Letters from The Boys Who Have Gone to Make the World Safe for Democracy

Letter received by Miss Jennie Fitzpatrick from her brother, Vincent, now on the fighting line in France:

On the Line, July 12, 1918.—

Dear Jennie: Received your letter some time ago, I was very glad to hear from you. Haven't received very much mail since we came to this front. Am writing this in a dugout and have a very poor place and light but I guess you will be able to read it. Just a couple of days ago Fritz made it so hot for us we had to move our horses under fire. They sure came pretty fast and real close too. Although no one was hurt very badly J. O. Emmons was scratched slightly in the side but it was so slight that it hardly bled any. Have a piece of one of the shots that came over, will save it for a souvenir as it is one of our lucky shots. It landed in the middle of 150 horses and about the same number of men and hit no one. Was over to see a dentist this afternoon but didn't get any work done, am going back in the a. m. This is July 14 so guess I will finish this letter. Moved since I started this letter but we are still on the same front. Today is French Independence day and they are having a big celebration. So was Fritz this a. m. about 5:00 o'clock, he woke me up by dropping about 200 rounds of H. E. but he didn't do any harm by doing it. But they sure make a very interesting whistle when on their way over, although I guess ours gives about the same music to his ears only we send over more kisses than he can send back. Just now received your letter and read it, also the card and gum, am chewing the gum now, tastes pretty good. Was out stealing cherries this a. m. they sure tasted good. Received a letter from Dick just the other day. He didn't have much to say. As yet he hasn't been on the firing line. But he will get there soon enough. Oh, yes I also received your Red Cross button but it was broken in three pieces. Well news is scarce so will close for this time. With love, VINCENT.

Redeem your pledge. Do not wait for a notice.

The War Savings Committee has reported to the State Chairman total pledges and purchases of W. S. S. in Washington County $534,470. Our quota was $534,000. This means that every one must absolutely fulfill his pledge and some will have to do a little extra to make up for losses by people moving away, etc.

Every district chairman will be furnished with a list of names of those pledging in his district with the amounts pledged for each month. Each district will be checked up at least twice during the year. Possession of the stamps is your receipt for purchases. The original pledge cards will be kept on file in the school superintendent's office in Hillsboro except in case of some of the towns where they will be placed in the postoffice or the banks.

N. A. FROST,
County Chairman W. S.

Rev. George N. Taylor, formerly of Tigard and one of the field workers of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, but now pastor of the United Presbyterian Church of Kenton, was in Beaverton on Tuesday to take up his Third Liberty Loan bond at the Bank of Beaverton. Rev. Taylor was a layman of the church and prior to his work with the Anti-Saloon League was a successful commercial traveller. When war conditions created a dearth of pastors, Mr. Taylor was asked to take the pastorate of the church at Kenton and has made good from the start. He had no theological seminary training for the work, but he had the successful schooling of years on the road and he understood men and women, a qualification for a public trust that colleges are able to give to only a few of the many who seek it.

CAN YOU FIND THE WASTE IN TOWN WATER SYSTEM?

Last Month, With the Largest Use of Water in the History of The Town, Receipts Were Less Than Bills.

By the courtesy of Mr. C. E. Hedge, recorder of the Town of Beaverton, we are enabled to present the following information of interest to water users:

By resolution of the Council, those users of water not on a meter who want to use water for sprinkling purposes or irrigation, may pay $4.00 in advance and use the water for the balance of the calendar year, but otherwise they must pay $1.00 per month for the sprinkling privilege.

The past month so much water was used that was not paid for that the following list of water users who paid is given:

Cady & Pegg, for season,	$4.00
Jo Corerri do.	4.00
C. F. Johnson do.	4.00
W. L. Mason do.	4.00
E. A. Story do.	4.00
T. C. Stark do.	4.00
M. Welter do.	4.00
V. A. Wood do.	4.00
W. E. Bevdler (now on meter) do.	1.00
Cady Building do.	2.00
Jo Dirio do.	1.00
C. H. Fry do.	1.00
Rev. G. A. Gray do.	1.00
R. S. Guppy do.	3.00
Thos. Hvland do.	2.00
L. F. Hines do.	1.00

Last month there were 125 users of water, of whom 54 were on meters and 71 were on the flat rate of $1.00 per month. All on meters have a minimum of $1.00 per month except those outside the town limits who pay $1.25 per month.

Receipts for July were the largest of any month to date and totalled $305.80, but the cost of the water for the month was $348.60, leaving a deficit of $42.80. Everyone is asked to help to find and stop the big waste.

C. E. HEDGE,
Recorder-Treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lang, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Britch and Mrs. L. Darby and children were at Rockaway Beach last week. Mrs. Britch and Mrs. Lang will remain until about the first of September.

Gone for Venison.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boyd and Victor Emmons and his sisters, Mrs. Lutie Ross and Miss Orma, left yesterday morning for Yahotz, south of Newport, to spend the next two weeks hunting for deer.

It is the annual vacation for the two rural mail carriers and they are going to make the most of it. During their absence the mail on Route 2 will be carried by August Paulson while Mrs. F. S. Kelly will substitute for Mr. Emmons.

The many friends of the party here will wish them every success in their effort.

Runaway Accident Nearly Wrecks Bank Window.

A runaway accident on Thursday afternoon of last week came near to wrecking the big plate glass front of the Bank of Beaverton. A team left standing in front of the livery stable became restless and started around the block. The farther they went the faster they went and by the time they had rounded the block they were going at a good clip and came near colliding with F. J. Brauer's delivery truck. Mr. Brauer sought to avoid them, but his steering gear failed to respond and he collided with a hydrant. This caused the team to shy toward the bank corner and in doing so they straddled two telephone poles standing close together at the bank corner. The tongue broke from the wagon and the smaller of the poles was broken off. Had the wagon gone but a few feet further it would have smashed the big plate-glass windows of the bank, but as it was the damage was confined to the broken wagon tongue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Neipert of near Aloha spent last week at Garibaldi Beach and while there Mr. Neipert secured a position as millwright in the new sawmill under construction there, so they have purchased a lot, will build a house and make Garibaldi their home for a while.

Phyllis Uptegrove has as her guest this week her friend Hazel Reeves from Seaside.
