POKE UP THE FIRES!

In the city park at Portland is a beautiful statue with the significant phrase: "The coming of the white man." That was in reference to Lewis and Clark back in 1805—this meant wonderful changes in this Oregon country. In 1919, two new Highways will put "Beaverton on the map." There will be 10 autos to where there is one now. New people will pass through town for the first time looking for homes. Let everybody discard the old ways of a small town. Now is the time to become a city. Are you a 100% booster for Beaverton first, last and all the time? Let's go!

"A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush"—a dollar in Beaverton is worth five in Portland. When you want a contribution for some worthy enterprise do you take a subscription paper to the business men of Portland? When you wish a little credit for some groceries do you go to Portland stores for the accommodation?

To make a long story short. We have some fine fellows doing business right here in Beaverton. They are advertising some of their bargains in this paper, on their counters. You will find many more. Give them 100% of your trade during September.

Mr. Galbraith finished hauling his baled hay into the barn last Monday with an auto truck. Rev. Gray, Jim Lewis and the Times reporter all helped in the good work. Mrs. Galbraith had a splendid supper ready for the boys.

E. Grandgeorge is digging potatoes. The yield is good for August. He receives $2.25 per cwt.

James Lewis, our popular driver, took a Tally-Ho party over the Columbia Highway Sunday. Those enjoying the trip were Helen Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Wolf and their two sons.

Arthur Fluke, member of the local band, is learning to play his band instrument rapidly. Popular melodies are his speciality.

P. H. Vandehey took a trip Tuesday up to Banks, Shefflin and Greenville. He noted a wonderful change in this section—beautiful residences being erected, and the greatest harvest in full swing. Many of his old friends were glad to see him.
