RED CROSS BAZAAR NETS $322.61 TO LOCAL

Last Saturday's Efforts of Local Auxiliary Help Along Cause of Relief.

The bazaar given last Saturday in Cady Hall was a decided success in every way, and netted the workers $322.61. The booths were built by W. C. McKell and W. H. Boyd. One booth was decorated in red and green and was presided over by Mrs. Wilmot, every article in it was made and donated by her.

Mrs. F. G. Donaldson had charge of the apron booth. The aprons were made and donated by members of the Red Cross.

Mrs. Josephine Dunn had charge of a booth containing miscellaneous articles; among them were some beautiful handkerchiefs made by Mrs. Blosser, table mats by Mrs. E. E. Berst, beautiful pillow slips by Mrs. Guppy and Mrs. Hoover. Mrs. John Summers a very pretty dress, Mrs. Nora Carter, pretty towel, and other articles too numerous to mention. Mrs. H. E. Stipe had charge of the grab bag which furnished a great deal of amusement and all seemed well peased with their prizes. Miss Oma Emmons had the jar of squash seeds. The one guessing the nearest number of seeds was given a pretty picture donated by Mrs. Wilmot. Mr. King was the successful guesser. Miss Grete Gray took care of the bean bags which gave much pleasure.

Mrs. Boring tied the rugs that had been woven, which was very much appreciated by the Red Cross members. Mrs. Clement, Mrs. Elmer Stipe, Mrs. Robert Summers and Mrs. Harris donated some very choice canned fruit.

Mrs. F. J. Brauer donated coffee and butter, Mrs. A. H. Spraner coffee, Earl Evans sugar, and Dr. C. E. Mason the bread. Earl Fisher and Lawrence Wolf donated dill pickles. F. H. Cady gave the free use of the hall.

W. H. Boyd donated a rooster and Mrs. E. E. Berst a sack of onions. All salads and cakes were donated by members of the community. The turkey donated by Mrs. F. G. Donaldson was won by R. B. Wilson of Hillsboro, and the neat sum of $50 was added to the treasury as a result of raffling it off.

The center piece made and donated by Mrs. R. N. Donaldson was won by John Hunter. The nine patch quilt made at Red Cross rooms was won by Mrs. Wm. Hunter. Blazing star quilt donated by Mrs. Petch was won by Mr. Wilmot. Irish chain quilt donated by Mrs. Butner won by Miss Christine Johnson.

Refreshments were served during the afternoon and evening.

The bazaar was closed by the Honor Guard girls giving one of their excellent programs. Some of the numbers are given below:

TOBACCO FOR THE BOYS

AN AMERICAN RED CROSS TRUCK BRINGING CASES OF TOBACCO FOR OUR SOLDIERS AT THE FRONT.

BEST CHRISTMAS GIFT.

What finer Christmas gift could the American people give to a stricken world than the announcement on Christmas Eve that the entire nation has answered the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call. It would signify to the starving, sick and homeless that our humanity does not depend upon the excitement of war, but that neighborliness is just as strong in us in times of peace. A unanimous response will hearten the whole world.

Reading—Georgiana Malarkey; Hawaiian guitar solo—Doris Allen; vocal solo—Mrs. J. E. Davis, violin solo—Delbert Spraner accompanied on piano by Violet Spranger.

After the program Mr. Swenson proved himself a genius as auctioneer in disposing of the cakes that were left and the articles that were not sold.

Cooper Mountain News.

Mat Blomquist was a Rose City visitor Friday.

John Thorpe of the Spruce Division Vancouver visited with his aunt Mrs. John Barron recently. His home is Dayton, Ohio.

Miss Louise and Emma Huber were Portland passengers Sunday.

Walter Hart, prominent Oregon poultryman, was home from Salem last of the week.

Mr. A. Kaufman and Albert Kemmer have been on the sick list the past week.

Messrs. John Barron and Hiddleston were in Hillsboro on business Tuesday.

