It is wise, at times, to laugh at your own jokes. The other fellow may forget to do so.

In the absence of any other dis-gination, the unspeakable Turk still remains unspeakable.

It is a base slander to even suggest that women are wearing gingham dresses now because cotton is about as expensive as silk.

After all, a victorious war brings its disadvantages. When the map of Europe has been readjusted the children will all have to have new geographies.

ents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Emmons.

W. V. Uptegrove has purchased a home on the Mount Scott line in Portland and moved his family down Monday. Beaverton Livery took his goods in for him.

A few of the many bargains offered in Beaverton, may be found in this issue. Not the least of these is the opportunity to get the rough lumber for several houses at a bargain when the buildings of the old brick and tile factory are wrecked.

Francis A. Davies of Tigard is the authorized representative of Otto Erickson for the sale of Fords Ford-son tractors and Federal trucks for Tigard, Tualatin and Sherwood and is also privileged to sell anywhere in Washington County.

A surprise party was given Miss Luella Miller Monday in honor of her 14th birthday. Games were played, delicious refreshments were served and Miss Miller was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Among those present were: Cecilia Leis, Agnes Leis, Josefa Lagerfeld, Sidney Davis, Norman Davis, Agnes O'Meara, Martha McGee, Myrtle Davis and Mesdames Louis Hughson, William Davis and Frank Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stofer of Attica, Kans., are here for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hedge. Mrs. Stofer and Mrs. Hedge are sisters. Mr. and Mrs. Stofer have been visiting in Portland with another sister and Mr. and Mrs. Hedge drove down Sunday and joined them. Mr. Stofer is a former employee of the Santa Fe railroad but is now totally blind as the result of cataracts growing over his eyes. The Santa Fe has given him every consideration for which he speaks very highly.

Disease Kills Canada Thistle
"Can science kill Canada thistle with artificially propagated disease germs?" This is the problem plant pathologists of the O. A. C. experiment station have set themselves to answer. Large areas of this weed pest have been found in Lane and Polk counties dead and dying apparently from an attack of a fungus disease that strikes the stalks a little way above and below the surface of the ground. Under this attack the plants wilt, die and shrivel up. Cultures of the fungus have been made for H. P. Barss of the station and when properly identified will be used to inoculate healthy thistles with a view to wholesale destruction. Farmers are asked to assist in these investigations by sending specimens of plants suffering from disease, should they be able to find any. Applications for cultures should not be made until their worth is tested.

SERIOUS SHORTAGE OF LABOR

I walked into a Chinese laundry. It seemed to be the easiest way of getting in. He stood behind a little cage, evidently a protection against violence. He was scratching both elbows at the same time. I summoned up my best Chinese. "Very dirty waahes.
How lonse takee. Two weekee?"

He stopped scratching long enough to stare at me.

"I will endeavor to have it for you then, sir, but you know that the shortage of colored labor hampers our efficiency considerably."

Whereupon he handed me the cover of a package of firecrackers and I left the shop.—Exchange.
