COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES TO BE HELD THURSDAY

Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday at Methodist Church—Music Recital Tuesday Night.

Commencement exercises at the Beaverton High School will be held Thursday evening, June 5th. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday at the Methodist Church, and a recital will be given Tuesday evening by the music students of Miss Leah Lieser.

The graduating class consists of five promising young men and women of Beaverton. In spite of adverse conditions in school this year, they have done exceptionally good work and have fully earned the honor which will be conferred on them Thursday night. Owing to the heavy work falling on them during the last half of the school year, their part in the graduation exercises will not be as pretentious as would otherwise be the case, but the school year will draw to a close with a week of enjoyable activities, ending with a school picnic on Friday.

The graduates are: Misses Edith Weed and Irma Harris, and Erwin Lechner, Herman Schlotzman and Charles Trachsel.

GRANGE TO HOLD ROSE SHOW

Beaverton Grange will hold its annual Rose show on Saturday, June 14th.

Beaverton Beats Champions

Beaverton, May 25—In a hotly contested game the local ball club slipped one over on the best independent team in Portland to the tune of 4-0. Despite the visitors' reputation the locals played ball like veterans and in the eighth inning the Baby Beavers got the fatal pill.

Score by innings—
Baby Beavers— 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0
Summary: Beaverton—Runs, Blauer, Emmons, Scherner, Summers, 1; hits, Dessinger, 2, Blauer, Scherner, Welter, 1. Baby Beavers—Hits, Wilson, 2.

Beaverton will play Reedville today (Friday) at 2:30 P. M. and the St. John's Lumber Co. team next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hedge returned Monday from a week spent at Heppner. They drove the 200 miles there the first day, the roughest roads found being between Beaverton and Multnomah County line. Three years ago Mr. Hedge made the same trip and it took him two and one-half days to make the same drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Doy Gray entertained the Sorrento Club Saturday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McKell, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Donaldson. The evening was enjoyed in playing "500."

LAST OF BEAVERTON'S HEROES REACHED HOME THIS WEEK

Vincent Fitzpatrick, Leon Davis and James O. Emmons Return From France to Hearty Welcome Home.

The last of the heroes who answered the call when Uncle Sam first sent the word that he needed men have returned to Beaverton, for on Sunday Vincent Fitzpatrick surprised his sisters by walking in upon them and a few minutes later was welcomed at his home and on Monday James O. Emmons and Leon Davis arrived with the contingent of Western heroes at Portland and later in the day arrived in Beaverton on furlough.

Plans are already under way for rousing receptions to them and friends are mingling congratulations with questions about the experiences that they had over there.

The Honor Guard will give a banquet to the overseas boys about the middle of June, to be followed by a reception and dance for all who wore the Olive Drab. There were 20 present at the banquet tendered by the Honor Guard when the boys went away. They promised a real banquet when the boys came back. There will be 19 of these boys at the banquet at that time and the girls will surely make good their promise.

Not all the other plans have yet taken definite form but there will be no dearth of entertainment for the boys who have come home and Beaverton will show them that she is proud of every man who wore the Olive Drab uniform.

MUSIC RECITAL

On Tuesday evening, June 3rd, the music pupils of Miss Leah Lieser will appear in their first recital at the High School Auditorium. Misses Edna Hocken, Della Allen and Jessie Lieser will assist with vocal numbers. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Charles Craig, of Portland, was a caller at the Fisher residence one day last week.

Mrs. George Thyng entertained Misses Gladys Legg and Jessie Lieser at dinner Wednesday evening.

W. E. Beydler returned Monday evening from Greenburg, Kansas. He has sold his residence property in Beaverton and after settling up his business affairs here will return to Kansas to make his home.

Mesdames R. L. Tucker, Karl Swenson, H. O. Stipe, Doy Gray, Josephine Dunn, M. P. Nelson, Otto Erickson, W. J. Leonard, Martin Burgie, Elizabeth McGowan, W. J. Boyd, J. E. Davis, members of the card club, were entertained last Friday afternoon by Mrs. Elmer Stipe.

When William Campbell returned to Portland last week from two years in France, he had one desire after greeting his folks. That was to go fishing. He brought home a very fine lot of fishing tackle and the second day home saw him start on a fishing trip with his nephew, Elert Carstens. And this is pretty good proof to Beaverton people that his trip to France hasn't changed his likeable disposition, and they will welcome him here all the more heartily.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Thursday, May 22nd, the Seniors and the officers of the Student Body went to Portland to have pictures taken of themselves for the Annual. The Indian name "Eena," meaning 'Beaver,' has been decided on as a fitting title for our Annual.

Our farewell party given for the Seniors was well attended and every one went home convinced that a merry time could still be had at High School parties. After playing games for a time, partners were chosen and each couple had their fill of ice cream and cake, which the refreshment committee served them. Then following a request, each of the Seniors gave an extemporaneous farewell speech—they couldn't think of much to say, but they meant a good deal. After they had all spoken, they were requested to give a scene from "Hamlet" in two acts, which they had been practicing on in English class and had given that afternoon before the school. They complied with this request and duly performed it for the second time that day. Miss Irma Harris then announced that the Seniors would give a picnic for the rest of the school in the near future.

General Science class suffered a stiff examination on laboratory work last Monday afternoon.

The school calendar for next week is as follows: Sunday evening, Baccalaureate services, every one invited. Monday evening, the faculty will entertain Seniors at the home of R. H. Jonas. Tuesday evening, music recital by the pupils of Miss Leah Lieser, at the Auditorium, free for all. Thursday evening, Commencement exercises. Friday afternoon, school picnic.

RECEPTION TO SOLDIERS

Owing to a serious misunderstanding, the Beaverton Honor Guard wishes to announce a public reception, followed by a dance and refreshments, to be given in honor of all men who have been in the service of Uncle Sam.

The public are cordially invited to attend this reception and help extend the glad hand to all of our soldiers. This will be near the middle of June, and the date will be published when definitely settled.

A banquet will also be given by the Honor Guard near the middle of June, for all overseas boys, of Beaverton and vicinity, for which invitations will be sent later.

Most of the boys have returned from different camps in the States and overseas, so we tho't it best to entertain those who are here before they drift out of the community. Upon the return of other soldiers later another welcome and reception can be planned.

Music Recital

Everybody come. The music pupils of Miss Leah Lieser will make their first appearance in a recital, Tuesday evening, June 3rd.

L. Barnes and Lloyd Blauer were the victims of a professional "touch" a week ago Saturday night. They had cashed their checks and were hurrying to catch the train to Beaverton. Each of them noticed, but without particular thought, a man who jostled through the crowd but did not get on the train when it came. A little later they discovered that Mr. Barnes was $32 short and Mr. Blauer had lost $10, but both were richer in experience. They are not the only victims of Portland's wave of crime, but so far, we have heard of no other Beaverton people to suffer.

Mrs. Harry Venn and children returned Saturday from a three months' visit with her parents at Galveston, Texas.
