High school students are requested not to purchase books until after coming to the school Monday. As the requirement for a 45 minute period will of necessity limit the number of classes that can be taught by three teachers, it is advisable that books should not be purchased until the classes are formed.

Mrs. F. C. Peck expects to leave today for Payette, Idaho, to visit her son.

J. T. tone, formerly a Portland business man, but now engaged in dairying near Beaverton, has decided to establish a milk route in Beaverton, and announces elsewhere in this paper some very reasonable rates for milk, the same being about five cents per quart lower than Portland rates.

NEW POSTMASTER GETS HIS OFFICIAL NOTICE; BOND SENT

C. E. Hedge Is Learning Boxes Now—Expects Commission in Time to Take Charge of Office October 1.

C. E. Hedge, Beaverton's new postmaster, received official notice of his appointment Tuesday and now he is familiarizing himself with the duties of the office before time to take charge of the work. His bond has been furnished through the Bank of Beaverton and has been forwarded to Washington and Mr. Hedge hopes to receive his commission in time to take charge of the office October 1.

GOOD ROADS IN WASHINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Eggman, of Skamokawa, Wash., spent Friday night as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Allen. Mrs. Eggman and Mrs. Allen are sisters. Mr. Eggman is one of a committee of 17 members of the Development League, who are touring the state in the interests of better roads and reports that they have already secured the promise of an appropriation of $300,000 for the Coast Highway, which will pass through his home county of Wahkiakum.

Miss Leah Lieser, while in Beaverton Tuesday, stated that the roads of Clarke County have been badly torn up this year because of road construction, but that next year her home can be reached by a highway.

SERVICES AT CONGREGATIONAL

Rev. Wylie, of Montesano, Wash., will speak both morning and evening at the Congregational church. It is understood that Rev. Wylie may be called to this pulpit.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Fitzpatrick who have been living at the Catholic parsonage, have purchased the house recently remodeled by Chas. Esterly in the east part of town and moved to their new home Saturday.

Miss Thelma Pegg will leave soon for Los Angeles where she will attend bible school this winter.

Mrs. H. G. Vincent returned Sunday from a vacation spent at Rockaway, Barview and Tillamook, Oregon. She was accompanied to the beach by Mrs. M. P. Cady and family of Hillsboro and all report a very enjoyable trip.

Mrs. Goldie Vincent has just returned from a two-weeks' visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Walworth, in Tacoma, Wash. She speaks very highly of the wonderful paved highways in Washington which make it possible to visit many scenic places. Many trips were taken to Camp Lewis, Olympia, Seattle, Puyallup, and other points of interest on Puget Sound, as well as to the many beautiful parks of which Tacoma people are justly proud.

Why spend hours of back-breaking labor sawing wood by old methods when a Vaughn Drag Saw will save all the hard work, cut the wood just right and insure an economical supply of fuel at all times. See Cady & Pegg before you start cutting wood.

FOR SALE—Two-horse delivery wagon, very reasonable. Cady-Pegg Co. 31tf.

Edward Boring attended the Staples family musical at the Masonic Temple in Portland last night.

Leon Davis, returned soldier, former editor of The Times, and son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Davis, who has been ill with pleurisy and threatened pneumonia for the past two weeks, is reported improving slowly.

Jack Canerman, of Portland, is in charge of the sale of the last brick from the old Oregon Brick and Tile factory and is at the plant every day.

Mrs. M. K. Emmons and Miss Oma Emmons are spending the week at Sodaville. They left Thursday morning.

SPEED LIMIT SIGNS WILL GO UP; TRUCKS 10 AND CARS 15

More Paving Contracts Let—Bills in Usual Grist Paid—Paving Bonds Are Sold at Par.

After paying the usual grist of bills, the Town Council at its regular monthly meeting let the contract for three blocks of paving on Watson street to the Warren Construction Co., arranged with the same company to pave the extra width of street on the Pacific Highway from Watson street to the eastern part of the business section and sold the bonds for the recent street improvements to the Lumbermen's Trust Co., of Portland, at par.

Speed limit signs to comply with the new speed ordinance were ordered put up and the contract for painting these signs was let to Charles Fry.

The new signs will warn drivers of trucks to slow down to 10 miles per hour and drivers of cars to limit the speed to 15 miles per hour through the town.

Beaverton Has Lawyer New.

Fred Jensen of Aloha, Portland attorney and returned soldier, yesterday opened a law office in the Cady building and will devote the hours from 8:00 to 10:30 each day to practice in Beaverton. The remainder of the day will be given to his Portland practice. Excellent train service enables Mr. Jensen to give this time to practice here without interfering with his Portland practice and he will undoubtedly find many Beaverton people who will appreciate this convenience.

