

School Notes.

The following is quoted from a letter sent by County Superintendent Frost to every school board in Washington County.

"Do not hire any teacher who is not a loyal, patriotic American actually helping in Uncle Sam's War Work. No teacher can teach conservation, Red Cross, Thrift and War Savings and honor to the flag who does not practice these things. No neutral teacher will be tolerated in Washington County next year. You should mention this when talking about hiring. Even if you know that the teacher is all right the fact that you demand a pledge of that kind will put life into her work."

She will know that you are right back of her."

County Supt.

M. S. Barnes Has Birthday.

Sunday, April 14, the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Barnes was the scene of a happy family gathering, the occasion being their twenty-eighth wedding anniversary and also the seventy-first birthday of Mr. M. S. Barnes and sixty-ninth birthday of his brother J. W. Barnes and the sixty-fifth birthday of another brother, J. C. Barnes. A splendid dinner was served at noon and the afternoon spent in visiting, singing and reciting.

Several nice solos were sung and especially interesting was the long old fashioned song "The Last Grand Charge" sung by Mrs. John McLeod. Pleasing selections by Edith and Hazel Barnes, Mr and Mrs. Calvin Barnes, Mildred McLeod and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barnes helped to entertain those present. Mr. J. W. Barnes gave several of his choice recitations and was followed by Gladys McLeod and Mr. H. E. Coleman.

Mr. M. S. Barnes is very hale and hearty and took part in the entertaining, reciting many old time favorites. He has lived in Oregon 35 years and for 30 years resided on a farm 2 miles north of town moving to this city in the fall of 1913. He has 18 grand children and 5 great grand children.

Those present, who wished him many happy birthdays to come, were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Coleman and daughter, Naomi, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Orton McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod, Mrs. Eleanor Griffen, Mrs. Lillie Barnes, Misses Edith and Hazel Barnes, Gladys and Eldon McLeod, Cecil Barnes, Mr. Smith of California, Mildred McLeod, Clinton Barnes and Lucile Barnes.

Your Teeth

Are your best friends, for in their work lies the guard which Nature has placed against indigestion. If they do their work well, good digestion is practically assured. Decayed teeth cannot do good work, but a clean tooth never decays.

Because of our modern methods of eating and living, a simple brushing will not clean the teeth of the acids and sediments that collect on them. You must have a good dentifrice. Here are three of the best:

- COLGATES DENTAL CREAM
- REXALL TOOTH PASTE
- LILLY DENTAL PASTE

We can recommend any of the three.

If you want clean teeth—and of course you do—you cannot do better than to supply your needs here. At this season, when the blood is just beginning to thin for the summer months, the acids and particles of food are exceptionally liable to start decay in the teeth. Now is an important time to keep them clean with a reliable dentifrice.
