EL MONICA NEWS

Holt Dietz, Correspondent

The family, Dietz, felt honored last Friday in assembling to celebrate the thirty-third anniversary of the birth of their friend H. T. Burrows, the "welcome guest" as Bill Dietz fondly dubs him. The guests present at Dietzwood were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Burrows, parents of "the man of the hour," and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ball and daughter Margaret, all of Portland.

Albert Keehn and H. Dopp have been working at the shipyards in Portland.

Mrs. Gestra was in Beaverton Tuesday. It is reported that she intends to move to Beaverton.

Mrs. Tonges and two daughters went to Portland Tuesday to shop.

The ground is quite wet yet for plowing. Very few people around here are plowing as yet.

George Keene, of Cedar Mills, was in Elmonica Monday, from there he went to Beaverton.

The two Misses Trachsel went to Hillsboro Monday.

UNCLE HIGH SAYS:

It's up to everybody NOW to get busy and tickle the earth with a garden rake, and make a garden that will help lick the Kaiser.

Monday, Mrs. Pauli left home for Lebanon where she will visit some friends and attend to some business both in Lebanon and Albany. She expects to be gone about a week.

TIS FREEDOM'S CALL

LEND YOUR ALL

Nearly every one has taken liberty bonds. Elmonica is quite proud of this, as it has a very high percentage of German ancestry.

Do not attribute the cause of the remnants of the flag being down, to pure carelessness or anything of the sort. The reason is, upon investigation, that the rope is out of the pulley. Many comments have been made upon this, and it should be remedied. Why not NOW? Gestra's have some little ducklings.

George Holsheimer has about 150 baby chicks.

J. T. Melloy has bought a ten-acre tract two miles north of Hillsboro and moved Wednesday to his new home. The property was formerly owned by Mrs. Carrie Shedvin and is on Route 3 out of Hillsboro. Mr. and Mrs. Melloy have made a host of firm friends in this locality who are sorry to see them leave, for they are people who do things in the community where they live. We shall expect to hear from them often in their new home, for it is not all in surroundings that enables such people as the Melloys to win their way.

Leave your kodak finishing at The Times office.
