E. A. Hendricks has the thanks of the Times for some as fine mammoth blackberries as ever grew outdoors. Washington County soil and climate, aided by intelligent and careful training will produce wonderfully well, as Mr. Hendricks has amply proven on his fine little home west of town.

Dr. Paul M. E. Carstens was in Beaverton Wednesday from his Portland offices. He reports the birth of a 7-pound boy to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bierly on July 6.

Residents of School District No. 48 are Asked to Fill Blank.

In order that the work of the next committee that gives of its time to the work of raising funds for Uncle Sam may be made as productive, as direct and as pleasant as may be, the publisher of this paper and Mr. C. E. Hedge have undertaken to classify this school district by means of a card index. The card is reproduced below on this page and this is an invitation to every resident of this district to fill out this card just as far as you are willing to do so and hand to Mr. Hedge or leave at this office. As this is a purely voluntary matter, no attempt will be made to coerce anyone into giving the desired information and the information which is given will be open only to the authorized committees working on the nation's business. In other words, we are collecting and arranging in an orderly manner facts which are already public property and are affording an opportunity for all to place before the committees charged with the task of raising Uncle Sam's funds in this community, those facts that have a bearing on your ability to give to the charities and to invest in the securities that are a part of our work in the great world war.

If you fill out this card, we are in possession of exact information about what you have done and what you are able to do.

There will doubtless be those who will not furnish any further facts than those now in the possession of the committees. That is their privilege, for this is simply a voluntary matter; but if this information is not forthcoming, the best information obtainable will be tabulated and so made available for the committees of the next Liberty Loan.

This is merely an opportunity offered you to get the facts of your particular case before the men who actually report on the patriotism and loyalty you display.

It You Live in School District No. 48, please fill out this Blank and Return to The Times office or hand to C. E. Hedge.
