

Orchardists Spray This Month For Moth.

Orchardists are spraying their apples this month for the codling moth, to insure a clean crop, free from worms. Many of the apple growers will make only one application, but Fred Wilcox, of Banks, states that the moth was not very bad early in the season and that the hot weather lately is making them more numerous and that spraying this month will make cleaner apples than usual, even though previous applications were not made. He also states that he will apply the spray at two different times during the month.

Arsenate of lead, 4-100 should be used and for Anthracnose and late scab, add Bordeaux mixture 4-4-50.

A Conversation Overheard

"Hello, Central, give me 326, please. Is that you, Sis? So glad I got you. Say, I have just been to Beaverton and the way that town is picking up is nothing slow. I went into that new store in the Hedge building—McGee's is the name—and, believe me, they have some wonderful bargains in woolen dress goods. Yes, all wool goods and 66 inches wide and only $3 a yard. Why, I just laid in a supply. It beats spending money for car fare and going to Portland and paying three prices for the same goods. Be sure to call and see them when you're in town."
