

The Treasury Department has been urged to coin a half-cent piece. If the petitioners can point to anything that can be bought for a half-cent now-a-days, the Treasury will probably give their request some consideration. The editor of the News-Times has an American half-cent piece that is 109 years-old. But, mind you, it is only a half-cent we have.

The curbing and concrete sidewalks will be put in on Front street clear to the S. P. Depot and an effort is being made to have the S. P. Co. do likewise on their side of the street.

Mr. H. C. Watts and daughters, Misses Jennie, Alice, Edith and Mildred, are attending the campmeeting of the Oregon Holiness Association in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Havens, who bought the James T. Hoopes place south of town a week ago, have moved to their new home from Aloha this week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Scruggs and family have moved into the John Fronauer property. Mr. Scruggs is a brakeman on the S.P. electric and formerly lived in Portland.

George Davis suffered a bad jolt in the eye Tuesday night while chopping some wood at his home west of town. While attempting to overcome a recalcitrant knot, a portion of it struck him in the eye. The injury is not only painful but George is also kept busy explaining to his friends just how it happened.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. C. Lightfoot of Portland have recently purchased a home at Aloha and moved thereto. Mr. Lightfoot was formerly a salesman for Wadhams & Co., of Portland, and made this territory regularly, so when he got ready to quit the road and buy a home, he knew where to come.

George O. Stump went to St. Louis, Marion County, Thursday of last week to visit his aunt. He returned Tuesday and reported that he enjoyed a fine outing at Silver Creek falls while away.
