Triumph Commemorated.

The musical numbers, furnished by the talented people of the several sections of the district, were of exceptional merit and were greeted with continued applause. The speakers were of that able and entertaining type who know when and what to say and better yet, when to stop and the applause that greeted them was equal to that given the musical numbers.

The Third Liberty Loan Honor Flag, awarded to Oregon alone of all the states, started its journey of the honor towns of the state by coming to Beaverton that night and floating its folds to the breeze which flapped it gently as if with pride that the best town in the best state in the best country in the world was thus signally honored.

Mrs. Rice of Whitford sang an appropriate bugle song, written shortly after the close of the Civil War and recounting the exploit of a bugler in that struggle.
To the hearty applause, she responded with "Spring is Coming," a carol well suited to her well trained voice.

Mrs. K. E. Britch of Huber favored the assemblage with a pleasing rendition of popular and patriotic songs. She was twice encored as was also Mr.
Herse, whose well-selected songs of the hour drew a popular response from his hearers. Like applause greeted the duet by Mr.
Herse and Mr. Darby, making complete the success of the western section.

Mrs. Wheeler of Garden Home read "The Launching of the Ship," and in response to the hearty applause, won additional honors with a rendition of the popular and appropriate "Potatoes."

Doy Gray, Executive Chairman, recounted the work done in the drive which netted 644 bond buyers and $54,750, just a trifle over 516 1/2 per cent of (Concluded in Supplement.)

Here's The Latest! Garden Tractor Replaces Horse!

E. Stipe received a Beeman garden tractor this week and delivered it to Mr. Wvgant at Huber. Any person interested in such a machine will do well to take a trip to Huber and see it in operation on Mr. Wvgant's place. The machine is built to do anything in the way of cultivating that can be done with one horse. At the present price for feed, the tractor will easily save on-half its cost, $285.00 F.
O. B. factory, the first year, besides being less trouble than a horse. The added freight is about $18 here. Mr. Stipe will be glad to take the order of any person wishing to buy one.

James H. Davis, whose home is in Sorrento, was down from Hillsboro Saturday where he has the position of County Recorder.
He is not a candidate for re-election, but he wants to be made county treasurer and he was telling his friends about it. He has made a good county recorder and we see no good reason why he is not the man to keep the county's money safe for the next two years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hocken celebrated their 49th wedding anniversary Saturday by entertaining Mr. and Mrs. James Garson, Miss Marian Gould, Mrs. W.
H. Pearce and daughter Evelyn, and Mrs. Frank Sterrett, all of Portland, and Beaverton friends at dinner. Singing and conversation made the time pass all too quickly.

Compare Your Baby's
First Four Years
With This

In 1913 Little Marie was born in a village not far from Metzleres, in the Ardennea.

In 1914 Marie's father, called to the colors, fell at the Marne. And Marie and her mother stayed in the village, which was now in the Germans' hands.

In 1915 a poster was pasted up on the door of the village church, and that night Marie's mother vanished, along with a score or more of other women.

In 1916 Marie was still living in that village—existing through the charity of the few elderly folk the Germans permitted to stay.

In 1917 Marie, with all the children under fourteen years and all the old people left alive in the village, was bundled into a crowded car and shipped into Germany, round through Switzerland and thence into France, arriving at Evian. She was underfed, of course, emaciated, sickly, dirty, too lightly dressed for the time of year.
And she came into Evian with not a relative, not a friend left in all France to take care of her.

Who took her? Your Red Cross!

Over there in Evian your Red Cross took charge of her, cared for her in the Red Cross Children's Hospital, clothed her, fed her, built up her strength, taught her to play—and then helped the French authorities find her a HOME.

Multiply Marie by 500 and you will have some idea of just one day's work your Red Cross does at Evian. It is only one of the Red Cross activities in France, to be sure—but for just that one alone can you help being proud of it? Can you help being glad you are a member of it, supporting its great work of humanity? Can you help wanting it to go on helping the Maries and the "grand-daddies" that come in at Evian?

THE TRAIN THAT SAVED
A NATION
How the Red Cross Helped Roumania.

Have you heard of what happened in Roumania when that stricken nation stood in rags and starving before the shocked eyes of the world? We had thought ourselves grown used to tragedies until this greater horror struck a blow that 'roused still untouched sympathies.

And yet we felt so helpless, you and I, so terribly weak in our ability to of-

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Melloy were in Beaverton Saturday on their way home from a week at Gresham. Mr. Melloy is well pleased with his new home near Hillsboro, but likes to come back to Beaverton at times.

fer aid. But were we? After all, were we not the very ones who carried new life and hope to the heart of Roumania? You shall be your own judge.

Fighting with the desperation of despair, the shattered Roumanian army still struggled to beat off the Kaiser's bloody Huns, who were mercilessly trampling the life out of the little kingdom. And the Kaiser smiled brutally as he saw his wolves at work and knew that from behind the lines, attacking the fighting men of Roumania from the rear, entering the homes where mothers clung to the frail, distorted forms of their babies—was starvation.

No country around Roumania could help her—and America was too far away. Thousands would die before supplies held in our own country could be sent her.

Hope was gone. Death by hunger and by the dripping sword of the Kal-ser was closing in. A brave little nation was being torn to pieces.

Then came the miracle. One morning the streets of Jassy, the war capital of Roumania, swelled with sounds of rejoicing. A city where the day before there was heard nothing but the walls of the starving and the lamentations of those mourning their dead now was awakened by shouts of joy.

You, my friend; you who have helped in the heroic work of the American Red Cross, had gone to the rescue of Roumania. A train of 81 big freight cars packed to their utmost capacity with food, clothing and medicine, tons upon tons of it, had arrived in Jassy after making a record breaking trip from the great store houses of the American Red Cross in Russia. Other trains followed it; thousands were fed and clothed and nursed back to health.
For weeks and even to this day the brave people of Roumania are being cared for in countless numbers by our own Red Cross.

So was Roumania helped, and when history records how this last fragment of a sturdy nation was kept out of the hands of the terrible Huns it will give the victory to your American Red Cross.

Calling cards at the Times office.

Judge C. E. Kindt of Portland and well known in Beaverton, was here yesterday on business and calling on old friends.

Mrs. O. G. Russell was over from Cedar Mills Saturday and made this office a pleasant call.
The Cedar Mills Red Cross gave its play the second time and netted over $40. The auxiliary at that place is just entering upon its second year, having had a very successful season.