Mr. Jensen, whose home is at Aloha, has but recently returned from service in the army, out has already found his Portland practice up to what he left to go to war.

Ada Wallace Unruh to Lecture.

Ada Wallace Unruh, popular Oregon temperance worker, will lecture at the Congregational church tonight.

Will Resume Her Music Class.

Miss Leah Lieser was in town on Tuesday and met with several of her last year's music pupils. She announces that she will resume her lessons with the class next Friday and Saturday. Miss Lieser, whose home is in Vancouver, conducted a class here last winter and met with excellent success. Beaverton music lovers are fortunate indeed that she is again to take up her work here.

One of the valuable offers open to readers of the Times is the chance to get the Country Gentleman for a full year for only one dollar by sending it to W. C. McKell. We are about as far from being a practical farmer as any reader of the Times could be, but we have found the Country Gentleman mighty good reading and we can not see how any farmer can afford to be without it, nor how any business man doing business with farmers can fail to read it regularly. And by the way, we wish about a dozen of our readers would send their subscriptions to Mc. this week and tell him it was because he advertises in the Times. He believes in advertising and knows that he is getting results, but any fellow likes to have indisputable proof once in a while. And just to make you safe, if after reading the 52 issues you do not feel that you have had a dollar's worth, just let us know and we will send you any part of the dollar that you may feel that you have coming.

Richard McCormick of Oregon City was a Beaverton visitor Thursday and Friday of last week, the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. P. McGee and family.

Stipe's Garage has received a 1920 model of the Chevrolet Four Ninety which is being used as a demonstration car. It has a number of new features and worth-while improvements which will add to the popularity of this already well-known car.

CATHOLIC CHURCH IS GETTING OUT OF DEBT

During Past Six Months More Than Half of Debt Has Been Paid Off By Assessments on Membership And Balance Will Be Paid in Coming Year.

During the past six months, the pastorate of the Reverend Father O'Neill, St. Cecilia's Catholic Church has paid off $3,600 of its building indebtedness. This is more than half the church debt and the remaining $3,000 will be paid off within the next year. Assessments upon the membership is the method employed by Father O'Neill to care for the obligations.

Mrs. Frederika Maass Buried.

Mrs. Frederika Maass, widow of William Maass, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Brown Saturday. She had lived 91 years, 9 months and 17 days. She was born in Hanover, Germany, and came to this country 70 years ago. She moved to Portland in 1890. Of her nine children, six survive her. They are: Wm. Maass of Los Angeles; F. L. Maass and Mrs. E. M. Brown of Beaverton; Mrs. William Hale and Mrs. William Brooks of Eau Claire, Wis.; and Mrs. C. P. Medau of San Francisco.

The funeral was held Wednesday from the Holman undertaking parlors in Portland and interment was in the family lot at Greenwood cemetery.

Post-Philadelphia Conference To Be Held in Portland

The Reverend Walter Duff, who spoke several times last winter in Beaverton, sends us the following notice of a post-Philadelphia conference to be held in Portland.

"Portland is to be favored by having one of the post-Philadelphia conferences which are being held all over the states in such large centers as St. Paul, Denver, Seattle, Tacoma, Los Angeles, St. Louis, Buffalo, New York, Grand Rapids and others.

"The Philadelphia conference was held from May 27 to June 1 and was one of the largest gatherings ever held in America.

"The questions answered and decisions reached will be brought personally to the people of Portland by some of the leading church men of the world. Among those scheduled to appear are: Dr. W. B. Riley, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Minneapolis, superintendent of the Northwestern Bible School and certainly one of the greatest men in the Baptist church today; Dr. A. L. Dixon, formerly pastor of the Metropolitan (Spurgeon's) Tabernacle, London, England; Rev. W. L. Pettingill, dean of the Philadelphia Bible School; Henry Ostrum, of evangelistic fame, of the Moody Bible Institute; B. F. Fellman and Arthur McKee, two of America's talented singers. A pianist will also be provided.

"The meetings in Portland will be held simultaneously in the White Temple and in the Sunnyside Congregational church.

"The Rev. Walter Duff, of Portland, while on his tour of the East, arranged for this conference in Portland.

"All wanting any information can have it by writing to or calling at the following address: 266 Alder Street, between Third and Fourth. Programs may also be had at the same address."

One of the successful hunting parties of the season was composed of James Lewis, Lawrence Wolf, George Hughson and Harrison Hughson. They left a week ago Sunday, spent the week on the Nehalem river and returned Sunday, with a five-point buck and a two-point buck. The honor of bringing down the five-point was due Lawrence Wolf. George Hughson shot the other one twice and when it broke cover in a clump of trees, it was Lawrence Wolf who fired the lucky shot which brought him down.