Bertha Kaufman visited at the Barron home Sunday.

Miss Hilda Jacobson left this week for an extended visit with relatives in Portland.

The Scholls Telephone Co. is building a new line down the north side of Cooper Mountain.

Joe Kemmer is home from West Timber on a visit.

Mr. John Roose is erecting a new house.

Mr. Leo Sams was home from his work at Oregon City last of the week visiting with his family here.

The Cooper Mountain sawmill is planking their road out to the Scholls Ferry.

Miss Norma Sams received word that her cousin Fred Sams was badly wounded in France.

With over $300 road funds "resting" in Hillsboro banks why not get some of the crushed rock for Cooper Mountain mud holes? The county court if asked, could arrange to have the auto truck haul same from the Beaverton quarry. Those mud holes—different from other crops—grow in the winter time. "Fix 'em now."

COUNTY INSTITUTE HONOR GIVEN MRS. ADA T. WILSON

Beaverton Teacher Elected Delegate to Oregon State Teachers Association.

Teachers of Washington County, assembled in annual institute at Hillsboro Saturday, named Mrs. Ada Teal Wilson, principal of the grade school, as one of the delegates to the Oregon State Teachers' Association which meets in Portland Christmas week. Other delegates are: Supt. N. A. Frost, ex officio delegate, and J. A. Dopp of Forest Grove, who with Mrs. Wilson, represent the county institute, and Mrs. Josephine Case and M. N. Bonham who represent the Washington County Teachers' Association.

Officers elected were: B. W. Barnes of Hillsboro, president; Miss Anna Taylor of Forest Grove, first vice president; G. E. Richards, second vice president; Mrs. Hattie Ball, third vice president; Miss Wethered, secretary.

Addresses before the institute were made by Supt. J. A. Churchill of Salem, Dr. H. D. Sheldon of Eugene and Mrs. Blanche R. Blumauer of Port-

BEAVERTON GRANGE ENTERTAINED POMONA

County Central Gathering at Local Hall Well Attended Although Flu Keeps Many Away.

With nearly a hundred members present and taking part, Pomona Grange, the central county body of the farmers, organizations, was entertained by the local grange Wednesday. The session extended over the entire day and evening. Business sessions occupied the morning and afternoon and at noon a sumptuous dinner was enjoyed by the visitors.

The evening session was given over to the conferring of degrees and the literary part of the meeting. Beaverton grange won the Pomona prize of $5.00 for conferring the fourth degree and was also highly complimented by the Master.

Such a dinner as only the ladies of Beaverton Grange know how to prepare was enjoyed by visitors and home folks alike. More than a hundred plates were laid. There was an abundance of the plenty of the land and merriment ran high as the viands added to the health of those present.

A large class took the fifth degree.

Officers were elected as follows:

C. H. Hayes, Sherwood, Master.

J. C. Leedy, Kinton, Overseer. Mrs. Beck, Riverside, Lecturer.

Harold Cutting, Kinton, Steward.

T. B. Denny, Beaverton, Assistant Steward.

Rev. H. P. Blake, Winona, Chaplain.

R. B. Collins, Hillsboro, Gatekeeper.

M. E. O'Neil, Dilly, secretary.

B. K. Denny, Beaverton, treasurer.

Mrs. Helen Davis, Beaverton, Pomona.

Mrs. Helen Erickson, Winona, Ceres.

Mrs. Leedy, Kinton, Lady Assistant Steward.

Everything is in readiness for the Red Cross membership drive, which begins December 16 and ends December 23. Oregon is preparing once more to go over the ton and the state machinery built up by State Manager H. E. Witham, assisted in every county by the local chapters of the Red Cross, will be set in motion next Monday morning. There will be no future drives of the Red Cross for war funds. The coming drive is for membership.

land, Supt. Churchill's "Standards for English in the Eighth Grade," and Dr. Sheldon's "Marquis de La Fayette" were exceptionally well received.

Beaverton's teachers were all in attendance.
