AN INVITATION.

The Times cordially invites every reader of this paper to become a reporter for us. We need news to make the paper of most value. If you take the trouble to send us the news you know, others will do likewise and you will get your reward in a better and newsier paper that will be able to do more for the upbuilding of the town and community and hence will profit every resident of the eastern end of Washington County.

The income from the Times is not large; hence we cannot spend the time or the effort in gathering news that we should like to spend; but as we have assured our readers in the past, we will keep pace with the needs of the town and we will gladly print all news that comes to us. We offer the Times as a clearing house for the happenings of Eastern Washington County.

If you have a friend who does not take The Times, send us his name. We will gladly send him a sample copy and urge him to become a member of our happy family of readers.

CARTY-FITZPATRICK

The marriage of Miss Mary E. Fitzpatrick and Mr. William Edward Carty was solemnized at St. Cecilia's church, at 8:00 A. M. with a special marriage ceremony pronounced by the Reverend Father O'Neill. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Jennie Fitzpatrick, and the best man was the bride's brother, Vincent. The younger brothers serving at the altar made it quite a family affair.

The bride was charming in a white silk voile dress with long veil and hair-dress, carrying a large bouquet of pink roses and white sweet peas. The attendant, Miss Jennie, wore a light blue silk voile of fashionable cut and a large picture hat, and carried a large bouquet of sweet peas.

After the bridal pair had received the best wishes of their many friends who witnessed the ceremony, they departed for the home of the bride's mother, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served by Mesdames W. H. Boyd, J. E. Davis and F. G. Donaldson. They then departed on a wedding tour, the destination of which they did not disclose, amidst the good wishes of all present for a long life together with many happy hours.

The bride was the former postmistress at Beaverton, and her happy, smiling face and cheerful words will be missed greatly by her many friends at the local window. The groom is a well-known young man, of Ridgefield, Wash., at which place they will make their home upon their return from the wedding tour.

Those present at the wedding breakfast were: Mrs. James Carty, James O'Rourke, Miss M. O'Rourke, H. Powers, Father O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carty, Miss Germa Maggerina, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fitzpatrick and Vincent, Jennie, Margaret, Rita, Lawrence, Edward and Laura Fitzpatrick and Mrs. B. A. Rohse.

PAVING WORK PROGRESSES

The Warren Construction Co., has a crew of men at work that is rushing the paving of Beaverton's streets right along. Good progress is being made and the big trucks give the main street a busy appearance and the paving is certainly making a hit with the motorists. Let's have more of it.

HAMILTON BOULEVARD
WILL BE IMPROVED

At an adjourned meeting of the town council held Wednesday night the petition of the property owners on Hamilton Street was allowed. The street will hereafter be known as Hamilton Boulevard, and will be paved full 20 feet wide. The paving will be so laid that the sidewalk and parking strip will occupy 15 feet on the north of the paving. These progressive property owners propose to make Hamilton Boulevard the most attractive street in town.
