Also for satin, silk and canvas slippers and basketry

All colors. Anyone can use it.

See the Window Display at

DEAN'S DRUG STORE.